The Foreign Victory!
The certainty that Tennessee has cast her electoral vote for CLAY and FULTON, now proves that New York was the really fatal loss for that ticket.

The Congress of 1843.
The United States Senate, after the 4th of March next, will be composed as follows—10 Whigs hold over, and 16 Locofocos. Connecticut and Vermont have elected two new Senators, making 18 whigs certain. Mississippi has elected a locofoco Senator, making 10 locofocos. The Locofocos have the following State Legislatures, each of which elect U. S. Senators: Maine 1, New Jersey 1, Pennsylvania 1, Missouri 1, Arkansas 1, Michigan 1, making 55 Locofocos. The whigs have the following State Legislatures, which will elect Whigs—Massachusetts 1, Rhode Island 1, New Jersey 1, Maryland 1, Indiana 1, Tennessee 1, Delaware 1. Total twenty-six.

There is also a Senator to be elected in Virginia, where the Legislature nominally contains a Whig majority of two members, and to retain a majority in the Senate they must elect the Senator from Virginia. Unless the Whigs get this Senator, there will be, in effect, a locofoco majority, as the Vice President of the United States is ex-officio President of the Senate, and has the casting vote.

MARKET REPORTS.
BALTIMORE, Nov. 22, 1844.
FLOUR.—The demand is moderate. About the time of making up our last report, several thousand bbls. City Mills for export at $4 25 per bushel and there has been further, though small sales this week, at about the same rate. Purchasers have not been so freely as the price, but have been more operated grudgingly, endeavoring to obtain the article at $4 150. Dealers are still paying $4 150. The market is bare of Sagoona, and few sales are expected here for some time. The price for the week is as follows: 65 lb bbls. and 75 lb bbls. Howard street, 5.91 1/2 bbls. 175 half bbls. City Mills 3.55 and 324 half bbls. Sagoona, 4.90 1/2 bbls. Family flour 7.63 bbls. Total, 10, 399 bbls. and 500 half bbls. wheat flour. There were also inspected 485 bbls. and 54 half bbls. of meal, and 70 lbs. rye flour.

Governor Porter has issued a proclamation, declaring the election of the two loco presidential electors.

The Beaver Argus says that the Erie extension line of the Pennsylvania Canal, extending from Beaver to Erie, and connecting the Ohio and Lake Erie, is now open for navigation.

Hon. Silas Wright has been named by a correspondent of the Baltimore Clipper, as a suitable candidate of the Native Americans for the next Presidency.

On Thursday last, the United States Bank building in Chestnut street, Philadelphia, was opened as the Custom House of that city, and the business connected with the collection of revenues was commenced.

Mr. Clay received in the late election, a larger popular vote than was given to Gen. Harrison, who succeeded by a majority of 146,000 over Mr. Van Buren, and yet has been defeated. The population of our country is rapidly increasing one.

The New York Tribune has issued a prospectus for the year 1845. They fight the political battle on their old ground and have strengthened the editorial department by the additional employment of great ability as writers for their literary columns.

Mr. Van Kesteren, who has had a difficulty with his tenants in New York, it is said, is about to make his residence in Pennsylvania, in order that he may bring a suit against the State of New York, in the U. S. Supreme Court, to compel that State to have its laws executed against those tenants who resist his right. His place of residence, it is understood, will be in Bristol.

Many of our locofoco counties polled more votes at the recent Presidential election than they contained white male inhabitants, at the recent census. Thus Pike, with 848 adults, polled 920 votes; Monroe, with 2034, polled 2220; Tioga, with 3242 polled 3267; Perry, with 3500, polled 3671; Columbia, with 5033, polled 5108, and Potter, 732, polled 794. This bodes unfair play, N. American.

Foot Race.—The great foot race over the Hoboken course in New York, for 1,400, came off Tuesday afternoon last. The first race, three miles for $400, was run by Jackson in 36 minutes 10 seconds. The second, ten miles for $1000 was won by Barlow, the Englishman, in 54 minutes 21 seconds. The second in was the Indian third, Greenhalgh, the Englishman, and Gildersleeve, the winner of the first race, fourth.

Having in New Hampshire.—The question, gallow or no gallow, has been decided in the Granite State, all hollow in favor of the nose. In one of the anti-slavery districts there was a man, who, on being asked his notions of the matter, took time to consider the question, and gravely answered that he was opposed to its abolition until his neighbor Barnes (with whom he had a controversy) was hanged, and then he should be in favor of it!

Foreign Insults.—An unnaturalized foreigner publishes a paper in Boston, called the Pilot, which contains the most abusive and insolent articles against the native citizens of the United States. In a late number he uses the following language:

"Native courage is a commodity that needs to be proven to exist. The flag of America is not yet seventy years old, and thrice the NATIVE sons of America have deserted it. Therefore, we advise those cowards and sons of cowards to boast moderately. As shopkeepers, they are excellent—as merchants, enterprising and persevering—as nurses, they have no equals in the world—but as soldiers, every NATIVE ought to belong to the Peace Society."

It is thus, says the Baltimore Clipper, that this vile slander repays the citizens of this country for their liberality in permitting him to take up his abode amongst them. He has not been two years in the country, and yet he has the presumption not only to intermeddle not only in political matters, but to denounce every native born citizen as a coward. Can it be supposed that this man will ever become an American in feeling? And yet he will be permitted to become a citizen, and to exercise all the rights of a citizen, in little more than three years from this time, or perhaps may not even wait so long. Suppose that an American citizen were to go to England, publish a paper, and charge the natives of the country with being cowards—would his press stand a hour after the publication? No. He would be summarily punished for the outrage. And it is, perhaps, because the editor of the Pilot is not thus treated in the United States, that he thinks the American people deficient in courage. We would not have his press destroyed, nor his person injured, because we are convinced that his vile calumnies will contribute to the result we so much desire, the extension of the naturalization laws, and the annihilation of foreign influence in our country. On these subjects the American spirit is becoming effectually roused—and the exertions of the American Republicans will never cease until they purge the country of an evil which threatens its destruction. We shall see whether there does not exist sufficient courage among our citizens to prevent Europe from flooding this country with her felons and puppets, to be manufactured into American citizens.

Woman.—A writer in Blackwood's Magazine writes in the following strain: Great indeed, is the task assigned to woman. Who can elevate its dignity? Not to make laws, not to lead armies, not to govern empires, but to form those by whom the laws are made, and armies led, and empires governed; to guard from the slightest stain of possible infamy the frail and yet spotless creature, whose moral, no less than his physical being must be derided from her; to inspire those principles, to inculcate those doctrines, to animate those sentiments which generations yet unborn, and nations yet uncivilized, shall learn to cherish; to soften firmness into mercy, and chasten honor into refinement, to exalt generosity into virtue; by her soothing caresses to allay the anguish of the body, and the far worse anguish of the mind; by her tenderness to disarm passion; by her purity to triumph over sense; to cheer the scholar sinking under his toil; to console the statesman for the ingratitude of a mistaken people; to be the compensation for the hopes that are blighted, for friends that are peevish, for happiness that has passed away. Such is her vocation—the couch of the tormented sufferer, the prison of the degraded friar, the cross of a rejected sinner, the joy of a woman's affection, these are the theatres on which her greatest triumphs have been achieved.—Such is her destiny, to visit the forsaken to attend to the neglected, when monstrous abandon, when counsellors betray, when justice persecutes, when brethren and disciples fail, to remain unbroken and unchanged, and to exhibit on this larger world a type of that love, pure, constant and self-subsistent, which in the smaller world, we are taught to believe the best of virtues.

SWINDLED PENNSYLVANIA.—A very small majority of the voters of Pennsylvania, says the New York Tribune, have been induced to vote for James K. Polk on the solemn assurance of the locofoco leaders that Polk is more a tariff man than Clay. At the very time these men are thus duped, South Carolina goes unanimously for Polk on the ground of his utter and uniform hostility to any Protective Tariff whatever! There never was a blacker fraud than that by which Pennsylvania has been seduced from her own side to cast her vote for the deadly enemies of her industry and her Prosperity.

The Raleigh, (N. C.) Register states that James K. Polk was born in Mecklenberg county, in that State, in the same county that his Grand Father, Old Zer. Polk, swore allegiance to the British Crown. To the same county, Gen. Saunders and Gen. Drozgoole made a political pilgrimage, to enlighten the people, and convert them from the error of their ways. But all these appliances failed of their effect. The whigs could not be induced to support the grandson of a Tory, and have given a great gain, in that county, since the August election of ONE HUNDRED AND FORTY TWO VOTES!

The Farmer.—It does one's heart good to see a merry round-faced farmer, so independent and yet so free from vanity and pride. So rich and yet so industrious, so patient and persevering in his calling, and yet so kind, so social and obliging. There are thousands of noble traits about his character. He is generally hospitable—eat and drink with him, and he won't set a mark on you and sweat it out of you with downy countenance, expecting a return by way of compensation, yet is not so with every body. He is generally more honest and sincere—less duping, so deal in low and underhand cunning, so deal in low and underhand cunning, so deal in low and underhand cunning. He is free from the usual vices of Government—he is free from the usual vices of Government—he is free from the usual vices of Government. Look at him in his homestead and say much—gentlemen I laugh at him, if you will—but believe me, he can laugh back at the pleasure.

Philadelphia, Nov. 22, 1844.
FLOUR.—Since our last weekly report there has been a slight decline in Flour; and sales of about 3500 bbls for export, at $4 25 a 4.31; most of it at the former rate; good bands at $4 37 a 4.50 and extra at 4 62 a 4 75; fancy lots $5; 400 half bbls at $4 75; the pair for the market for a few days past has been quiet, and common and fair brands may be quoted at $4 25; retail sales are making at our quoted rates. Rye flour small sales at $3 25. Corn Meal dull; a small lot of Penna. sold at 21 1/2. GRAIN.—The market for wheat has been dull and prices have declined. Sales early in the week of Pennsylvania reds at 90 a 92 cents; since at 89 a 90 cents. Week's sales about 15,000 bu. Sales of Penna. rye 66c. Corn's Sales to the extent of 8000 bushels at 43 cents. Oats; Sales of about 8000 bushels Southern at 27 a 26 1/2 and 26 cents closing at the latter rate.

How to Make Money.—It has been said, and very truly so, that money saved is money made. In this quotation, it may be said, money saved is more for you than for your neighbor. We will tell you—instead of paying one dollar or more for a Cough Mixture, buy Dr. Stilling's Pulmonary Syrup for 60 cents, in doing which you not only save money, but you get a medicine that challenges a comparison in quantity and efficiency in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Spitting of Blood, Hoarse Voice, Consumption, Whooping Cough, Croup, and all similar diseases.

Sinuit M. Woolston, Mount Holly, New Jersey, states that he was cured of a most distressing Cough, in a short time, by using Dr. Stilling's Pulmonary Syrup. For sale at the Drug & Chemical Store of S. ELLIOTT, East High Street, Carlisle.

Thompson's Compound Syrup of Tar and Wood Naphtha for Consumption! Philadelphia, March 1st, 1844. I hereby certify that in consequence of repeated attacks of Cough and cold, my lungs became seriously diseased, and I was almost blind, and was in the most violent pain in the breast, obstinate cough, and frequent expectoration. The symptoms daily increasing in violence, I had recourse to various remedies, and at length I purchased and used your Compound Syrup of Tar, which effected a complete cure. I have taken three bottles. F. EVANS, Fayette street, Arch, Principal Office, N. E. corner Fifth and Spruce streets. Sold in Carlisle by T. C. STEVENSON, sole Agent.

Peters' Cough Lozenges are now rapidly superseding all other preparations for the relief of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Whooping Cough, Tightness of the Chest, Bronchitis, and Asthma, and are highly valued by all who have used them. It is now so well established, that a large number of cases of Consumption, by which many lives are sacrificed, and thousands of our countrymen are rendered lame and blind, might easily have been removed at an earlier period. No medical will be found so effective, one or two cases as these Lozenges. They faithfully ally the cough, by removing the irritation which keeps it up, and they induce the most perfect expectoration, and relieve consumption. Sold in Carlisle by S. ELLIOTT, sole agent for this borough.

INFLAMMATORY HEMIPLEGIA.—Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are one of the best of medicines for the cure of inflammatory hemiplegia because they not only clear the blood, but also induce perspiration which are the cause, but they impact an energy to the circulation which carries it with vigor to every part of the system. For the cure of this disease, being properly supplied with the vital fluid, receive their proportion of animal heat; and coolness of the feet, induces a perspiration which is directed to the head, and every other symptom of a cerebral derangement, will be driven from the body. Observe—Purchase only of the advertised agents, or at the Office of the General Depot, No. 189 Race street, Philadelphia, and be particular to ask for Wright's Indian-Vegetable Pills. Observe—In order to avoid counterfeits, purchase only of the regular advertised agents, or at the office and General Depot, No. 189 Race street. For sale in Carlisle by CHARLES GILBY, agent for this borough.
