Brindle, Scott Doyle, call the attention of the inhabitants of Cumberland Valley to the cheapness of their rates and the many advantages which this sind of insurance has over any other.

1st. Every person insured becomes a member of the company and takes part in the choice of the corresponding to the concerns,
2d. For insurance on more is demanded than is necessary to meet the expenses of the Company and indemnity against losses which may happen.
3d. The inconvenience of frequent renewals inavoided by insuring for a term of five years. But policies can be taken for any period from one to five years.
