And dont it chate Billy Doon. and Sawney O'Toole, that made the brogue And doesn't it chate Tommy M'Hide, the Tanner, and Benny M'Blubber, the Courier? And isn't it chatning the Dooblin folks that made the lasts, and the tools, and the page? And aint it clisteing the farmer that sells the paraties, and the carpenter, M' Adze, who made box, and the Praste you confess to, and the Docther that cured Sawney O'Toole's ninth child of the typhus fever. The same of the I say Mike, don't you in Ireland, and houses, and ate paraties without any salt, as well as Billy Doon and Sawney O'Toole? Then come over and vote for Young Hakery, that's for the Repale of the Tariff. Repale! is the word in America, as well as in Ould Ireland.

From Yours, PATHRICK M'NOGGIN P. S. I'm done now, Michesl, and send his by the good stamer Hibernia and hope you'll get it before she gets there. The Yankens are going to have abother kind of anuda lethers by thunder and lightning, so Micheal cant I send you a lether before it is writ, and get an answer before I sind it.
