The Tract contains 400 Acres of

The Tract contains 400 Acres of good LIMESTONE LAND, one-third of which is in Timber oak walnut, and hickory.) It has been judiciously cleared, so, that the Woodland is very convenient to the rest of the Farm. The cleared land is in line forming order, the greater wat off theirs free from reals. Tram. The cleared land is in line forming order, the greater part of it being free from rooks, briers and sprouts, and most of the fields being well set in clover and orchard gross. The leneing is inferior poshaps to none in the valley, and the shaper location and general arrangement of the farm will compare advantageously with any other. The buildings are indifferent; (except the barn) but are beguitfully situated in the farm of the graph of the tract comexcept the barn) but are continuity situated in a fine grove, in the centre of the tract communating a view of every field. A young or chard of thoice apple trees is growing hearthellouse. Water is supplied by a well, which never failed before the utusual drought of 1846, and by a number of ponds which furnished an abundance of water even then. Churches and abundance of water even tion. Continues and sechols, wills, factories, stores and mechanics of all sorts, abound in the vicinity, the neighborhood being thickly settled by a thrifty, industrious and orderly population. The tract
