ROBERT'S HOTEL.
SIGN OF WASHINGTON N. D. JACKSON.
The author of this would respectfully inform his friends and acquaintances that he has removed his old stand or West High street to the public house lately kept by David Allen in South Hunter street, to this house, sign of Washington and Jackson, where he will be found every day from 12 m. to 2 p.m. and from 6 to 8 p.m. He has added a large quantity of both heat and comfort to his neighbors.

This Hall will be constantly supplied with the choicest liquors, and his Table with the best the market can furnish. A barrel of Ale always keeps him full, and a large supply of beer is always to be had.

BOATMEN WORK IN THE WEEK. ANDREW KIRKETT, April 17, 1844.

HENRY S. RITTER,
An eminent Building Establishment placed along the Hotel Row occupied by Andrew K. Kirkett, in the City of Carlisle, has been erected in his former residence, where he will place to attend to his old customers and the public generally. From his experience in the business, he is satisfied that he will be able to please all who may patronize him.

The last City Hall will always be identified and nothing shall detract from his care to merit the reasonable share of patronage.

The author of this would like to present opportunity to renew his thanks to his former patrons for their liberality, and hopes by a strict attention to business, and a disposition to please, to merit a continuance of the same.
