CARLISLE, PA.

Wednesday Morning, November 13, 1844.

☞The favor of our friend B. S. R. shall appear next week.

☞For several months past our paper has been wholly devoted to the great political canvass. We shall hereafter give the usual miscellany of literature and general intelligence, and endeavor to render the Herald as attractive, valuable and interesting to its numerous readers as possible.

☞If our paper to-day does not give as gratifying returns of the elections as we know our readers earnestly hoped for, they will nevertheless find some other articles both interesting and amusing. On the first page the report on Swine, and Patrick McNeggn's letter,—which shows the high state of intelligence and American feeling which about nine-tenths of our adopted citizens usually reach—will make most folks laugh in spite of political disappointment. A choice selection of horrible disasters, casualties and crimes, for those who like such details, will be found on the inside page. A valuable article for our Agricultural readers will also be found on the fourth page.

☞The Rev. JOHN V. E. THORNE, a Presbyter of the Diocese of Delaware, in conformity with a Rule of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, relative to ordained ministers of other religious denominations making application for admission, was unanimously received by the Synod of West Pennsylvania, held in September last, as a minister of it, and has subsequently renounced all connexion with, and all authority from, the Protestant Episcopal Church, to which he belonged.

THE GREAT RESULT.

☞Our friends will see by the results in the several States heard from, which we give in another place, that in all probability HENRY CLAY is DEFEATED and JAMES K. POLK elected President of the United States! We know how this humiliating announciation will fall on the ears of thousands of devoted whigs and cause their hearts to sink within them in very despair. And yet there is very faint hope that such a result will not be realized before another week.

The three great States of Pennsylvania, New York and Virginia have gone in favor of Polk, but should the States of North Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee, Indiana, Louisiana and Mississippi go in favor of Mr. CLAY in addition to those which have already declared for him, his election will still be secured. The elections in Massachusetts and Vermont took place on Monday, and in Delaware yesterday—these States it is presumed will go as they always have done. Mr. Clay's chances it will thus be seen are very narrow indeed, and without placing too much dependence on the prospect, we can only recommend to our friends to "hope on, hope ever"—the darkest hour is often the last before day.

Many of our friends gave up the contest upon hearing the result in New York. The final issue may prove them to have been prophetic in their fears, but the practice is a wrong one, and has done injury to the whig cause before now. We like the language of one of our contemporaries on this subject, who urges that "in these matters many of our friends might with profit take lessons from the example of our opponents. Rumors of disaster and defeat never disturb the equanimity of a loco foco. Nothing but a copy of the official returns will convince him that his candidate is defeated, and he possesses the happy faculty of extracting fresh hope and confidence from each successive defeat. If it were possible by any means, to infuse a portion of that same blind confidence and dogged resolution into the breasts of our desponding and croaking whigs, the whig party would never have cause to tremble for the result in any contest with its wily, unscrupulous and persevering opponent. Let us then, imitate the example of a party that presents nothing else worthy of imitation in its principles or tactics, and never despair of success whilst the issue is undecided, no matter how unfavorable an aspect the contest may wear—never despair of success until "the battle's lost and won;" better, much better, that you run into the other extreme, and hope against hope."

Presidential Election.

The following comprise the States, with their relative electoral strength, which have already cast their votes on the Presidential election.

For CLAY.		For POLK.
Ohio,	23	Pennsylvania,	26
Maryland,	8	South Carolina,	9
Connecticut,	6	New-Hampshire,	6
Rhode Island,	4	Virginia,	17
New Jersey,	7	New York,	36

South Carolina has elected the Legislature, which casts the electoral vote of the State—we therefore put it down as settled.

Loco Foco Jollification.

As was to be expected, the victory of Polk and Dallas in New York was received by our opponents here with great rejoicings. On Saturday night a bon-fire was lighted on the square, thirteen guns fired, and a torch-light procession formed. Added to this their songs and shoutings continued to make night hideous until a late hour. We understand that this small jollification was but the prelude to a grand illumination, ox-roast, &c., on some future day.

Concerts.

☞Our newly-organized Brass Band gave two Concerts last week, and in both cases to well filled houses. The performances furnished ample proof of the proficiency made by the members during the short time they have been in practice. The performances by the Preceptor of the Band, Mr. Burns, on the violin, and other pieces by several amateurs, gave the highest satisfaction to the audience. The Band will be an ornament to our community.

Native Americanism.

☞The editor of the Philadelphia Sun, a Native American, says in his last paper that he is about to make a tour of several months through the interior with others, and the truth and the whole truth shall be told. The danger of the foreign banded vote shall be displayed, and it shall be —A DEEP TONED PROTESTANT VOICE, that in the times of old roused the nations as with an Archangel's trump, shall sound from every hamlet and town, from the workshop and the plough, the forge, the furnace, and the woods—that the reign of Priesthood is over, and freedom shall sit in the temple erected by the immortal Washington, undefiled by a contaminating, hollow-hearted, selfish, calculating, Jesuitical foreign influence.

POSTSCRIPT.—The last return, from Georgia, by the Baltimore stage last night, indicate that her Electoral vote will be cast for Polk and Dallas. If so, the "jig is up!"

... AND DEFEATS.

...impossible to give tables of the ...ities in the several States heard ...o the incomplete form in which the ...er. Our readers will find below the ...vote and majorities of all the States so ...y have been received. It will be seen ...thus while the factious course of the political Abolitionists and Foreigners have lost us the great States of Pennsylvania and New York, the Whigs have gloriously triumphed in Ohio, Maryland, New Jersey, Connecticut and Rhode Island, and have an almost certain prospect of success in North Carolina, Georgia and Indiana.

PENNSYLVANIA.—A table is given in another part of this paper which shows the result in most of the counties, some of which are official. The vote for Polk shows an increase over Shunk's majority.

OHIO.—The gallant "Buckeye State" has come out of the contest covered with laurels!—The Majority for CLAY will be near 10,000.—The returns show an increased majority over the late Governor's Election in every county in the State.

MARYLAND.—In the last Governor's election, Mr. Pratt the Whig candidate succeeded by a majority of only 538. Now Mr. Clay carries the State by a clear majority of over 3000! All honor to the staunch and true Whigs of Maryland!

NEW JERSEY—Gallant little Jersey—the home of the pure and noble FRELINGHUYSEN—has come gallantly to the rescue! The most strenuous and desperate efforts were made by the locofocos, headed by Capt. Stockton, to carry the State but they have been signally routed! Mr. Clay's majority is over 1000, and the Whigs have elected four out of five members of Congress! New Jersey's "broad seal" is nobly sustained.

CONNECTICUT.—The "land of steady habits" and Free Schools, is as ever nobly true to herself and the country! Mr. Clay's majority over Polk is at least 3000!—Well done gallant Connecticut!

RHODE ISLAND.—Little Rhoda has gone Whig, of course. Dorrism has killed Locofocoism in the gallant little State, and justly too.—Clay's majority is about 2500!! We find in this result abundant evidence, if any were wanting, that the radical doctrines of modern mis-named Democracy can find no place in Rhode Island.

NEW HAMPSHIRE—has gone for Polk as was generally expected. The majority it is said will be eight or ten thousand.

NEW YORK.—Contrary to our warmest hopes the Locofocos have succeeded in the Empire State by the meagre majority of 3 or 4000. This result has been accomplished by the immense vote of Naturalized Foreigners in the Eastern part of the State, and the suicidal policy of the Whig Abolitionists in the West, who threw away their votes on Birney, the Liberty candidate The Legislature is loco foco of course, and the Congressional delegation will stand 13 Whigs and Natives, to 20 locofocos. The other doubtful.

VIRGINIA—has stained herself with the black ingratitude of voting against her noble son. The amount of Texan lands and scrip held in Virginia will account for the increase of the loco foco majority. The majority for Polk it is supposed will be about 3000.

INDIANA.—Returns from 17 counties in Indiana, show a nett Whig gain of 977 as compared with the vote for Governor in 1843, when the loco foco majority was 2,013. There are 87 counties in the State—hence a like gain in the remaining counties would give CLAY the State by a majority of from 2 to 3000.

GEORGIA.—Returns from sixty-two counties, show a Whig gain of over 900 over the late Congressional election. Some thirty counties yet to hear from, which it is feared will not overcome the loco foco majority at that election. If they do not Mr. Polk's election will be sure.

NORTH CAROLINA.—Returns from thirty-five counties in the old North State, give the Clay Electoral ticket 5012, Polk 7617. The same counties gave in 1844, for Graham, (Whig) 4476; Hoke, (Loco) 6921. Graham's majority in the State was 3684.

KENTUCKY and TENNESSEE.—The returns so far indicate that "at home" the Whigs stand around their own HARRY CLAY like a "wall of fire," and will bring him out of the furnace like gold seven times purified! The majority will be from 10 to 15,000" Passengers by the western cars yesterday reported that Tennessee had gone for CLAY!

MICHIGAN—There are few returns yet from this State, but they are all on the Polk side.

In our next we shall be able to give more complete returns.

Foreign Influence.

☞The New York Express, after laying the blame of our defeat in New York upon the political Abolitionists and Foreigners, adds,—To this result, then, we must come at last. That fraudulent Foreign votes have given the Electoral vote of the State of New York to James K. Polk, and the same fraud perpetrated elsewhere has given him a majority of the electoral votes of the country. Our enemies cannot contradict this fact: It is beyond dispute. It is seen in the vote of St. Lawrence and Jefferson. It is seen along the river counties, and everywhere where there has been foreign material to make votes of. From nine to ten thousand citizens were made in the State of New York, who never voted before the election on Tuesday last. More foreigners were made citizens by thousands than the majority given to Mr. Polk,—and the worst feature of all has been, as we had abundant testimony during the process of naturalization, that perjury had as much influence in the manufacture of foreign voters as the truth itself.

The victory of the Locofocos is not that of Americans, but a triumph of Irishmen and Germans over Americans. They proclaimed boldly before the election, "Americans shan't rule us,—and they have kept their word. We live to see the day when more than the balance of power is in the hands of those who are neither born of our bone nor flesh of our flesh,—of men who have no love for the country in which they live,—no true attachment for the Institutions which have given them a home better than their own,—no sympathy for what is American. The stripes upon our flag are emblems of the scourges America has received from the banded aliens in our midst, who proclaim aloud—"Americans, shan't rule us!"

Millerism!

Storrs and Himes, two of the leading Millerites, publicly recanted their egregious folly and madness, on Tuesday of last week, at a Millerite church in New York, and advised the people to go to work. Storrs said he had been led astray as to the end of the world by excitement and Mesmerism!, and most penitently acknowledged his sins and wickedness; while Himes, although one of the principal agents in deceiving the people, contented himself with rating the congregation pretty harshly for their infatuation!

☞Mormonism has made considerable progress in Scotland. At a meeting in Glasgow last month some 600 persons were present, all in mourning for the Prophet Joe Smith. The Scotch Mormon Conference embraces fifteen churches.

The Political Demagogue.

☞The character of the political demagogue—and we have a good many such in this borough—who seeks to array one class of the community against another, in this country of equal rights and privileges, cannot be too thoroughly despised. He is well portrayed by Daniel Webster, in his speech on Boston Common on the 19th of September:

"It is the universal cry with our opponents, and it is the loudest where the facts are least known, that protection is useful to the capitalists, to corporations, that it builds up large fortunes for a few, but depresses the interest of the laborer.—And even in our own state of Massachusetts there are those evil spirits abroad who make war between different classes to excite one against another, men filled with hatred, envy, malice, and all uncharitableness. (Applause.) I must say it, for, upon my conscience, since the serpent crept into paradise to corrupt, seduce, and ruin our first parents, I do not know of a more wicked spirit, either in man or serpent, than that which actuates these individuals. (Prolonged cheering.) If you, any of you, find such men at work, mark them—stigmatize them—as pirates, as enemies to the whole human race take care to consider them. They come but for evil—but to break up and destroy the whole relations of the community—they are fit for no society except the society of their early prototype."

The Next Presidency.

☞The Philadelphia Native American declares its preference for General Winfield Scott for President, and Hon. John McLean for Vice President of the United States at the next election.—The American Republican, also of Philadelphia, is out in favor of the Hon. [illegible] of Virginia. All good men.

Governor Dorr.

The father and mother of Governor Dorr have petitioned the Rhode Island Legislature for the release of their son. The memorial was referred to the "Convict's Committee," on the ground that Dorr was a convict, and that the sole ground of those who pretended to be his friends, and were anxious for his liberation, was agitation and excitement.

☞The number of emigrants who have landed at the port of New York alone, during the last sixteen years, is ascertained to be SIX HUNDRED AND THIRTY-ONE THOUSAND THREE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-ONE! Of this number, three hundred and seventeen thousand three hundred and nine are from Great Britain!!

NATIONAL SABBATH CONVENTION.

The following gentlemen of Carlisle and vicinity, have been appointed delegates to the National Sabbath Convention, to assemble at Baltimore, on Wednesday, the 27th November inst:

Rev. Dr. Durbin, Rev. Thomas V. Moore, Rev. Henry Aorand, Rev. John N. Hoffman, Rev. Mr. Newlin, Rev. J. Davis, Stephen M. Harris, Henry Duffield, Professor M. Caldwell, George Keller, R. Angney, Andrew Richards, John Paul, Jacob Soner, Charles Ogilby, Jacob Fetter, C. H. Tiffany, Rev. M. Morris, near Mechanicsburg, Rev. Thomas Myers, Mechanicsburg, Dr. I. Snowden, Hogestown, John Dyer, Spring Forge.

Committee in session, after appointing the above named delegates,

Resolved, That this delegation be and are hereby requested, as far as possible, to supply the places of any of their number who may not attend the Convention.

Resolved, That we hereby suggest to the ministers of religion, and to the friends of the Sabbath, throughout Cumberland county, to use their influence to secure a representation at the Baltimore Convention from every township in the county. M. CALDWELL, Chairman.

☞The call for the Convention requests delegates, on their arrival at Baltimore, to report themselves at the lecture room of the Fifth Presbyterian Church (Rev. Mr. Hamner's) in Hanover street, between Pratt and Lombard streets, where a committee of reception will be in waiting to secure them accommodations.

THE MARKETS.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 8th, 1844.

FLOUR.—Flour has sold more freely; millers (of City Mills) have shown less firmness, and being disposed to realize, have submitted to $4 25 for good common brands. Howard street has sold to a larger extent than in any week previous for some time, at the same price, and in some instances a shade less has been taken, the receipt price from the cars at $4 12½. The market is still without any stock of Susquehanna. The inspections this week comprise the following kinds and quantities: Howard street 4,690 barrels, and 121 half barrels; City Mills 5,742 barrels and 618 half barrels; Susquehanna 20 barrels; Family flour 702 barrels. Total—11,354 barrels, and 739 half barrels wheat flour. There were also inspected 15 hogsheads corn meal, and 23 barrels rye flour.

GRAIN.—The receipts of Wheat continue fair, and about equal to the demand, and we know of no change in prices; Maryland and Virginia reds are selling at 90 to 93 cents for good to prime, and 75 to 88 for inferior to fair qualities. Millers are paying 1 to $1 06 for Maryland white. Rye has sold at 65 cents. The receipts of Corn are mostly of the new crop, and 30 to 40 cents have been paid for white, and 40 to 42 for yellow. A lot of old Pennsylvania fetched 47 to 48. Oats may be quoted at 24 to 25 cents.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8th, 1844.

FLOUR.—There is no new feature in the flour market; stocks are increasing and the export demand is on a limited scale. We notice sales of about 2000 bbls. at $4 37½, including a lot at $4 44, and quote within this range to-day for common and fair shipping brands; for city use the sales have been at $4 for old stock, $4 19 for scraped, 4 44 a $4 50 for fair and good, $4 75 a $5 for extra and fancy brands. Rye flour, scarce, small sales at $3 25 a 3 31. Corn Meal, sales of 2500 bbls. at $3 44 a 3 37½ for Pennsylvania, mostly at the latter rate, including a small lot of Brandywine at $3 55.

GRAIN.—The arrivals of Wheat have been limited, and sales of prime Southern at 90 a 92c, afloat, and 94c in store. Week's sales about 10,000 bushels. Rye is wanted; sales of several lots Penna. at 60c, and a small lot 64c. Corn is dull and prices lower. Several cargoes have been shipped on owners' account, and sales of Southern yellow at 46 a 44c, closing at the latter rate; White 41 a 42c; Penna round yellow 47c, and flat 46 a 45.

WHISKEY.—Whiskey in hhds. 26c, and in bbls. 28c.

MARRIED,

In Chambersburg, Pa., on Tuesday the 5th instant, by the Rev. Daniel McKinley, J. ELLIS BONHAM, Esq., of this borough, to Miss SARAH A. KING, of Chambersburg.

On the 31st ult., by David S. Runshaw, Esq., Mr. GEORGE HUMWOOD, to Miss CATHARINE FINKINBRUDER, all of Hopewell township, Cumberland county.

DIED,

In this borough, on the 24th of October inst, Mr. CHARLES ROWAN, in the 74th year of his age, a much respected citizen of this place.

In this borough, on Friday the 1st inst., Mrs. CYNTHIA BEEKMAN, consort of Mr. James Noble, and daughter of the late Dr. Jacob Johnson, aged 30 years.

At the residence of his father in South Middleton township, on the 4th inst., Mr. WILLIAM CRAIGHEAD, aged 43 years.

In Harrisburg, on Wednesday morning, the 20th ult. Mr. JOSIAH ELDER, aged about 42 years.

The illness that terminated the life of the deceased was long and acutely painful, though no one of those who watched over him knew it from any murmuring on the part of the patient sufferer. No complaints were ever heard to pass his lips, and no feeling exhibited but a calm and patient resignation to his afflictions. Sustained and soothed by an unfaltering trust in the Saviour, to whom he had early dedicated himself, he knew that "our light affliction which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory." And it was beautiful to see that when Death came at last he met him not as the dread "king of terrors," but as a kind friend whose mission was to attend him to a better land. He is gone, but his memory is that of the just, and the fragrance of his virtues will long linger with all who knew him.

☞PULMONARY CONSUMPTION.—Astonishing cure by THOMPSON'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF TAR.—Read the following. Philadelphia, March 9, 1844. Mr. S. P. Thomson—Dear Sir—Although unsolicited by you, I consider it a duty I owe to my suffering fellow creatures, to make the following statement, which for humanity sake I hope you will make public, for rarely, if ever has so astonishing a cure been effected in Pulmonary Consumption, when the patient was so near the grave.

Four years ago I had a violent attack of billious fever, which left my general health in a wretched condition, with great weakness at the chest, a slight cough supervened, which gradually increased in violence until all the symptoms of Pulmonary Consumption became fearfully apparent. Such copious night sweats, soreness and swelling of the throat, hectic fever, hoarseness and often total loss of voice, a sense of suffocation and dreadful oppression, so that for ten months together, it was necessary every night to prop me up with pillows almost in a sitting posture, bleeding from the lungs, and at one time I threw up a full pint of blood. Such was my distress that I had to keep my throat constantly moist with some cooling liquid, and to crown all, I suffered violent palpitation of the heart. Every morning I would cough up with great pain, large quantities of putrid matter. In this condition I rapidly wasted away, and I had not the shadow of a doubt that before this winter was over I should be a corpse.

During my protracted sufferings I used all the popular remedies for Consumption, but none of them were so much as relieved me. I also had the advice of different periods, of four good Physicians, who did all they could for me with no avail. They in turn pronounced me incurable and said that I might linger a few months, but my disease was confirmed Consumption, and beyond the reach of medical skill.

In order, if possible to procure at least an abatement of my sufferings, a friend suggested the use of your COMPOUND SYRUP OF TAR, and brought me a bottle, and I could scarcely credit the evidence of my senses, at the immediate and wonderful relief it afforded me. I took it regularly for two months; every symptom gradually disappeared, my lungs healed, my strength returned, and astonishing as it may seem, from being scarcely able to raise my head from the pillow, I am now able to walk miles without fatigue, and your invaluable medicine has through the blessing of God, been the means literally of rescuing me from the grave.

Should you think proper to publish this you are at liberty to refer the afflicted to me, that every word of the foregoing may be substantiated by me in person.

DETERER'S MAGIC OIL.

THE peculiar properties of this splendid OIL, renders it a necessary appendage to every lady or gentleman's toilet. Unlike all other oil, it does not soil the hair, but gives it a brilliancy and beauty unsurpassed. It penetrates the minutest pores giving to the dry withering hairs new life and vigor, opening the capilaries, and securing that healthy tone and action so necessary to the preservation or production of a fine head of hair.

Sold at No. 2 Fifth street, Philadelphia, and by storekeepers generally at 25 and 50 cts. Sold in Carlisle by S. ELLIOTT.

Portraits and Drawing.

C. BURTON, Artist, and professor of Perspective and Scientific Drawing, Louther street, Carlisle, (opposite Professor M'Clintock's) grateful for the kind patronage he has already received from the Faculty and Students of Dickinson College, as also, from many of the citizens, he begs leave to inform them that he is now at "home," and will be happy to be again employed, either in giving lessons in his superior mode of imparting knowledge in DRAWING from REAL OBJECTS, or in taking truly CHARACTERISTIC LIKENESSES in his peculiar style (now becoming so well appreciated for their excellence) either at his residence, as above, or at their dwellings in town or country if not in classes. He is fully determined that his terms shall be moderate, and for those who find money scarce he will take wood, meat and all such articles as his family may require, at a fair market price.

The terms for his NO LIKENESS NO PAY Portraits will be—for one $3, for two $5, for four $9, and for seven $14—that is, if said numbers are taken in immediate succession.
