EDITORIAL CONVENTION .- An Editorial Convention was held in New Jersey a few weeks ago. One of the resolutions passed was highly complimentary to V. B. PALMER. Esq., (our City Agent;) recommending lum to the press, as an excellent person to act as agent for any newspaper. - Mr. Palmer is well worthy of this compliment, from the editorial Fraternity. He has exhibited an untiring perseverence in his efforts to elevate the character and condition of the Newspaper press of the U.S., and we are glad to find that he is properly appreciated by those in whose behalf he hus successfully labored for several years.

05- We learn with feelings of deep pain the untimely death of Mr. Charles A. Gregg, which is made the subject of an obituary -notice in to-day's paper. Ilis lather's family whom he accompanied, leit here a few weeks since to take up their future residence in Illinois. Whilst going down the Ohio river, with their travelling wagon on board a steamboat, young Gregg attempted to draw a bucket of water from the river for the horses. In the act he was drawn overboard, and all attempts at rescuing him having last week, who excited much attention among proved fruitless, he was drowned. Wc the bystanders.
