THE FAMILY CIRCLE.

FAITH.

Faith is a clear, celestial view,
Of things unknown to sight,
Unfolding glories ever new,
And Heaven's supreme delight.

Faith is sweet, unshaken trust
In Christ the sinner's stay;
The soul's high conquests o'er her lust,
And charms her fears away.

Undying faith lifts high her eye,
And views the goal afar;
Expands her pinions for the sky,
And Christ her guiding star.

Rapid she bends her upward course,
Till 'round the throne she sings;
Her anthems kindling at the source,
Whence Heavenly rapture springs.

Blessings in Disguise.

MORAL COURAGE AND CHRISTIAN FAITH.

How few of us (says our excellent contemporary of the Pennsylvania Inquirer,) can discriminate between, a calamity and, and a blessing, or decide whether an adversity of to-day may not prove a source of joy and satisfaction to-morrow. We remember that one of our most distinguished statesmen told us a year or two ago, that in his early political life he held a very small office, from which he was suddenly removed by a change of rulers. At the time, he was poor and needy, and the misfortune, as he first regarded it, seemed calculated to overwhelm him. For a week or two he was quite melancholy. He believed that he was an undone man, that life for him possessed no attraction. And yet, he added, circumstances have since transpired which render the conviction inevitable, that my removal from the office referred to, and exactly at the time which it took place was the most fortunate event of my life; it was indeed a blessing in disguise; and he went on to state all the particulars. So with hundreds of others. True, a man must exercise some energy, fortitude and philosophy. He must not give away to the first blow, but must wrestle vigorously with the disaster of early life, and even of later years confident that, in the end, with virtue and integrity as guiding priciples, he will secure a change for the better.—There is no more sublime spectacle than a great mind struggling against vicissitudes and misfortunes, conscious of recitude of purpose, coming out of every fiery ordeal with the gold of character purer and brighter, and determined in every and any result, to adhere to honesty, truth and justice.—The spirit which thus wrestles, is god-like. It is animated by nobler impulses than those which govern the mere worms of earth; and it aspires to a higher state of being than that which commences and closes in dust.

There may be, there doubtless are cases, in which Providence, for wise purposes, permits the high-hearted and virtuous, to langtish year after year, in poverty and obscurity, battling in vain against the slings and arrows of outrageous fotune, and terminating a life thus darkened, in penury and want. But these cases are few, and we hope that when the reward is postponed to a better and brighter world, the enfranchised spirit of the tried and triumphant is emminently honored in the higher state of being, to which our fortitude and sublimest reflections direct. It is wise, however, nay—it is the true doctrine of philosophy—for all who experience momentary afflictions in this life, who feel that darkness is on their path, and a storm in the sky above them, to struggle manfully for the time, to hope for the best; and to look with the eye of faith and virtue for a brighter sky and happier fortunes in the future.—In this spirit, disappointment will seldom be experienced. Blessing come to us frequently in disguise—sickness chastens and subdues the spirit—sorrow and death in our immediate circle, warn and admonish us as to the unsubstantial vanities of this life, and we are thus withheld from many a pitfall—prevented committing many an error—and directed by the hand of God, as it were, from a slippery and an uncertain path to one where our footsteps will be sure, and the termination of which is irradiated by the mellow light of religon, and the hallowed sunset of virtue.

THE UNBELIEVER.—I pity the unbeliever—one who can gaze upon the grandeur, and glory, and the beauty of the natural universe, and behold not the touches of His finger, who is over, and with, and above all; from the bottom of my heart I do commiserate his condition.

The unbeliever I one whose intellect the light of revelation never penetrated; who can gaze on the sun, and moon, and stars, and upon the unfading and unperishable sky, spread out so magnificent before him, and say this is all the work of chance.—The heart of such a being is a dread and cheerless void. In him, mind—the god like gift of intellect, is debased—destroyed; all is dark—a fearful chaotic labarynth rayless—cheerless—hopeless!

No gleam of light from heaven, penetrates the blackness of horrid delusion; no voice from the Eternal, bids the desponding heart rejoice. No fancied tones from the harps of seraphim arouse the dull spirit from its leathergy, or allay the consuming fever of the brain. The wreck of mind is utterly remediless; reason, and passion, prejudice, and superstition, have reared their temple on the ruins of his intellect.

I pity the unbeliever. What to him is the revelation from on high, but a sealed book! He sees nothing above, or around, or beneath him, that evinces the existence of a God; and he denies—yes, while standing on the footstool of Omnipotence, and gazing upon the dazzling throne of Jehovah, he shuts his intellect to the light of reason, and denies THERE IS GOD.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE.

It may be truly said, that no one has ever been so successful in compounding a medicine, which had done so to relieve the human family, to rob disease of its terrors, and to restore the Invalid to health and comfort, as the Inventor and Proprietor of that most deservedly popular family medicine Dr. SWAYNE'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY, and none has been so generally patronised by the Profession and others, both in this country and in Europe, nor has there ever been so great an effort in the short space of only six or seven years, to deceive the credulous and unthinking, by putting up Nostrums of various kinds, by various individuals, affixing the name of Wild Cherry and as much of the same of original preparation as will screen them from the lash of the law, and one of the Impostors who puts out the common panegoric of the shop and call it the Balsam of Wild Cherry has had the impudence to caution the public against the Original Preparation, Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, which is doing so much good in the world.

☞ BEWARE OF SUCH IMPOSTERS ☜

And purchase none but the original and only genuine article as prepared by Dr. Swayne, which is the only one compounded by a regular Physician, and arose from many years' close attention to the Practice of the Profession, and which lead to this great discovery. Thousands and tens of thousands of the best testimonials of the unparalleled success of Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry for the cure of

CONSUMPTION,

Coughs, Colds, Spitting Blood, Liver Complaint, Tickling or Rising in the Throat, Nervous Debility, Weakness of Voice, Palpitation or Disease of the Heart, Pain in the Side or Breast, Broken Constitution from various causes, the abuse of calomel &c. Bronchitis, Asthma, Whooping Cough, &c., were declared to the world years before any other preparation of Wild Cherry came out. The most skeptical may satisfy themselves as to the truth of the above, by a little inquiry in Philadelphia. The genuine article is prepared only by Dr. Swayne, whose office has been removed to N. W. corner of 8th and Race streets, Philada. The Balsam and other spuriousarticles of Wild Cherry has been sold out and re-sold out, and the proprietors are obliged to resort to Falsehood and Stratagem to make their own out of it. The genuine article is put up in plain style in square bottles, covered with a blue wrapper, with a yellow label with the proprietor's signature attached.

☞ The Public are requested to remember that it is Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, that has and is repeatedly performing such miraculous cures of diseases which have baffled the skill of the Profession, and set at defiance the whole catalogue of Patent Medicines, which are daily puffed through the organs of the press. Therefore ask for Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, and purchase no other.

PROTECTION AGAINST LOSS BY FIRE.

THE CUMBERLAND VALLEY MUTUAL PROTECTION COMPANY, being incorporated by an act of the Legislature of the present session, and fully organized and in operation under the direction of the following board of Managers, viz: Thomas C. Miller, John Moore, David W. McCullough, James Weakly, William Moore, Samuel Galbraith, Thomas Paxton, A. G. Miller, Philip Spangler, Samuel Woods, Abraham Kurtz, George Brindle, Scott Doyle, call the attention of the inhabitants of Cumberland Valley to the cheapness of their rates and the many advantages which this kind of insurance has over any other.

1st. Every person insured becomes a member of the company and takes part in the choice of officers and the direction of its concerns.

2d. For insurance no more is demanded than is necessary to meet the expenses of the Company and indemnity against losses which may happen.

3d. The inconvenience of frequent renewals is avoided by insuring for a term of five years. But policies can be taken for any period from one to five years.

4th. Any person applying for insurance must give his premium note for the cheapest class at the rate of five per centum, which will be $50 on $1000 for which he will have to pay $2,50 for five years and $1,50 for survey and policy, and no more could be ales sustained to a greater amount than the sum on hands will cover, and then no more will be required than a pro rata share. These rates are much cheaper than those of other companies, except such as are incorporated on the same principles.

WHITE HALL NURSERY,

CARLISLE, PA.

THE season for transplanting FRUIT, and indeed all deciduous TREES of the hardy kinds, is fast approaching. The reason for this preference for fall planting, (when trees are transplanted at that season, the earth becomes during the winter, properly settled about the roots, and they are ready to throw out fibres in the spring. The proprietor of the above establishment has, for this fall's market, the following trees, to wit:

12,000 APPLE TREES,

Comprising the choicest varieties;

1,000 CHERRY TREES,

including all the most approved kinds.

Also a very choice collection of

PEACH, PEAR, PLUM & APRICOT

Trees, as well as a large assortment of

Evergreen and Ornamental

Trees, such as Balm of Gilead Fir, Arbor Vitæ American Juniper, Norway Fir, all the different kinds of Linden, Sugar Maple, Silvery Maple, Red Flowering Maple, Yellow Flowering Maple, English Elm, White Elm, Slippery Elm, Silvery Abele, Chinese Ailanthus, Tulip tree, Black Ash, Balsam Poplar, European Mountain Ash, Horse Chesnut, White Flowering Horse Chesnut, Prickly Ash, Osage Orange, low growing Quakin Aspin, &c. All his trees are in the best state of cultivation, flourishing, and in the most healthful condition. Great care has been taken in selecting the most choice varieties of fruit from the most popular Nurseries in such as is best adapted to our soil. Identity is strictly preserved. A ent of the Nursery is under the immediate direction and supervision of the proprietor, all may rely upon each kind being true to name. He has some very choice new varieties of this fall, obtained from Prince's Nursery, equalled by none he knows of in their season.

APPLE,

Farmers and all others look around, among others give US a call. If our trees and establishment be not equal, and a little over, to any other west of the Susquehanna, and our prices as low as those of any other regular establishment for trees of equal quality, do not buy from us.

The proprietor further offers

3,000 APPLE TREES,

engrafted on Crab stocks, the durability of which will exceed those worked upon the usual plan at least 100 per centum; which fact is well established by all European and acceeded to by our best American writers on fruit trees. The time for transplanting is from the middle of October till the frost sets in.

Buyers will be furnished with directions for planting, as much of their success depends on the proper management in planting their trees.

☞ All orders and communications, post-paid, will be strictly attended to.

alone, can testify to the wonderful efficacy of that powerful remedy, THOMPSON'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF TAR AND WOOD NAPTHA Read! Read! Astonishing cure of Chronic Bronchitis!

Philadelphia, May 23, 1844.

Mr. S. THOMPSON—Dear Sir. For more then four years past I had been dreadfully afflicted with an affection of the throat, which my physician pronounced "Chronic Bronchitis," caused by repeated and neglected colds. The distress suffered is indescribable. My throat was litterally raw with violent coughing, so that blood would come from it; also great oppression, pain and tightness at the chest ann fever—in short all the usual pulmonary symptoms showed themselves, shewed themselves, causing entire loss of necessary repose—my throat was leached and blistered over and over again. I made trial of every known remedy, and at different periods had the advice of six physicians, and all with no avail. About two months since I made trial of your Compound Syup of Tar and Wood Naptha, and before I had taken the first bottle I felt relief. I continued until I had taken seven bottles, which completely removed the disease and restored me to perfect health, and I firmly believe I should not now be living, had it not been for your invaluable medicine.

DR. LEIDY'S SARSAPARILLA

Is the purest, strongest, and most efficacious of any other preparation of Sarsaparilla that is made.

It is warranted to be stronger than 6 bottles of MOST others—stronger than four of ST ME, and stronger than three of the STONGEST prepared by any other in the United States.

Dr. Leidy's Sarsaparilla is recommended by all respectable physicians in preference to any other. All who have ever used it, have derived more benefit from one bottle than three to ten of others; and those who, after having used other's preperations, without benefit, will use Dr Leidy's, will soon be convinced, (as thousands have already been) of the foregoing assertion.

The apparatus with which Dr. Leidy's extracts used in his preparation of Sarsaparilla as prepared is the only one in the United States imported by Dr. Leidy himself from the celebrated house of Pelletier & Caventou, in Paris, at a great expense, and is capable of extracting the medical virtues of Sarsaparilla and other roots, more effectually than by any other process

AS SEVERAL HUNDRED CERTIFICATES OF remarkable cures, and recommendations from clergymen and physicians have been read to time published in different papers, it is only thought necessary to keep the public acquainted as to where Dr. Leidy's Sarsaparilla can be obtained in this city genuine, namely at Dr. Leidy's Health Emporium, 191 north Second street, near Vine st. Cheaper than Ever.

TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT.

AS working cheap these hard times appears to be the order of the day among the tailors of the Borough, the subscriber does not feel inclined to be more backward than his neighbors in the work of reform—and therefore respectfully announces to his old customers and the public generally, that he intends for the future to work as cheap, and if needs be, perhaps a little cheaper, as any of his fellow craft, and he will do it too in the neatest and most fashionable style.

His shop is at the old stand in High street, two doors west of the Court House, and directly opposite Bentems Hotel, where he will at all times be found willing and able to please all who may favor him with their custom.

He returns his sincere thanks for the liberal patronage he has heretofore received; and respectfully solicits a continuance of public favor, remember when you go to a store to purchase a Coat, Vest or pants, that the subscriber keeps a cheap and fashionable shop, and that he is determined to be behind None of his contemporaries in any thing.

CARTER'S COMPOUND OF TARTY SYRUP.

For the cure of Obstinate Eruptions of the Skin; Pimples or Pustules on the Face; Biles which arise from an impure habit of body; Scaly Eruptions; Pains in the Bones; Chronic Rheumatism; Tetter; Scrofula or King's Evil; White Swellings; Syphilitic Symptoms; and all disorders arising from an impure state of the blood, either by a long residence in a hot and unhealthy climate, the injudicious use of Mercury, &c.

This Medicine has frequently been found highly beneficial in Chronic Coughs, or Colds of long standing.

This Medicine has been extensively used in the United States with decided benefit in Scrofula, Mercurial diseases, and in all cases of an ulcerated character. As an alterative in the spring and fall seasons, it is unequalled. It possesses many advantages over the decoction, and is introduced as a preparation more portable, not liable to injury by long keeping, and better adapted to the use of persons travelling or residing abroad.

The proprietor begs leave to call attention to the following certificates, selected from a large number approving its efficacy.

READING, March 3, 1839.

This certifies that my wife Mrs. Deem, had for nearly eleven years suffered from a scrofulous eruption resembling tetter which ate deep holes in her face, neck and arms, the constant discharge of which destroyed her health, and frequently confined her for different periods to her bed, during which time her sufferings were very great. The best medical attendance was obtained, and all the known remedies were tried, with but an alleviation of her complaint, which always returned with increased malignity.—Having lost all hopes of recovery, she had almost determined to give up the use of any other medicine, she was however, by persuasion, induced to try Oakeley's Deparative of Sarsaparilla, the use of five bottles of which has removed the disease, and restored her to perfect health.

THOMAS DEEM,
opposite the depot, Reading, Pa.

This is to certify that my little son, about eight years old, had suffered for a long time from extensive sores on the right knee and leg, supposed to have been white swelling, which I found impossible to heal, even by the aid of the most respectable medical advice, until I was recommended to use Mr Oakeley's Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, 8 bottles of which not only healed the sores, but perfectly restored the child's health, which had suffered much in consequence of this affection.

CATHARINE BINGEMAN,
7th, above Penn street, Reading.

The above case was presented to me both before and after the use of Mr. Oakeley's Syrup of Sarsaparilla, and I have no hesitation in believing that it was the agent of his restoration.

JOHN P. HIESTER, M D
DOUGLASSVILLE, April, 19, 1843.

Mr. Oakeley:—My son Edmund Leaf, had the scrofula in the most dreadful and distressing manner for three years, during which time he was deprived of the use of his limbs, his head and neck were covered with ulcers. We tried all the different remedies, but to no effect until recommended by Dr. Johnson, of Norristown, and also Dr. Isaac Hiester, of Reading, to use your Deparaitv Syrup of Sarsaparilla, of which I obtained several bottles. The use of which drove the disease entirely out of his system, the sores healed up, and the child was restored to perfect health, which he has enjoyed uninterruptedly ever since, to the astonishment of many persons who seen him during his affliction. I have thought it my duty, and send you this certificate, that others who have a like affliction in the family may know where to obtain so valuable a medicine. Yours, truly. A. D. LEAF.

FACTS WORTH KNOWING

Dr. Leidy's

Sarsaparilla Blood Pills,

Are the only Pills in existence containing Sarsaparilla.

Their composition is of a peculiar character, composed of Vegetable Extracts that are diuretic, sudorific, expectorant and cathartic, by which combination they are adapted to most forms of disease and may be taken at all times, by young and old, robust and feeble, with perfect safety, without interfering with habits, occupation, or regular course of living.

They will, at all times, be found serviceable as a Purgative; cleansing the stomach and bowels as well as a purifier of the blood and animal fluids, in addition to their other qualities; because, containing Sarsaparilla and other valuable medical extracts in their composition, and which makes them preferable to all other Pills.

More than 1,000 Cerecificates

have been published at various times of their efficacy in various diseases, and where all other medicines had failed; as the public must have read many of them, further publication of them is deemed unnecessary, on account of the great expense.

More than 100,000 Boxes

have been sold in Philadelphia alone, the past year; thus showing that in the place where they are manufactured, they have a reputation, greater than any other pills—which arises from the fact that Dr Leidy is well known at home as a regular Physician, and his pills are consequently employed with greater confidence than any other; in addition to their known efficacy.

Let it be remembered

'tis not the quantity of pills or other medicine you can get for the same money, is the best or cheapest—but the quality. Of cheap medicines or pills, you, of course, get the most; and you are induced to take the more, under the impression if a little does good, more will do more good, and you make drug shops of your stomchs, causing oftentimes serious injury to yourselves for life.

Dr. Leidy's Blood Pills are composed of more expensive ingredients, and require more skeuty and labor in their preparation than any other pills—the apparatus alone for preparing the extracts contained in his pills, costing over three thousand dollars.

Price 25 cents a box.

They are prepared only, and sold wholesale and Retail, at Dr. Leidy's Health Emporium, No 191 North Second street below Vine st. Also by

T. C. STEVENSON,
Sole Agent for Carlisle.
