

HERALD & COMPAGNIE

CARLISLE, PA.

Wednesday Morning, February 12, 1845.

(3) V. D. P. Post Office, No. 59 Post street, Philadelphia, and 169 Nassau street, (Carroll's New York, and Southeast corner of Hartford and Calvert streets, Baltimore,) is our authorized Agent for receiving advertisements and subscriptions to the "CARLISLE HERALD & EXAMINER," and collecting and receiving for the same.

The foreign letter on our first page is a part of the history of the times, and will be found of sufficient interest to repay a perusal.

We are indebted to Hon. James Black, of the United States House of Representatives, Mr. Anderson, of our State Senate, and Messrs.
Kennedy and Cochran, of the House, for various public documents which will please accept our thanks.

FIRE IN MECHANICSBURG.

We regret to learn that the Hotel at the rail road Depot in Mechanicsburg, occupied by Mr.
George Birzer, was entirely destroyed by fire on Monday night last. Mr. Birzer fortunately succeeded in removing the greater part of his furniture, and other effects, but in consequence of the want of an efficient fire-engine all efforts to save the building were unavailing. The house belonged to Mr. Samuel Melley, whose loss we are glad to learn is partially covered by insurance. The fire was the result of accident.

DIVISION OF THE BOROUGH.

The Volunteer ventures in its last vote upon an elaborate argument in favor of the division of the borough, as provided for in a bill now before the Legislature. The reasons given are of two classes—first those of policy or "democracy," and second those of expediency. The latter perhaps will be admitted by many to be of some force, as the increased vote of the borough certainly renders it desirable that there should be two districts for the General Election.
We do not think any objections would be made to this.

The "political" reasons, however, are just such reasons as the "democracy" generally advance when they intend the perpetration of some foul work upon the Constitution or the community, whether in the annexation of Texas or the division of a borough. The hungry spirit of locomotive, which like the daughters of the horse-leech, is continually crying, "give! give!" now requires two more public offices for some clamorous brawlers, who prefer trying to clog up a submission from the spoils of the people; rather than turn their hand to some laborious honest calling.

This is one "political" reason—the other is because they have the power. Locomotives seldom require stronger reasons than these. There are two Justices of the Peace in the borough now, and the probability was that two Whigs would be elected to these offices at the ensuing spring election.

Well, to avert this "injustice" to the "democracy," and to ensure to themselves "equal and exact Justice," the "Locomotives" could not have been committed to a committee of five in the Senate, nor to the Senate at all.

We find in the papers, the following account of a scene which transpired in the House on Thursday. The Annual Indian Appropriation Bill was taken up, and during the discussion quite an extraordinary personal controversy between Mr. Bent and a White Ward, and profiling, for two more Justices of the Peace! The members of the master-committee in equally dividing the four offices between the two parties. And it is for such a reason that the Legislature is appealed to for a division of our borough! Why with equal propriety the Whigs of the North might as well for a division of the United States, as that would give them a better chance of electing a Whig President!

It is from no complaint of unfeigned that the people of Carlisle object to the division of the borough, as provided for in this bill. Their objection lies deeper than that, and relate solely to the welfare of the community. It is to the practice of continually creating new public offices, and thus bringing new offices and discord into the community. That they most seriously object

Political offices are the curse of our country—drawing off as they do so many persons into the service of the party which rules, and relate solely to the quiet pursuit of some industrious occupation. This bill had merely provided for the division of the borough into two districts for the general election, there would be no objections to it. But it is well known that no necessity exists in the business wants of the community for two more Justices of the Peace. The sober, judicious and right-thinking portion of our citizens look upon the creation of two more Magistrates as the infliction of a positive evil upon the community.

The whole of these four offices may and probably will be worthily filled, but we predict that the inevitable consequence of an increase of offices will be an increase of litigation, overreaching and encroachment, around whom would ordinarily cluster. There are few, if any, in the larger portion of our citizens who will consider what issue from the measure, and they are evils of no slight character.

The objections to the division far far above considerations—they are founded upon the pure harmony and good order of society.

THE SNOW STORM.

The snow storm of last week has scarcely been equaled within our remembrance for violence and severity. Although the snow was not nearly so deep as a foot in depth, the wind blow for three days past, kept the air constantly moving with driving snow. The fields through the country were then left almost entirely bare and the greatest mass of the snow piled up in huge banks on the railroads, turnpikes and lanes, so as to effectually prevent for the time all travelling, and inter-communication between neighboring farmers. In consequence of the drifts, the sheep have not been very well, but the loss of enclosure and herbage has been too great to be caught pleasure in the winter pastures.

He unless he can find shelter of the last few days, will be compelled to leave the track of all his pasturing and earthy roads, which are now perfectly blighted, moderately.

He fails to the great for of the community, make him fit through Sunday, bringing the Eastern mills to last week up to that day. The storm seems to have prevailed with great force in New York and New England, the principal roads and streets of those cities were suspended, and the mail and mail bags altogether disengaged.
