Our Ticket.

The result of the labors of the Whig ounty Convention which met on Monday ast to put in nomination a Ticket, will be ound in snother column. The Convent ion was a full one; every township in the ounty had a representation, and a better ombination of the old men who were qualified to give counsel, and of the young mer vito have the spirit and vigor to give success to wise plans, we have seldom seen ogether. In proof of this we need only refer to the names of the delegates. Of the individuals nominated we shall not low make mure than a brief notice."

For the Assembly the names of several especiable gentlemen and esteemed whigs were brought before the Convention, all of whom were urged by their friends with a warmth and perreverance which fully attested their local popularity. Our own borough had a favorite candidate in the person of one of our most active and wholesouled whigs, whose nomination would have also give intelligence that Gen.
