MUSICAL TREAT.—Our Brass Band, as will be seen by their announcement in the advertising columns, propose giving a Concert on Tuesday evening next.

THE TARIFF CONVENTION.—We learn that the Convention of the friends of the Tariff, assembled at Hollidaysburg, on the 12th inst. agreeably to notice, and organized by the appointment of Ex-Governor PORTER, President, assisted by the usual Vice Presidents and Secretaries. We have not learned any of its proceedings.

☞ Gov. SHUNK, and his Secretary, JESSE MILLER, are in Philadelphia, receiving great honors. They visit the Public Schools through the day, and "Democratic Balls" in the evenings! They were waited upon a few days since by the City Councils.

☞ Most of the locofoco papers in this State have been engaged for the last two weeks in "defining their positions" on the question of the Tariff of 1842. The Harrisburg Union, and some others stand up manfully against any repeal or modification, whilst some others adopt Mr. Polk's views. The 'Volunteer,' the organ of the Cumberland county "democracy," we perceive has not a word to say—like Mr. Polk last fall, it is mum. This very silence we presume is intended as the tacit acknowledgement of its opposition to the Tariff—else why should the Volunteer shrink from its duty when every other faithful sentinel of Pennsylvania interests is sounding the alarm?

——Do the locofoco friends of the Tariff in this county, who voted for James K. Polk as "a better Tariff man than Henry Clay," intend to give in quietly while their wishes are thus disregarded and their interests betrayed? We shall see.

IMPROVEMENTS IN SHIPPENSBURG.—We are gratified to learn from the Shippensburg 'News,' that the good people of that ancient borough have their due share in the prevailing prosperity, which is visible in the stir of business and the increase of improvements. 'The News' of Saturday last says "our mechanics have their hands full of employment, and we are informed that our Merchants, and Transporting men have done a much heavier business during this season than at any former time. A goodly number of buildings were erected this year, others on the way, and more in contemplation, which go up early next spring. The erection of new buildings will of course diffuse a corresponding amount of capital among the industrious classes of community, and thus augment the general wealth and prosperity of the town.

FASHIONS.—As this is the time of year that "dear Pa's" or husband's purses have to suffer for the sake of the new winter fashions, it is well to know how the investment can be correctly made. The N. Y. correspondent of the North American says "let me give your lady readers an idea of a Broadway bonnet at this present writing. A bonnet of purple velvet, trimmed inside with orange and lilac flowers, or noeuds of ribbon, or both intermixed—broad satin ribbon on the outside, heavy winter flowers, and a tremendous drooping feather surmounting all, and streaming in the wind like a pennant of the Commodore's ships, such is the fashionable "turn out" in Broadway. Dresses, scarfs, &c. all to match."

OREGON AND WAR!—The Washington Union' is lustily vociferating for "the whole of Oregon or none"—and every little whipper-snapper in the country press is as lustily echoing the cry, although in all probability nine-tenths of them have never spent ten minutes in examining this intricate question, or would be incapable of understanding it if they did. Of course all such fellows are opposed to further negotiation—nothing but "asserting our rights at the cannon's mouth" will do for them!

☞ The Hon. JOHN M. BERRIEN, of Georgia, has resigned his seat in the Senate of the United States. Mr. Berrien is a gentleman of great ability and dignity of character. For the head of the Judiciary Committee, it will be difficult to find a person of equal attainments and judgement.

☞ Capt. HUNTER's company of "Independent Artillery" paraded on Saturday afternoon last, and were reviewed by that veteran soldier, Gen. E. ARMOR. Of course the whole thing was done in true military style.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.—The 'Lancaster County Farmer,' devoted chiefly to Agriculture, has made its re-appearance under the editorial charge of Mr. E. Bowen. It is a large and handsome sheet, and has our best wishes for its success.

ECLIPSE.—There was an eclipse of the Moon on Thursday evening, and a clear sky afforded a fine opportunity for observing it. The total was nearly total and lasted 2 hours and 15 minutes.

Thanksgiving Day.

Thursday the 27th inst. it will be recollected is the day appointed by proclamation of the Governor, to be publicly observed as a day of thanksgiving, prayer and praise to Almighty God. We doubt not that the greater portion of our citizens will rejoice that an opportunity is thus presented of publicly manifesting their grateful sense of the rich gifts of Providence, and will cheerfully devote the day to the purposes of its appointment. We presume that arrangements will be made by the Pastors of our several churches for public service on that day, and that there will be an entire suspension of secular business.—It will be seen by the following list of appointments so far made by different Governors, that the 27th inst. has been set apart in six States for this purpose.

Ohio,	Nov. 20	Massachusetts,	Nov. 27
Kentucky,	Nov. 20	Connecticut,	Nov. 27
Maryland,	Nov. 21	N. Hampshire,	Nov. 27
Pennsylvania,	Nov. 27	Vermont,	Dec. 4
New York,	Dec. 7	Maine,	Dec. 4
Rhode Island,	Nov. 27	New Jersey,	Nov. 27

Thus it will be seen that in nearly half the States in the Union this good old custom of the Pilgrims will be honored. Another year, we hope to see a day of National Thanksgiving recommended by the President, so that throughout the whole extent of our Union, all may unite in the observance of a duty which a Christian people should ever render to their benefi cent Creator, upon the same day.

☞ The last 'Volunteer,' in its great anxiety to give a "raw head and bloody bones" exhibition, drags again into light the lately repealed Bankrupt Law. We think that law might be permitted to rest in peace, especially as this continual dragging of it forth must twinge the consciences of the many locofocos, who availed themselves of its provisions, to a most agonizing degree! We never yet found a locofoco paper commenting upon the Bankrupt law, without noticing the studious effort that is made to convey the impression that the law was enacted by the whigs alone, and that they, solely, enjoyed its benefits.—This story can only deceive the wilfully ignorant, such men as those who believed last fall that POLK was a better Tariff man than CLAY! The Bankrupt law could not have passed without the aid of the locofocos in Congress, and it is quite probable that as many locofocos as whigs got receipts in full through its instrumentality. The operation of the Bankrupt law witnessed a vast deal of villainy, we doubt not, but at the same time it restored to freedom, activity and usefulness many an unfortunate honest man who but for it might have ended a miserable existence in prison.

AN OLD HERO DEAD!—ANDREW SNYDER, of Intercourse, Leacock township, Lancaster county, died on the 4th inst., at the advanced age of 112 years, 2 months and 18 days. He was born in Germany, on the 17th day of August, 1733, and emigrated to this country some time previous to the Revolution. During the War of Independence, he was one of the Soldiers of Freedom, and was present at Monmouth, Trenton, Princeton, Brandywine, Germantown and other battles of that eventful war. He was one of the Cavalry Corps commanded by Count PULASKI at Brandywine. Mr. S. had always enjoyed good health, until the sickness that carried him off, and within the past eighteen months has walked to Shippensburg, Cumberland County, a distance of 90 miles, to see some of his relations!

SEARS PICTORIAL MAGAZINE.—The November and December Numbers of this work have just come to hand. The first volume now completed, comes up to the promise of the Prospectus, and its contents are a rich treat, to the lovers of useful and entertaining matter. The reading matter descriptive of the plates is written with ability, and from the prospectus of the next volumne, and the great variety of interesting articles promised, it cannot fail to be a valuable addition to every family library. The editor says—"Like those already before the public, the new volume of SEARS FAMILY MAGAZINE, for 1846, will be most splendidly illustrated with FROM TEN TO FIFTEEN ENGRAVINGS in each number. It will embrace articles on History, Astronomy, Geography, Chemistry Botany, Architecture, Mechanics, Agriculture, American Biography, &c. &c. &c. The whole number of engravings at the conclusion of the volume will amount to between one and two hundred.

We perceive that Mr Sears offers to give a copy of his "PICTORIAL HISTORY OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION," a handsome volume of 450 pages, with 162 engravings, to all new subscribers who will send $2 for the next year, which is the subscription price of the Magazine alone. The "Revolution" can be mailed, under the new Postage Law, at 25 cts per copy. This last work sells, alone, for $3 per volume.

MEMPHIS CONVENTION.—The Convention of the Southern and Western States was to have met in the city of Memphis, Tennessee, on Wednesday last. It will consider and devise plans to develope the resources and develope the resources of those important geographical divisions of the Republic, and the best means of promoting their interests in other ways. We shall have the results of their deliberations in a short time. Western Pennsylvania will be largely represented.

Court of Quarter Sessions.

☞ The Court of Quarter Sessions, &c. of this county has been in session since Monday a week last, busily occupied in clearing the calendar of a large amount of business, and 'delivering' the jail of an unusual number of criminals. The latter business revealed the usual disgusting and revolting details of licentiousness and depravity, domestic discord, violence and villainy. The hearing of their cases has resulted in transferring several of the bold perpetrators of crime or victims of ungovernable passions and unbridled lust, to the gloomy cells of the penitentiary, to spend long years of mourning over their misdeeds.

Henry Johnson, the colored man in whose house was found the bunch of keys mentioned in our last, was convicted on several charges and sent to the Eastern penitentiary for one year. Abraham Bell, another colored man, was convicted of an attempted outrage upon the person of a respectable white female in a neighboring township, and sentenced to two years of like confinement. Some five or six young negro rowdies of this borough, were arraigned for riot, and an assault and battery upon a colored man named ——, whom they nearly beat to death some four weeks since, for having as they alledged given information leading to the discovery of some runaway slaves. Besides these, there were a variety of other cases, of which we have not learned the particulars.

The following report of a case has been handed to us with a request to give it publication. It involves a construction of the act of Assembly of the 12th of July, 1842, by the Court of Quarter Sessions of this County and if it be the true construction of that act it is an important one to the community, and therefore we publish it.

Commonwealth vs. William Bigley.—This was an indictment in the Quarter Sessions of Cumberland county, against the defendant, for fraud, and was instituted and predicated upon the act of Assembly of July 12th, 1842, which provides, "Every person who with intent to cheat or defraud another, shall designedly, by colour of any false token, or writing, or by any false pretence whatsoever, obtain from any person any money, personal property, or other valuable things, upon conviction thereof, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary, or in the county jail, at the discretion of the Court, not exceeding one year or by fine, &c."

The matter charged that one Adam Eichelberger had given to the defendant, Bigley, on the 8th March, 1845, a note for the payment of $23,93, that on the 4th April, 1845, Bigley sold the note to Michael Hoover, and received the money; that on the 11th April, 1845, Bigley called on Adam Eichelberger and demanded payment of the note, and Eichelberger paid him the money, but Bigley did not exhibit or deliver the note to him. After this, to wit, 17th May, 1845, Hoover demanded the payment of the note from Eichelberger, when this prosecution was instituted against Bigley for the fraud. The facts alleged by the Commonwealth were substantially proved.

The Court charged the jury that assuming the facts to have been proved the defendant could not be convicted—that there was not such a false pretence as was contemplated and provided for by the act of Assembly; that in order to constitute the offence there must be a false token or some tangible matter made use of by the defendant; that the mere assertion of a falsehood, by which the defendant obtained the money which was not due or payable to him would not constitute the criminal offence charged in the bill of indictment, either in the first count which charged the defendant with defrauding Adam Eichelberger, or in the second count, which charged the defendant with defrauding Michael Hoover; and the defendant was acquitted.

A novel case was brought up for hearing on Monday afternoon last, on information laid by a member of the bar that he had been challenged to fight a duel, by another member of the bar, who felt aggrieved by "words spoken in debate." It appeared by the correspondence between the parties, that a challenge in the usual terms, demanding "satisfaction," &c., had really passed. Instead of accepting it, however, the challenged party had the challenger arrested, and the case was brought before the Court on a writ of habeas corpus.—The case excited much interest and was earnestly argued by learned counsel on both sides, for several hours. The opinion of the Court was given yesterday morning, and was to the effect, as we understood, that the case did not clearly come under the statutory law of this State for the prevention of duelling, because no evidence appeared that the terms of a duel had been actually settled between the parties. The defendant was consequently discharged.

VERMONT.—The Legislature of this State adjourned on the 6th inst. Among their last acts was the passage of a series of resolutions relative to the annexation of Texas. The first resolution declares that Congress has no right to annex foreign territory; the second, that the annexation of Texas will tend to weaken the bonds of the Union; the third protests against the annexation without the consent of all the States; and the fourth instructs the delegation in Congress to act in accordance with the preceeding resolutions.

TO BE EXECUTED.—Governor Shunk has issued the warrant for the execution of JOHN ROSS LOCKHART, of GREENE County, for the murder of his wife.

What will the Whigs do in Congress?

We are now about to write an answer to the above query, important as it is to all, says the United States Gazette. But we invite attention to the article which we copy from the Lexington (Ky.) Observer.—The editor of that paper fully comprehends the importance of the tariff of 1842, and his views of what the Whigs owe themselves and the nation are such as will meet the general approval of the real friends of that great measure, who stood forward in 1844 to sustain the tariff and its great author, Henry Clay.

THE NEXT CONGRESS—THE WHIG PARTY—ITS DUTY.—In placing the above caption to this article, we do not intend to impose on ourselves the labour of writing or our patrons the trouble of reading, a long dissertation upon all the great matters involved. We mean briefly to state our views in reference to what we consider our friends in Congress ought to do, touching the past and present position of public affairs; so as to ensure future success to the men and measures deemed by us indispensable to the prosperity of our beloved country, and the permanency of its free institutions.

1st. The Annexation of Texas—whether for weal or woe—we consider settled, and that no factious opposition to mere detail would be wise or patriotic. Especially do we deprecate any discussion or agitation growing out of the Slave question. The great Pacificator, as he has been well styled by Senator Benton, closed that question by his wise compromise when Missouri came into the Union, and nothing but evil can come from re-opening it.

2d. The Tariff—Let the Whigs adhere to the act of 1842. It may be wrong in some of its details—too high or too low but it has given unprecedented prosperity to all the great interests, as well as geographical divisions of the Union, and ought not to be tampered with—"let well enough alone."

If the woollen, cotton or iron manufacturers are to be assaulted—if the growth of sugar is to be discouraged or entirely suspended, according to Mr. McDuffie's views and plans, and tea and coffee, and other non produced articles taxed, simply for revenue; why let those who defeated, by fraud and falsehood, the great Father of the American System, bear the whole undivided responsibility. Let the partners in the monstrous swindle imposed on Pennsylvania and the other Tariff States, quarrel and fight, modify and amend, as much as they please, but let not the Whigs participate in the one or the other. Adhering to and voting their principles, whenever forced to act on the subject—let them remain silent and passive, and hold the conspirators responsible for all the wrongs they have committed, or injuries they may inflict on a confiding and deluded people.

Already have the impostors in Pennsylvania become alarmed, and called on the Whigs to help them to save the Tariff. Aye, to save the Tariff, and from whom? From their own President and privy council—from the author of the Kane letter and his right hand man, the manager of the Presidential canvass from head quarters Robert J. Walker, Esq., of Mississipi!!! True, they swore, before the election that Polk was a better Tariff man than Clay.—Mr. Bidlack and other Locofoco stump orators bellowed forth this broad assertion every where to the people, and Mr. Bidlack has been rewarded by a fat Foreign Mission and yet, they now have the shameless effrontery to call on Whigs "to help them, or they sink." Their own selected pilot is about to run them, as they fear, on the rocks and quicksands of Free Trade, and show them all the beauties of a Revenue Tariff, and the beautiful collecting machine called a Sub Treasury, and in God's name, let them have them. They have the power, and must answer to the country for its proper exercise.

Again we say to the Whigs, stand to your arms—never abandon your measures or your men, but do not enter into the fight on the one side or the other, with the unprincipled office holders and office seekers of the South and North. Let them devour each other, and the country will be all the better for it—The sooner it is over the better. "Truth is mighty, and public justice certain."

THE POTATO.—The London Spectator says that 300 years ago, the Potato was absolutely unknown in Europe. At the end of Elizabeth's and begining of James' reign they were enumerated among luxuries, and though to possess stimulating properties. The eighteenth century was considerably advanced before they were cultivated in the South Western provinces of Scotland, and then they were carried on horses' backs to supply the Edinburg market. Now they are a world wide necessary. In Europe they are even more important than bread. The idea of a failure of a potato crop fil Christendom with alarm. No wonder that the terrible disease which has attacked this year's crop in England, France, Belgium, New Brunswick and the United States, is a subject of so much anxious speculation.

MORE CARELESSNESS.—Last week a boy living in Gates county, N. C., who was amusing himself with a gun, which he supposing to be empty placed a cap upon the nipple, and turning to a young lady named Mary Overman, said playfully, "Cousin Mary, I'm going to shoot you," firing at the same moment. The contents lodged in the poor girl's face, tearing away the entire side of it. Two hours afterwards she expired, after having suffered the most excruciating agony.

☞ President Polk was fifty years of age on the 2d inst.

Massachusetts Victory.

☞ This staunch old whig State maintains herself as ever steady and true in the whig ranks! There is no choice for Governor by the people, in the election of Monday week, but the whigs have the Legislature, which will ensure the re-election of Gov. BRIGGS. The aggregate of the vote is as follows: Governor Briggs has 50,964 vots; Isaac Davis (Loco) 35,804; Shaw (Native) 7,294; Sewall (Abolition) 7,405; scattering 1400. As far as heard from the Whigs have 171 members of the House, the Locos 49, and the Natives 3.

The Boston Atlas says, this election is, therefore, a signal triumph of the Whig party of Massachusetts, over the combined forces of Loco Focoism, Nativeism, Abolitionism, and all the other isms, that now infest our Commonwealth—and most of which, we may safely trust, will be extinguished by this decided majority over them all. Massachusetts, notwithstanding all the threats of her enemies, and the fearful forebodings of some of her friends, is still Whig. By the Whig faith she intends firmly to abide, and upon Whig principles, she means steadfastly to stand.

That Florida Election!

☞ It may be that the locofocos have elected their Congressman in Florida, but it is not certain. The last Volunteer bets two to one on Brockenbrough's election, but the Tallahasse Sentinel, of the 4th inst. three days later than the Volunteer's intelligence, "thinks that Cabell, the whig candidate, had by the latest returns then received a fair chance of success." Don't hallo until you are out of the woods, neighbors!

P. S. The Philadelphia 'Ledger' of yesterday, says: Mr. CABELL, the Whig candidate, has got his certificate of election, having in all the districts officially reported, a majority of sixty nine votes! We breathe freer now!

MICHIGAN.—The locos have carried the election in Michigan as usual, electing their Governor and Legislature.

WASHINGTON NEWS.—The Baltimore correspondent of the Boston Atlas, says, The rumor in regard to Mr. M'Lane's dissatisfaction with his position, has gathered force and been revived, by the announcement made in well informed quarters, that he will return certainly in June next.—This he has said to gentlemen in London, and this is understood to be his determination, by his friends here. The return of Mr. M'Lane which may now be regarded as certain, by June next, will throw open this important mission to England, and give Mr. Polk trouble.

The election of Hopkins L. Turney to the U. S. Senate by the Legislature of Tennessee, has caused more excitement in Washington than any thing since Mr. Polk took his oath of office. "It speaks of rebellion." The Mr. A. O. P. Nicholson, who was the caucus candidate, and defeated by the six impracticable Locos, once held, as you may remember, a seat in the Senate, by the appointment of Mr. Polk, as Governor of the State, and is his pet. Mr. Turney, who was elected, is not unknown in Congress, and though in times past, a strong partizan, and is so yet, to a certain extent, he is understood—so say the Locos of the Tennessee Legislature—to be against repealing the Tariff, and is in favor of distributing the proceeds of the sales of the public lands. He is, moreover, so heartily abused by his late Locofoco friends, that it can scarcely be that he will act any other part than that of a very independent man.

☞ The Mormon Patriarch, William Smith, is lecturing to crowded houses in St. Louis. He handles Bingham, Young and the eleven without gloves. They must be a wicked set according to his account. He solemnly declares that murders are planned and executed there, that young women are ensnared and ruined by the elders and others, and that the Church is robbed temporarily and spiritually by these self-elected successors of the Prophet. Discredit is thrown upon his statements however by his exaggerations.

☞ We suspect from indications exhibited in the newspapers that the new county mania which prevailed so extensively at the last session of our State Legislature has undergon no abatement during the past year. There will be an increased number of applications to the Legislature at its next session for new Counties.

☞ The prospect of Pork this season in the West is that the quantity in Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and Tennessee will be one third greater than last year. The great excitement, owing to foreign news, has caused them to pay as high as four dollars, but they begin to hold off, and will not pay over $3,50. The packers at Cincinnati calculate that there will be packed at that place, 225,000. At Cincinnati, the manufacture of pork, bacon and lard has commenced for the season.

THE POSTAGE LAW.—The Washington correspondent of the Journal of Commerce thinks that the deficit under the new Post Office law will be one million and a half of dollars. It is supposed, however, that one million may be saved to the government in the contracts of 1846, and that after that time if we return to the single letter system, the deficit will be provided for.

☞ A Negro in Baltimore lately undertook to kiss a snapping turtle for a five cent piece when the owner slipping the noose from the head of the monster it caught the poor fellow's upper lip, and it was impossible to deliver him until its jaws were forced open. He said "he wouldn't have snooder for a dollar; tank his stars for his scape dis time."

Whig Nominations.

The Lebanon 'Courier' is already out in favor of Gen. WINFIELD SCOTT, as the Whig candidate for the Presidency, and a correspondent of the Harrisburg 'Intelligencer,' in a lengthy communication portrays the character and services of Hon. JAMES COOPER, of Adams, whom he urges as the Whig candidate for Governor of this State. Both of these eminent men have unquestionably strong holds upon the affections of the whig party; a party that now bids fair to have the power to reward the faithful services of those who have sustained its principles.

We are inclined, however, to concur in the opinion of our contemporary of the York 'Republican,' that our brother editors in urging these nominations, "are anticipating the proper time altogether. We know it is flattering to one's vanity, and calculated to give one's self a high opinion of one's own influence, to be able to say after a successful contest, I was the first man, or mine was the first journal, to advocate the new Governor's or President's cause; and this kind of glory is about all that editors reap by way of harvest. Nevertheless, we think that action now is premature. "Wait patiently" until the close of the approaching session of Congress, and see Mr. Polk's policy on the Tariff—Sub-Treasury, and Peace or War fully developed. "Tarry in Jericho" until the Legislature has set and adjourned, and see whether Gov. SHUNK has carried out the policy "adumbrated" by his organ of refusing all new Bank charters, and the renewal of the old ones, even though they contain the individual liability clause.—Then give the people, not the managers, a chance to speak; and if they shall be obeyed, all will go well."

THE AMERICAN PEACE SOCIETY, through its Secretary, Rev. G. C. Beckwith, has issued an address to the Clergy of the country, requesting them to make Peace the theme of their Thanksgiving discourses. A very good idea.

☞ Ten Roman Catholic Missionaries arrived at St. Louis from Europe on the 1st instant. They come out under the patronage of one of the societies for the propagation of the faith.

☞ William C. Woodbridge, author of the modern School Geography, and member of the Geographical Societies of Paris, Frankfort and Berlin, died at Boston, on Sunday last aged 50.

A boy baby was recently left at the door of a Postmaster in Alabama, before he was up. When he came down and saw it, the only remark he made was that the male delivery on that morning was unusually early.

ANTI-RENTERS IN LANCASTER.—We learn from the Lancaster "Union," that a meeting of Anti Renters was held in that city on Tuesday last, to take measures to resist the payment of the Hamilton ground rents. The meeting assembled in consequence of a levy having been made by the Sheriff of Lancaster county upon the property of one of the citizens who is in arrears.

—SMALL POX generally begins with languor and weariness, chilliness and vomiting, soreness of the throat, great thirst, and many other unpleasant complaints.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills will be found the very best medicine in the world for the cure of small pox; because they cleanse the body from those poisonous humors, which are the cause not only of small pox and other eruptive complaints, but of every malady incident to man. From three to six of said Indian Vegetable Pills, taken every night on going to bed, will in a short time not only make a perfect cure of the above dangerous complaint, but the blood and other fluids will be restored to such a state of purity as to utterly prevent inflammation of the eyes, consumption, and other miserable complaints, which usually follow as imperfect cure of small pox.

Said Indian Vegetable Pills also aid and improve digestion, and therefore give health and vigor to the whole frame, as well as drive disease of every name from the body.

It should always be remembered, that a man by the name of Wm. M. Spear, who sel s medicine purporting to be Indian Pills, at the corner of Race and Front streets, is not an agent of mine, neither can I guaranty as genuine any that he has for sale.

The only security against impositions, is to purchase from persons of unblemished character, or at the office and General Depot, No. 165 Pine street, Philadelphia. WILLIAM WRIGHT.

For sale in Carlisle by CHAS. OGILBY, sole agent for this borough.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS!—This medicine is acknowledged to be one of the most valuable ever discovered as a purifier of the blood and fluids.—It is superior to Sarsaparilla, whether as a sudorific or alterative, and stands infinitely before all the preparations and combinations of Mercury.—Its purgative properties are alone of incalculable value, for the pills may be taken daily for any period, and, instead of weakening, by the cathartic effect, they add strength by taking away the cause of weakness. They have none of the miserable effects of that deadly specific, Mercury.—The teeth are not injured—the bones and limbs are not paralyzed—no; but, instead of these distressing symptoms, new life and consequent animation is evident in every movement of the body.

These Pills, for colds, coughs, tightness of the chest, Rheumatism in the head or limbs, will be found superior to any thing imagined of the powers of medicine; and in bilious affections, dispepsia and in all diseases peculiar to woman, they should be resorted to at once. These Brandreth's Pills will be found deserving of all praise.

Purchase the genuine medicine of CHAS. SARNITZ, sole agent for this borough.

MARRIED,

On Thursday, the 13th inst. by the Rev. M. Reese, Mr. ABRAHAM RITNER, formerly of Des Moines county, Iowa, to Miss MARY WELSH, of Newton township, Cumberland county.

We suspect our worthy friend, Mr. Ritner, has "taken the fair" more to his own private satisfaction this time than as customary in the routine of his well known daily duty. We wish the happy couple, who remembered us so liberally on the good things of their nuptial feast, a long life of health, happiness and prosperity.

On the 11th inst. by the Rev. E. Brandenbaugh, Mr. ARCHIBALD BRICKER, to Miss MARTHA L. WILLIAMS, all of Newville.

On the 8th inst. by Daniel Lackey, Esq. Mr. HENRY SMITH, to Miss CATHARINE HEWDLEMOSER, all of Frankford township.

On the 10th inst. by the Rev. Henry Abrahd, Mr. WILLIAM MYERS, to Miss MARY KYLE, all of Newville.

On the 13th inst. by the same, Mr. SAMUEL CHAMBERLAIN, to Miss ANN MARY MOUNTZ, all of this place.

DIED,

On Tuesday the 11th inst. WILMER BAUGHMAN, son of James and Ann Weatherington, aged 3 years and 4 days.

Baltimore Market.

SATURDAY Nov. 17th.

FLOUR.—From the close of last and and during the early part of the present week, and sales appear to be steady at $5-50, both for City Mills and Howard street; but on Wednesday a little more firmness on the part of holders was evinced, and Thursday and yesterday prices went up 12½ to 25 cents, large sales having been made during the afterpart of the former and yesterday at $5 75, closing with great firmness, and some refusing to sell under $6. The inspections for the past week comprises the following kinds and quantities, viz: Howard street 12,110 barrels and 16 half barrels; City Mills 8,572 barrels and 416 half barrels; Susquehanna 145 barrels Family flour 828 barrels. Total: 21,654 barrels and 432 half barrels wheat flour.—There was also inspected 83 barrels Rye flour, and 295 barrels and 50 half barrels corn meal. Philadelphia Buckwheat meal is selling at 2,25 a $2,37½ per 100 lbs. country do. 1 75 a $2,25.

GRAIN.—Wheat comes forward only moderately, and prices are on the advance, good to prime reds commanding 1,18 to $1,23 per bushel, and Family Flour white 1,25 to $1,30, inferior parcels of either description are from 5 to 10 cents per bushel under those figures. Small sales of Rye at 70 to 73 cents. Corn has advanced, and with considerable sales; the rates at close may be quoted 60 to 65 cents for white and yellow, the former for new and the latter for old. Oats have not materially varied, but rather improved, the closing rates being 35 to 37 per bushel.

Philadelphia Market.

MONDAY EVENING, Nov. 17.

Flour—The market opened dull, and although holders asked $5,12½, buyers refused to give over $5; and later in the day, 3500 bbls. were sold at the latter price. Wheat—the market is flat, and 8000 bushels sold at 124 a 125c. for Penn'a reds, and the latter price was also paid for choice Southern. Rye—2000 bushels Southern brought 72c. Corn in demand, sales of Southern yellow at 72 a 73c, and old and new mixed at 67 a 68 cents.

☞ A personal encounter occurred at Washington on Saturday week, between Mr. Heiss, one of the proprietors of the "Official Organ," and Mr. Grey, correspondent of the Charleston Mercury. The attack was made by Heiss in consequence of severe strictures upon the deceptive course of the official editors, published by Grey. Both are Locofocos and the incident tells well for the harmony of the party.

☞ Intelligence has been received from Mexico within a few days, which make it clear that no further difficulties will occur between that country and this.
