List to the dreamy tone that dwells, In rippling wave or sighing trees Go hearken to the old church bells, The whistling bigd, the whiszing bee Interpret right and you will find,

Tis "power and glory" they proclaim; The chimes, the oreatives, waters, wind All publish "Hallowed be thy name." The pilgrim journeys till he bleeds, To gain the alter of his sires;

The hermit pores above his beads, With zeal that never wants or tires; But holiest rite, or longest prayer, That soul can yield or wisdom frame,

What better import can it bear, . .. Than Father, "Hallowed be thy name." The savage kneeling to the sun, To give his thanks or ask a boon;

The raptures of the idiot one.
Who laughs to see the clear round moons The saint well taught in Christian lore, The Moslem prostrate at his flame-All worship wonder and adore, All end in "Hallowed be thy name." Whate'er may be man's faith or creed,

Those precious words comprise it still; We trace them on the blooming mead, We hear them in the flowing vill; One chorus hailf the Great Supreme, Each varied breathing tells the came, The strains may differ—but the 'heme, is Father, "Hallowed be thy name."

York. Now then, if the Bible was so bad a book as you represent it to be, those who use it would be the worst members of society: but the contrary is the fact; for our prisons, almshouses, and pentientiaries are filled with men and women, whose ignorance or unbelief prevents them from reading the Bible. It was now near ten o'clock at night. Paine answered not a word, but taking a candle from the table, walked up stairs, leaving his friends and myself staring at one another.
