HERALD & EXPOSITOR

CARLISLE, PA.

Wednesday Morning, February 5, 1845.

☞V. B. PALMER, Esq. No. 59 Pine street, Philadelphia, and 160 Nassau street, (Tribune Buildings) New York, and South east corner of Baltimore and Calvert streets, Baltimore, is our authorized Agent for receiving advertisements and subscriptions to the "CARLISLE HERALD & EXPOSITOR," and collecting and receipting for the same.

Rev. Mr. Thorne's Lecture.

☞We are requested to state that the lecture to be delivered before the Alert Fire Company by the Rev. Mr. Thorne, has been again postponed, in consequence of the storm, until Thursday evening the 6th inst.

Temperance Lectures.

☞Gen. Riley, of Rochester, N. Y. has been lecturing to crowded audiences in the different churches of this borough, during the last and present week. Gen. Riley is a ready, fluent, energetic and agreable speaker, and is at home upon the Temperance question in all its aspects. The statistics he presents would appal those who seldom permit themselves to think of the misery and ruin which the sale of ardent spirits accomplishes every year in the country, while he abounds with anecdotes to give illustration and point to his subject. Gen. Riley's labors have been followed with the best results in this borough and county. Not only have large numbers of new names been added to the rolls of Temperance, but a strength and impetus has been given to the progress of the cause, which must prove of infinite benefit to the community.

Annexation of Texas.

☞The bill for the annexation of Texas to the United States, the passage of which through the House of Representatives was detailed in our last is not deemed so favorable to the Texians and the mercenary scripholders as they would have desired. But the "Globe," the loco foco organ in Washington, is endeavoring to soften the disappointment of those who do not like the terms of the bill, by assuring them that the next Congress will be more favorably disposed to Texas, and that that body may be confidently looked to for more advantageous modifications of the present bill.

The bill is now before the Senate, and upon that grave and reverend body, the friends of Freedom and Right now rely to avert the evils of this atrocious scheme of Wrong. Where not without hope that the Senate will in this instance, as it has in many others, give a decisive check to the reckless conduct of the House, and thus prove itself the great conservator of the peace and safety of the Union. Although the most desperate exertions have been made to break down the opposition to Texas, (and if rumor be true the most corrupt means used,) it is nevertheless believed that Mr. Benton and others will still maintain inflexibly the ground they held toward the treaty, and the bill thus be defeated. Heaven grant that the result may confirm this expectation!

CRUEL.—The Legislature of Rhode Island have refused the petition of SULLIVAN DORR, for leave for himself and his family physician to make occasional visits to his son in prison! who is suffering severely from his confinement in consequence of ill health.—Volunteer.

Now, Captain, this is too bad. We cannot find in a single one of our city exchanges, whig or loco, that this petition has been refused. On information of it is, that it was referred to the Judiciary committee of the Legislature, to report what action should be taken in the case. Every week almost the Volunteer has a paragraph of some kind sympathizing with Dorr—why does it not give the whole truth. Why not publish the fact that the Rhode Island legislature has passed a bill for Dorr's release from confinement, provided he will, as all his former associates have done, take the oath of allegiance? The Volunteer knows this fact—why not let its readers know it too?

The Volunteer seems to have a "heart that feels for others' woe"—let us call its attention to the unhappy situation of several other martyrs who present quite as strong claims to public sympathy as those of the renegade Dorr:

"ABOLITIONISTS IN SOUTHERN PRISONS.—Several persons from the North are now in Southern prisons for assisting Slaves to run away from their masters. Thomson, Work and Burr—formerly students in Dr. Nelson's Mission Institute—are in the Missouri penitentiary under sentence for 12 years: Rev. C. T. Torry, of Massachusetts, in the penitentiary of Maryland for six years; Dolia A. Webster, of Ferrisburg, Vt. is the penitentiary of Kentucky for 2 years, Johnathan Walker, of Harwich, Mass. in prison in the Territory of Florida for——years and a Mr. Boyd in the penitentiary of South Carolina, we believe, for 4 years. In addition to these the Rev. Mr. Fairbank, a Methodist Clergyman, is in jail at Lexington, Ky. awaiting his trial on a charge of the same character."

Here are six Northern freemen incarcerated in cold and gloomy solitary cells because of their efforts to give freedom to a few slaves! Why here are wrongs would ——"stir a fever in the blood of age,

Or make the infant's sinews strong as steel"——

and yet we do not see the public mind at all excited in view of such apparent injustice, or that the papers are filled with denunciations of the state authorities which have imposed these severe penalties! Why is this? with the loco focos we presume it is because "freedom to niggers" has not yet been embraced in the "democratic" creed, —they having lately adopted Mr. Calhoun's policy of "extending the area of freedom" by perpetuating Slavery! But while look upon these cases just as they do on that of T. W. Dorr. However good the objects and righteous the cause that prompted them, both he and they violated the law in the pursuit of their objects, and of consequence must suffer its penalty. If our sympathies are to govern, who could be less moved by the hard fate of these imprisoned Abolitionists than that of Dorr? But our sympathies must not govern —it is idle to talk of the laws being cruel and oppressive, in either case. If they are so we may use proper exertions to have them repealed, but so long as they are in force we must maintain their supremacy. These Abolitionists violated laws whose existence they were fully aware of. Tom Dorr has been convicted of a most alarming violation of law by the Supreme Court of his own State, which judgement has been virtually confirmed by the Supreme Court of the United States! In these decisions every good citizen is bound to acquiesce.

If the Volunteer is disposed to lend a helping hand to the traitor Dorr in his revolutionary and disorganizing schemes, let it come boldly out and avow it, and we shall then know in true position. But this sickly whining over a man who has been better treated than his cowardly deserves, is to say the least of it, contemptible.

TALL LADIES.—A New York paper says that tall ladies invariably prefer short men. An exchange thinks there is error and objects that no woman objects to Hymen.

Proceedings of the Legislature.

PAYMENT OF THE INTEREST!

☞Governor Shunk has been most signally defeated in the very first step of his new administration! On Wednesday last, while a bill for the payment of the semi-annual interest falling due on the 1st of February, was before the Legislature, Govern r Shunk sent in a Message in which he gave in detail a statement of the amount of the debt, the resources of the State, and the liabilities which will accrue in the coming fiscal year, from which he concluded, (contrary to the report of Mr. Mann, late State Treasurer, as also the Message of Governor Porter,) that the means of the State were insufficient to pay the interest due now and that on the 1st of August. The Legislature, however, with a disregard of party trammels which does them honor, did not choose to be governed by Mr. Shunk's objections, and by Friday at noon the bill for the payment of the interest on the 1st of February (amounting to $873,516,) was passed in both Houses without a dissenting voice! The honest tax-payers will rejoice that the taxes wrung from their laborious toil now go for what they ought, to the redemption of the tarnished credit of the State, and to making glad the heart of the widow and orphan, instead of supporting a corruption fund to fatten the swarms of office-holders who prey upon the public Treasury. This scheme for postponing the payment of the interest, originated with the shavers, brokers and stock-jobbers of the cities, who would have profited largely had it succeeded. Governor Shunk seems to have fallen into the hands of bad counsellors! During the debate his message was handled very roughly, and it was strongly intimated that its numerous errors were intentional.

The business of the Legislature just now is principally of a local nature. On Saturday last the bill for dividing the borough of Carlisle into East and West Wards, passed in the House by a vote of 48 to 40—a strict party vote. A bill to abolish the Board of Revenue Commissioners, was introduced but postponed. David Krause, of Harrisburg, has been nominated and confirmed as President Judge of the district of Bucks and Montgomery. A bill has passed in the House declaring that no Bank charter shall be granted without the individual liability clause being inserted. Mr. Craig, of Washington, has reported a bill to give the question of granting Tavern Licenses, to a vote of the people in each town and township. The vetoed bill providing for the redemption of the over-issues of the Berks county Bank, has been passed by the constitutional vote in both branches. A bill for the erection of a new county out of parts of Huntingdon and Bedford, to be called Blair, is before the House. The Tariff instruction resolutions, and Mr. Cooper's resolution demanding Pennsylvania's share of the deposit surplus revenue, still lie over.

Cold Weather and Snow.

☞Old Winter has resumed his iron reign.—The weather, which with a few interruptions has been remarkably bland and bright for more than a month past, suddenly changed on Thursday last and became intensely cold. On Monday night Snow commenced falling and continued without intermission all day yesterday, reaching a depth of at least ten inches. The rail-road was of course rendered impassable, which left us without the mails of yesterday.

Sleighing, which to the desponding heart of many a youthful fair one had nearly become "an obsolete idea," is now revived with all its glorious recollections and glad anticipations, and we may soon expect amid dashing sleighs and bright eyes, ringing laughs and merry chimes of bells, to see the world of youth and pleasure as "happy as a marriage bell." But such bright fancies are not for us to indulge! Oh, no, our day of such enjoyments is gone by—we are stirred by memories not expectations—"mingle, mingle, mingle, ye that mingle may"—but not us:

"There was a time when I could feel
All passion's hopes and fears,
And tell what tongues can ne'er reveal,
By smiles and sighs and tears.
The days are gone! no more! no more,
The cruel fates allow;
And though I'm hardly twenty-four
I'm not a lover now!

I never wish to raise a veil,
I never take a sigh,
I never tell a tender tale,
I never tell a lie;
I cannot kneel as once I did,
I've quite forgot my bow!
I never do as I am bid—
I'm not a lover now!

I'm busied with the State affairs,
I prate of Clay and Polk;
I ask the price of rail-road shares,
I watch the turn of stocks
And this is life—no verdure blooms
Upon the withered bough;—
I save a fortune in perfumes—
I'm not a lover now!"

Excuse us, kind reader, for this long egotistic quotation, but you know there were no mails yesterday to furnish our usual news-matter.

☞The Volunteer comes down upon us "like a thousand of brick" in its last, for what it calls "a base, wanton and infamous attack" made upon Dr. Sturgeon, our United States Senator, in the Herald of the week before last. In the estimation of the Volunteer Dr. Sturgeon is one of the first men in the Senate, and an amount of fulsome panegyric is wanted upon him, such as the character and standing of even Mr. Buchanan would not more than justify. This of course is perfectly ridiculous, and its only effect can be to make Mr. Sturgeon the subject of a wretched caricature. That he is an amiable, and upright man nobody doubts, but that he has any of the qualities of a statesman is not contended by any one who knows him. We are not so willing to lower the standard of character and statesmanship in the United States Senate, a body which has thus far combined the highest pride and glory of country, as to admit Daniel Sturgeon within the pale as an ornament to that dignified branch of our National Legislature! When did his eloquence "command the applause of listening Senates?" When did he ever make a report? when originate any measure? when bring in a bill, or offer a resolution of any or no importance? where is the result of his labors in committee, or anything else which could introduce his name to the Journals except among the yeas and nays! The Volunteer ought to be able to point out something of this kind before it praises him so unsparingly. Of course this splendid eulogy upon Dr. Sturgeon and Mr. Buchanan has nothing to do with making an interest near the powers that be, in favor of a certain petition for the Carlisle Post Office, in which our neighbor feels a personal interest! Eh, Captain?

Payment of the Interest.

☞Mr. Snowden, State Treasurer, went to Philadelphia on Saturday last, for the purpose of paying the interest due to stockholders of the public debt of Pennsylvania. A grand salute of one gun for each vote in favor of the bill, was to be fired from Cook Hill, near Philadelphia, on Monday morning.

☞The Extra Message, Telegraphic.—The work on the line is to be discontinued, also the first premium in consequence of the appropriation fund being exhausted. Congress should make another immediately, and let the experiment progress.

☞The Volunteer does us injustice in the motives it assigns for our notice of the conviction and pardon of James Martin, in our paper of week before last. The fact that some weeks since we noticed Governor Porter's pardon of a Whig in this county, ought to clear us of such imputations. Nor in James Martin's case did we make any remark relative to the propriety of the pardon—we simply alluded to his offence because it was one connected with the elective franchise.—We thought proper to add that he was a "democrat," because so far as we have any information, the annals of the country have not yet furnished a single case where a Whig was convicted of fraudulent voting. This is a proud boast for Whigs, and long may it remain to them! There was no desire to punish or persecute James Martin on the part of the Whigs of this borough, but he has persisted in voting with these papers, although his right has been repeatedly questioned, until it could be submitted to no longer. To make it clear that he had no right to vote, was more the object of the Whigs than to have him punished.

The Volunteer plays a vastly spirited part in denouncing Governor Porter's exercise of the pardoning power now, to be sure! Something like kicking the dead lion! We have done it repeatedly, until we grew tired of the idle work. But we did it on the broad grounds of principle, not in particular cases of men. Because some of the last pardons were extended to Whigs does not alter any views we have entertained of the practice.

WHO WAS THAT YOUNG LADY, who yesterday, attracted the admiration of all, as she tripped along so gracefully, in all the pride of youth, beauty and innocence? Suffice it to say, that from wearing very thin shoes, she a short time since, contracted a hacking couch, which augurs no good—it is feared, she is in a decline! Yet it is believed that her health could be restored by using Dr. Steeling's Pulmonary Syrup, which has proved itself, to be one of the very best Pectoras for Coughs, Asthma, Consumption, Whooping Cough, Measles, Scarlet Fever, Spitting of Blood, Croup, and all other affections arising from diseased Lungs.

Samuel Small, Pemberton, N. J. certifies, that his wife, who was nigh unto death with an alarming Cough, of considerable standing, was restored to sound health by using Dr. Steeling's Pulmonary Syrup.

The above medicine is for sale at the Drug Store of S. ELLIOTT, Carlisle.

ECONOMY.—How can we best Economise, is a question of much interest at this time to sensible men. We would advise you to avoid disease, by using Dr. William Steeling's Vegetable Antibilious Pills, which preserve and restore health by cleansing all corrupt humors from the system.

Dr. A. Stout, Longacoming, New Jersey, says, having had an opportunity and also an occasion to test the medicinal qualities of Steeling's Vegetable Antibilious Pills, I gratuitously and candidly give you my word, that they have in every case I have used them, answered my most sanguine expectations.

☞For sale by S. ELLIOTT, East High st. Carlisle, Pa.

WHO DISPUTES IT? NOBODY.—It has now become an established fact that Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is the best remedy ever known for preventing consumption by certainly and speedily curing every disease that leads to this most fatal malady—Coughs, Colds, Bleeding of the Lungs, Asthma, Liver Complaint, etc., etc., at once yield to its marvellous power—and scores of cases of supposed confirmed Consumption have been completely cured after the best physicians have declared that death was inevitable. Mr. James Sage, of Waterville, N. Y., was restored to perfect health by the Balsam after the best doctors of Oneida county pronounced his case to be a hopeless consumption. So of Thomas Cozens, of Macdonell, N. J. after he had been given up to die. See the published statements of each case—so attest of the all must believe. Sold in Carlisle, by S. ELLIOTT, only agent for this borough.

The Refuge from Death.

"Tell me what will life prolong,
Right the system when 'tis wrong,
And a double charm discussing,
Sooth the organs it is cleansing?"
Thus exclaimed a poor dyspeptic,
Hoping aid, but yet a skeptic,
One who once, like him, had suffered,
Courteous—his experience proffered;
'Once,' said he, 'twas mine to languish
Day and night, in mortal anguish;
Of diseases, I'd a trio,
Piles, dyspepsia, diarrhoea,
And though thousands I'd expended,
Not a symptom seemed amended;
Fulton street, one twenty-five,
Sought I, more dead than alive;
Who woos Health, there let him seek her,
Very soon I cried "Eureka!"
For health her sovereign balm distils,
Thro' PETERS' LOZENGES and PILLS.
