Mounted Riflemen. RECRUITING SERVICE.

A RECRUITING Rendezvous is now open at the Carlisle Barracks for the onlistment of able-bodied men between the ages of 18 and 35 years, not less than 5 feet 5 inches high, for the Regiment of Mounted Rifternen. None need apply but such as are of good character and respectable standing among their acter and respectable standing among their fellow cuizene, and are disposed to serve out the period of their collistment—which will be five years—honeslly and faithfully.

The pay to which collisted soldiers will be entitled according to their respective grades in this Regiment will be:

Farriers and Blacksmiths 11

132 96 Besides the pay as above stated, an abundant quantity of the best food and most comfortable clothing will be at all times furnished them as well as good quarters and sufficient fuel, and every attention will be paid to making those men who may enlist and are determined to serve their country in good faith, comfortable and contented with their situation. The best medical attendance is always provided for the sick soldier and no deduction of pay made du-ring the period he is unable to perform his duty. The prudent soldier can if he chooses save his outire pay—as everything requisite for his comfort and convenience is furnished by the Government, and he may thus have at the expiration of his collatment from $480 to $960
