NOTICE.

THE partnership of John J. Myers and S. W. Haverstick, trading under the firm of MYERS & HAVERSTICK, has been this day dissolved by mutual consent. Either of the undersigned are authorised to settle the business of the late firm.

JOHN J. MYERS,
SAML. W. HAVERSTICK.

Carlisle, April 15, 1846.

JUST AS USUAL!

S. W. HAVERSTICK, of the late firm of Myers & Haverstick, desires respectfully to acquaint his friends and the public, that he may be found as usual in the OLD STAND, on North Hanover street, where he will continue the business in the same manner, and keep a constant and fresh supply of

Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, Dye-Stuffs,

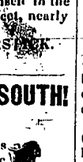
MISCELLANEOUS & SCHOOL BOOKS, together with a general variety of Fancy and useful articles, such as have been heretofore kept in this establishment. The public may rest assured that no care or attention will be wanting on his part to keep the numerous customers of this establishment supplied with Goods of the freshest and choicest kind, and at prices as low as any other establishment in town.

Thankful for the patronage extended to the late firm for several years past, he respectfully solicits a continuance of it to himself in the Old Stand, on North Hanover street, nearly opposite the Carlisle Bank.

S. W. HAVERSTICK.

Carlisle, April 15, 1846.

NORTH AGAINST THE SOUTH!



H. C. MALOY,

WOULD respectfully inform his old customers and the public generally, that he has REMOVED to the store room formerly occupied by Mr. Stephen M. Harris, on the corner of North Hanover and Louther streets, immediately opposite Leonard's Store, where he will manufacture and keep constantly on hand a general assortment of

Gentlemen's, Ladies' and Children's BOOTS AND SHOES,

made of the best material and in the most fashionable and superior style, and at prices lower than can be had at any other Establishment in town for CASH. "Pay to-day and trust to-morrow," is his motto.

He would respectfully invite the public to examine his stock, confident that they cannot fail of being satisfied with both the materials and workmanship. His best morocco and other fine materials are purchased in the city with the utmost care, and as he employs none but the best workmen, he feels safe in warranting every article which goes out of his establishment. All ripe repaired gratis. Country produce taken in exchange for work. Returning his warmest thanks for past patronage, he respectfully solicits a continuance of it for the future.

H. C. MALOY.

Carlisle, April 15, 1846.

NEW LIVERY STABLE.

THE Subscriber respectfully informs the citizens of Carlisle and vicinity, that he has opened a

REMOVAL.

CHARLES BARNITZ,

WOULD announce to the citizens of Carlisle and the public in general, that he has removed his store to South Hanover street, one door below Burkholder's Hotel, in the house formerly occupied by Mr. N. W. Woods, where he would advise all who want to purchase cheap Goods to give him a call.

He would inform the public that he has just returned from Philadelphia with a large and splendid assortment of which added to his former stock makes his assortment complete. He will sell goods as cheap as at any other establishment in town. His stock, which has been selected with care and attention, will enable him to give such bargains as cannot fail to please.

Spring and Summer Goods,

He would therefore call the attention of the public in want of CHEAP GOODS, to give him a call and examine for themselves. His stock consists in part of

of all colors and quality, Cassimeres, Cassinetts, Tweeds, Vesting, Flannels, Silks, Alpaccas, Merinoes, Ginghams, Bed Tickings, Shawls, Calicoes, Muslins; a select and general assortment of Lace, Edging, Insertings, Gloves, Hosiery, &c. &c. &c., together with every variety of goods kept in any store.

Also—A very large assortment of GROCERIES, of all kinds that may be wanted for family use, very cheap. Likewise, a large assortment of which will be sold very low. SEGARS, of the best that the city could afford, can be had by calling at Barnitz's Cheap Store, in South Hanover street.

Those desirous of securing the first choice of the most select and desirable goods in the market, would do well to call without delay.

CHARLES BARNITZ.

Carlisle, April 8, 1846.

DENTISTRY, &C.

JOHN W. HENDEL,

RESPECTFULLY informs the public, that having opened an office in South Hanover street, nearly opposite the Post Office, he is prepared to practice DENTISTRY in all its branches. Good Teeth are essential to health, besides natural or artificial ones are not only useful but ornamental, and add materially to the comfort of the wearer. It need not be stated what can be done to the teeth, suffice it to say that every defect can be remedied, and new Teeth furnished from a single one to an entire set. Having had considerable practice for a number of years; good references will be given to such as require them, but the best proof is the operation, which will in all cases be performed in the most careful manner and at prices to suit the occasion and the times. Persons waited on at their residences, either in town or country, without extra charge. He may always be found at his office, as above, or at his residence in Pomfret street, near Hendel's livery stable.

He will also promptly attend to the repairing of Watches and Jewelry, at his office in South Hanover street. Also, ENGRAVING neatly executed. By attention and skilful execution of his work, he hopes to receive and hereby solicits a share of public patronage.

Carlisle, April 8, 1846.

REMOVED! REMOVED!!

JOSEPH M. KNEEDLER has removed his Cheap Book and Periodical Store, in West High street, next door to Beetem's Hotel, where he intends to keep a general assortment of School, Miscellaneous and Theological Books. Also, a large assortment of all the cheap publications of the day. Joseph M. Kneedler feels thankful for the patronage heretofore bestowed, and hopes to receive a continuance of the same. The above notice I hope will suffice, for I assure you I do not wish to wake up the dead, or in other words to speak ill of empty boxes.

Carlisle, April 8, 1846.

REMOVAL.

JOHN WHISTLER,

WOULD respectfully acquaint his friends and the public, that he has removed his

BOOT AND SHOE MANUFACTORY,

to South Hanover street, nearly opposite the Post Office, and a few doors below Burkholder's Hotel, where he will manufacture to order, GENTLEMEN'S BOOTS, in the most superior style, and keep constantly on hand an elegant assortment of LADIES' WEAR of every description, manufactured by himself in the best and most fashionable style. He pays the highest prices in order to secure good workmen, and only asks that his work may be examined to recommend itself. He asks the public to give him a trial, and if his work is not satisfactory he will not desire a continuance of patronage.

Wood and Country Produce will be taken in exchange for work at market prices.

Carlisle, April 8, 1846.

REMOVAL.

THE subscriber would respectfully inform his friends and the public, that he has removed to the room lately occupied as an office by John Reed, Esq., in West High st., next door to Eby's store, where he will continue to carry on the

and to receive orders for work in his line, all of which he pledges himself to execute promptly in a neat, fashionable and workmanlike manner. The latest fashions will be regularly received and no pains spared to render general satisfaction to those who may favor him with their custom. Cutting of garments done on moderate terms.

WILLIAM McPHERSON.

Carlisle, April 8, 1846.

FASHIONABLE TAILOR.

H. J. MECK,

TAKES this method to inform his friends and the public generally, that he has removed his next door to Mr. Irvine's store, in West High street, opposite Mr. Beetem's Hotel, in the borough of Carlisle, where he is prepared to do all work in his line, in the very best manner.

TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT,

From his experience in the business, he flatters himself that he will be able to please all who may favor him with a call; at the shortest notice.

He receives the fashions regularly from the city, and those who desire a Coat to fit neatly, are requested to give him a call, as he feels confident that he can give entire satisfaction to the most fastidious.

He also returns his thanks to his former friends and customers, and hopes that they will continue their friendship, and bring as many new friends as they can with them. His prices will be moderate to suit the times. H. J. M.

Carlisle, April 8, 1846.

REMOVAL.

THE undersigned would respectfully inform his friends and the public in general, that he has removed his

from Harper's Row, to the house formerly in the occupancy of Mrs. Fleming, two doors west of Stevenson & Mehaffey's Drug Store—directly opposite the Mansion House Hotel, where he can and may be found to wait upon his former patrons, and those new ones who are desirous to try him for good FITTING GARMENTS. He would also avail himself of this opportunity to return his sincere thanks to his kind patrons for their past encouragement, and solicits the continuance of their favors.

WILLIAM SPOTTSWOOD.
