Messys, J. N. & G., S. Hobensack t—Gentlemen bussolicited, I sendyou this testimonial concerning your invaluable. Medicated Worm Syrup.—From early infancy, my daughter, now a child of 18 months, has been sorely afflicted with. Worms, causing daily the most severe and distressing pains. At times the would be almost frantic, and purficulty commingeable; would run up and down the floor, and knock herself unconsclously against the walls. For a long time, we were ignorant of the oause—at length being impressed with the belief that worms were, the cause, we commenced giving several incidions for auch a complaint, from which the child derived no benefit whatever. As a matter of course, sile was much reduced in flesh, and had all, the symptonic of such a complaint. Accidentally meeting with one of your circulary we were induced to try your medicine. We had not used it but a few days before a great many worms weep throught from her one, full six inches in length, and scores, varying in size from one to four inches. I need scarcely add, that the child, was a piccilly relieved; and, that, too before we had used one, 22 cent bottle of your Worm Syrup. She is now entirely free from those distressing pains, and doing well. I feel that it would be unkindees on my part to without from you and the oninimity this information. Mesers. Robinson, Callins & Co.:—Being af. I fliede last spring with a very severe cough, with pain in my side and breast, sorenes and weakness of the lungs, shortness of breath, loss of appetite, &c., i tried various remedies, but to no good effect, my cough still continning and growing worse. Such was the distressing nature of the cough that I could not lie in bed night nor day, but, was obliged to sit up in my chair, and could not sleep but very little at best, consequedtly, I was warring out very fast, till you very kindly recommended Dr. Davis's Compound Syrop of Wild Cherry and Tar, the first bottle of which gave me relief, checked my cough, loosened the phicking caused me to expectorate freely, restored my appetite, relieved the pain in my side, healed the soreness of my breast, and strengthened my longs, causing me to breattle freely, if have now taken ten bettles it has onlyely cured my cough. I have gained considerably in ficeh. I think it a most valuable medicine, and one that ought to be universally known, that those allieted with colds and coughs may have a medicine both safe and sure to cure, if taken properly. While taking the medicine, I drank freely of molasses and water which I found excellent to keep the bowels open. If this statement can be of any benefit to the afflicted, you are at liberty to make such use of it as you may think proper.
