DESTRUCTION OF THE OCEAN HOUSE NewFort R. I .- This splendid building and fashionable resort was destroyed by fire on Sunday last. It originated in the kitchen and communicated to the main body of the hotel. There was no water on the premises, and therefore the fire had uninterrupted sway, The baggage of the poarders was mostly saved, as well as a greater portion of the furniture. There was a deplorable loss of life attending the catastrophe, Mr. Gardner, a well known citizen of Newbort, and several others were in one of the wings when it fell, and it is feared were lost. One body was recovered, too much mutilated to be identified.
