Cards.

COMMERCE SERVICE COMP.

OCTOR MYERS has associated his neighbow, Ma. J. E. JACKSON, in his ladge and Book Business. tyung and Done Dustiness.

By this Wrangement, Doctor MYERS will be enabled to give his undivided attention to the duties of his, Profession, Garlisle, September 30, 1846.—3ms.

DOCTOR AD. LIPPE Homeopthic Physicin.

OFFICE: Main street, in the house for therty, occupied by Dr. Fred. Ehrman. Carlisle, April 9, 1846.

·DR II. O. LOONIIS9 SPENTIST.

Til.L perform all operations upon the L'euth that are required for their preservation, suchas Scaling, Fling, Plugging, Sc., or will restore the loss of them, by inserting Artificial Teeth, from a single Tooth, to a full sett. q Office on Pittatreet, a few doors South of the Railcond, Hotel.

N. ft. D. Lou mis will be absent from Carlisle the last tend sys, in each month.

Jane 11, 1846.

HENRY EDGAR REENE.

ATTORNEY AT LAW. Wild practice in the several Courts of Cumberland and the adjoining counties and atend to all professional business cutrusted to his care with promptices and fidelity. Office by South Hanover street, in Graham's new building, opposite the Post Office.
Carlisle, August 20, 1846,-1 y.

S. DUNLAP ADAIR, Attorney at Law. O'FICE in South Handver street, a few door helow J. H. Graham, Esq. July 16, 1845.

DENTISTRY, &C.

JOHN W. HENDEL,

Respectivities of income the public, that having opened an office in South Hanover street, nearly, opnaticative frost Office, he is prepared to practice DENTISTRY. In all its brancies. Good Treeth are essential to health, besider esteral or artificial ones are not only useful but anamental, and add materially to the comfort of the wearer. It is ed not be stated what can be one to the teeths sufficient to say the tevery defect on her remedied, and new Teeth furnished from a dingle one to an entire set. Having had considerable practice for a mamber of years, good references with he given to such as require them, but he hest proof is the operation, which will in all ases he performed in the most careful manner and at prices to suit the occasion and the times. Termins writted on at their residences, either in them or continty, without extra charge. He may always be found at his office, as above, or at his edd lence in Pitt attect, one door north of Hendel's Livery stable.

Livery table,
if will also promptly attenting the repairing o Witcher and Jewelry, at his office in South Han-ver street. Also, ENGRAVING neatly execu-h l. By attention and skilful execution of his e hopes to receive and hereby solicits a share of public patronage.

Carligle, April 8, 1846.

HARRIS, TURNER, & IRVIN WHOLESALE DRUGGISTS.

No. 201 Market Street, PHILADELPHIA Inporters and Wholesale Dealers

T N Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, Patent Medicines, Surgical and Obstetrical Instruments; Druggists Glassware, Window Glass, Paints, Oils Druggists, Country Merchants, and Physicians stupical with the above articles on the most favorable trons. Stylet and prompt attention paid to orders. Every article warranttd.

John Habbers, M. P. James A. Tunyer, lately.

of Virginia. WILDIAM-IRVIN, M. D. Philadelphia, Sept. 30, 1846. - 1 y.

THE MANSION HOUSE HOTEL Fronting on the Cumberland Valley Rail Road OARLISLIE PA.

ATBLY Rept by Gen. Willis Foulk, has jus been taken by the subscriber. It is newly furnished and has been theroughly repaired Passengers in the cars, strangers, travellers and visiters to Calliste, ate invited to call.
Terms moderate, and every attention pand in the comfort and convenience of those who patronize the establishment.

J. A. WINROTT.

Carliale, April 16, 1845.

J, IP. TRATRIPIBES,

Lotevave. OFFERS his services to the public. Having hid several years experience withhis Father, and having in his pussession the valua-Father, and having in his possession the valua-ble collection of papers made by him, he hopes by care and punctuality to obtain a share of Public patronage.

Office in the public square, immediately in the rear of the Court House.

Caffisle, oct 21 DYEING & SCOURING.

WILLIAM TAVE THE WALLS. NILDUTHER STREET, sear the College dyes badies and Goutemen's apparel, all colors, and warrants all work to be satisfactory. Orders in his line gaffectulity volicited.

Garlisle' September 2, 1848.

BOTTON

BEREBY GIVEN that application will be indee by the indersigned and others, to blioback Legislature of the Commonwealth of Ponneylvania, for the inderporation of a company of the Commonwealth of the barough of Carlisle, Comberland county, to have Maintal of not less than One Hundred the stringsmer more than Two Hundred Thou-sand Dollars, with general banking and discounting privileges Thomas Bell, Thomas Bell, Sential Regge James Kyle, Samial Beetteria Abraham Kurtz, William Kerr, Skiles Woodburn, John Lefevre,

John Durlap, John Huston,
James Weakley, L. H. Williams,
Jenjamin Peffer, Alex'r. Davidson,
Audrison G., Miller,
D' W McCulloch, Leas Lefevre,
William Galbraith, George Helter,
Richard Parker, James Greason,
July 1, 1840.—6m. Samuel Beetem

Wm. M. Henderson, July 1, 1840.—6m.

5,000 old Spanish of Aregoried by the subscriber. Area: 20,000 HALF Spanish of Area: 1,000 HALF Spanish. Old Area: 1,000 HALF 100. od Turse Thinking he (16.5)

DURSE and Bag Trimming, of every deacription, just received by

G. W. HITNER.

Derold & Empositor con Mother of a Might Harbin. PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY.

)FFICE, in the South West angle of the public Square, back of the Court-House TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. One Dollar and Fifty cents a year in ADVANCE. Fwo Dollars, if paid within the year. Dne. Dollar for six months. These terms will be rigidly adhered to.

RATES OF ADVERTISING, Advertishments, making fifteen lines or less, will be harged at the rate of Fifty cents for one insertion,—here times for One Dollar, and twenty five cents for Very subsequent, insertion. Yearly advertisers will be charged at the following rates:

One Column, with the paper, for one year, $25

Halfa column, do. $13

Halfa column, do. Two Squares, with quarterly changes, JOB PRINTING, OF EVERY DESCRIPTION Suches flandbills, Blanks, Circulars and every other ther description of Printing, executed hansomely and xpeditiously, and at the LOWEST PRICES.

Miscelleneous. "I'lishave You in a Minute!" SHAVING AND HAIR DRESSING SALDON

SHAVING AND HAIR DRESSING SALOON,

JOHNSON & SMETH.

DESPECTFULLY inform the citizens of here "until their beards grow," that they have opened at new Saloon, in North Hannver atreet, a few doors South of Weibley's Hotel, where they intend prosecuting the above business in all its varied and various branches. They will slave you as clean as a City Broker, and cut your hair to suit the cut of your head and the cut of your phiz. Their whole object and desire is, to improve the appearance of the human race. They also practice Shampooning; or removing dandruff, in which their friends have been pleased to accord to them the palm of superiority.

Don't forget—near the good Hotel,
Which folks say WRIBLEY keeps so well.

Times are hard, and barbers poor,
Pray good friend don't pass our door,—
And it your hair should need a trimming,
Just walk in, we're always willing
To serve the gents in siyle, so neat,
'Twould make one bow'at Casar's teet.

Not only so—if that won't do,
We'll brush your coats, hats, old and new,
To please your taste we, will enjeavor,
To show you our neatest quiver.

To close the scene; we'll ope' the door,
The gent walks out, the scene is o'er.

N. B. Gentlemen troubled with the TETTER will find an infallible cure by applying at our Saloon.

Carlisle, November 18, 1846.

Carlisle, November 18, 1846.

SPECIAL COURT. P Y virtue of a writ from the Hon Nathaniel B. Eldred, President Judge of the 12th Judicial District of Pennsylvania, bearing date it Harrisburg, the 19th day of Dec. A.D. 1846.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,
the ta Special Court will be held by the said Hen. Nathaniel B. Eldrid, and the associate Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of Cumberland sounty, at the Court Hoise, in the borough of t sriisle, commencing on MONDAY; the 23d day of February, 1847, to continue one week, for ce t-in causes theprediting in the Court of Commen Pleas of Cumberland county, in which the Hon. Samuel Herburn was concerned as con usel for one of the parties, prior to his appin ament as President Judge of the 2th Indicial District—and such other causes as are embrased within the provisions of the Act of the General Assembly, passed the '4th of April, 1834; relative to the organization of the Courts of Justice.
Of said Special Court, Jurors and all persons concerned will take notice.

JAMES HOFFER, Sherid.

Sheriff's Office, Carlisle, Cher. 25, 1846.—to.

Black Cloths & Cassimeres! THE subscriber has just received French Clothe and Cassimeres, which will be sold very cheap. Call and see them. Nov. 18. GEO. W. HITNER.

CASHMERE PLAIDS.

THE subscriber has just received an assortment of Cashmere, Circassian and Gala Plaids for ladies dresses. George W. Hitner.

Superior Wines & Brandles, TOR Medicinal purposes, just received at Da. Myers' Drug Store—a choice selection of ild Wines. Also, a very good and cheap article for cooking.

GUM SHOES.

ZAPHE subscribers have just received a

AND NORTH HANOYER STREET

2400 LDS. Wetherill's Pare Ground
White Lend.
200 Gallons Linseed Oil.
100 Gallons Spirits of Turpenting.
2000 lbs. Novoscotian Grindstones.

3000 bbs. Nails; assorted:

With a full assortement of Carpenter's Tools,

With a full assortement of Carpenter's Tools,

With a full assorted:

A towast nries.

MORE NE WGOODS HE attraction has just returned from the city of Philadelphia with a further supply of STAPLE & FANCK GOODS, all of which all be disposed of at low prices for cash!

G. W. HITNER.

Richard's Palma Christi Pommade. THE subscriber confidently recommends this

BY WILLIAM CULLER BRYANT.

Oh mother of a mighty, race, Yet lovely in thy youthful grace! The elder dathes, thy hanghty peers, Admire and hate the blooming years, With words of shame. And taunts of scorn they join thy name.

For on thy cheek the glow is spread That tints thy morning hills with red; Thy step—the wild deer's rustling feet Within thy woods are not niore feet; Thy hopeful eye Is bright as thine own sunny sky.

Aye, let them rail—hose haughty ones-While safe thou dwellers with fly of They do not know how loved thou art, How many asfond and fearless heart Would rise to throw Its life between thee and the fee.

They know hot, in their hate and pride, What virtues with thy children bide; How true, how good, thy graceful maids Make bright, like flowers, the valley shutes; What; meropis men Spring, like thine pake, by hill and glan.

What cordial welcomes greet the guest, By thine lone rivers of the west; How faith is kept and trulk revered. And man is loved an I God is feared now of and homes.

And where the sulemn occan foams.

There's freedom at they gates, and rest, For earth's down troiden and opprest, A shelter for the unned head. For the starved labor it toll and bread—Fower, at thy bounds.

Oh fair young mother on thy brow Shall sit a nobler grace than now, Deep in the brightness of the skler The thronging years in glory rise, And, as they feet, Drop strength and riches at thy feet

Thine eye, with every coming hour, Shall brighten, and thy form shall tower, And when thy sisters, elder born, Would brand thy name with words of scorn, Before thine eye Upon their lips the taunt shall die.

A Christmas Family Scene.

To those who are aware what pains and roubles are incurred, in many parts of the Continent of Europe to prepare, secretly, some Christmas gift for a father, mother, brother or elster, the following scene will have many charms, independent of its attractiveness for all readers. It is from the pen All the young ones lound their wishes gralified; and each and all had therein his sugar the Swedish by Mrs. Howitt:

You should have seen them, my four children dancing rou id the Christmas tree, which hung full of apples, gingerbread and oliber gimeracks; you should have seen them other gimeracks; you should have seen them in the light of the Christmas candles, beaming with joy, skipping, singing, laughing in unrestrained life enjoyment, and you would not have wondered that 1; absorbed by the observation of the joyous picture, did not remark that the contents of my tea cup which I nonred into the saver ray over putil I poured into the sauter ran over, until I perceived something warm at my side, and to my horror, saw a grey pool upon the red worsted demask of the sola. I immediately wiped it up, fortunately unperceived by my wife, but many will be the woulderings as to, how and when the stain came upon it. And now we were all assembled, wy wife—an excellent wife, I assure you, but almost too great a hater of stains upon furniture—my wife, my wife's husband, two young relations, the Student N., and Mamseli, Mina; and my four children. We drank tea and dipped in great slices of saftron bread. We ought to have talked and made believe that nothing was going to happen But it would not do. The state of the should have snow. The Student, that we should have twaw; my wife's idea was that we should soon have winter; mine that we had winter already; Mamsell Mina's, that we should have an early spring, and so on. In the meantime, the children began to cast expressive glatters one at another; and then quickly I saw my eldest daughter with dip-lomatic address, steal out of the room, and the rest one after another: Nobody observed it—Heaven forbid! but my wife smiled, and so did I. In a little while the children again entered, and now in a solemn proces-

Shoes, of various qualities and prices, suitable for fatties, girls and children, and so cheap too that every person should have a pair.

Nov. 26.

BLACKING.

BLACKING.

30 gross "Mason's Challenge Blacking," superior to any manufactured in the known world, which she herself had worked for me and which we will sell low either by the dozen or single box.

Nov. 25, 1846:

CAVENDISH, Honoy Dew, and James Plug; a large assortment of Spanish and Half Pranish Segars. Sweet Scented Rappes and Scotch Snow.

Scotch Snow.

CAVENDISH CO.

CAVENDISH CO sion, the eldest first, the youngest las gentle stars be thanked! It was better than I expected; for, as with terror I took the paper into my hands, I saw no Alps, only a pair of human heads, which seemed to be goting one another—although it was meant to represent kissing yet, still the whole thing was so human, that I could will great truth answer my wile's somewhat uneasily questioning glances by—". Ay, ay, look here now. At take age I could hardly have done better myself."

Purchasers will find it to their advantage to My six year old Willie, a little quiet lad, call before purchasing elsewhere.

300HN P. LYNE. must be designed as an antiquarian—I had a presentment regarding the Christman of My six year old Willie, a little quiet lad, given to looking after relice, and who must must be designed as an antiquarian. I had a presentment regarding the Christmas gift which, with some importance, he presented to flia mother? This was a collection of recommendation of the markable things which be had found—crooked pines, broken pointed needles, headless and gilding, a passible peice of money, and such little currosities, which caused us buter into a hearty laugh. This embarrassed the little collector, and filled his eyes with tears, which we immediately kiesed away, and assumed that demeaner of respect with which one remains relice from Herculancem. And as The Langaser (Pa.) American Republican on Free speak assists and specially among these treatments we discovered an old subject to the parents of the parents

Extracts from a Speech which with crimsoning cheeks, she received our hanks:
Whilst we-my wife and I-were Delivered at the City of Washington before Col-

Whilst we—my wile and I—were more closely examining our Christmas gifts by the light, thrifug, them. in every, direction, and fluding them all remarkably, there suidenly was heard a thundering noise at the door.

Great sensation especially among the youn-potton of the company. Immediately, after-terwards the door opened, and there entered a beast which might have put to flight all the wild beasts of Africa, but which saluted with great horne; with wild singgy eye brows, and many charteratics of the monster; behind him came a young servant maid with a price of the proof of the company of the monster; behind him came a young servant maid with these. They rolled about and flew here and there, and after them the four children, amid a tunul, of delight. A terrible tunult was this. The long legs of my first born occasioned a dreadful convulsion among chairs and tables, and as I feared, even upon his own masterpiece of carpentry. Amid the universal in and tables, and as I feared, even upon his own masterpiece of carpentry. Amid the universal in and tables and care the hind the converted of the and tables and as I feared, even upon his own masterpiece of carpentry. Amid the universal in and tables and care the following the provided and the converted to the source of the land; why, then, do you not socially and politically? Simply because you do not make the effort, and sandon the following among chairs and tables, and as I feared, even upon his own masterpiece of carpentry. Amid the own masterpiece of carpentry. Amid the universal tu cult happened to see my wife wrap something up in her shawl; it seemed to me to be the rules of the colossal foot-stool, and I fancied that three lags were mis-Every seven or ten minutes the Christmas goat made a volcanic management from which dittle packets were fluing up into interior. At one time a half anker, and then a half cask, was rolled in; and all those hall to be brought to the little and all those hall to be brought to the light, and there in presence of all, their inscriptions read, which contained many old and significant pun. jeudlesprits, which were duly interpreted. It various parts of the verses I perceived the young genius of the Student; and in many jokes the merry humor of Mina. Two hours were spent amid froles of this kind and the peels of huselter. frolies of this kind, and the peels of laughter which they excited. At the end of that time the young student stood in a new black suit, and, striking his head upon his breast, declaimed, I know not what sort of tragic comic oration, before Mamsell Mina, and she, almost killing herself with hughter, attempted to answer him in the same spirit. My first born made entrachets on entrachets around a library of ten volumes; my eldest daughter danced before her new hat, Wille beat a drum; and little Bertha-embraced a cat of pasteboard, and gave it the most loving of pet names. That was a confusion, but it pet names. That was a confusion, but it was a confusion that did the heart good.

plum to ruck at a future time.

And now we had to eat, and after that to sleep; both of which were difficult for the children, who now could see nothing, could cocupy themselves with nothing, but their christmas boxes. Each one took his most precious gift to table. Little Bertha's cat must go with her to bed. Everyone longed for the morrow, that he might his better examine his splendid treasures. Whilst they lay and talked of these, sluinber and kiesed the world from their lines. They now he and sleep. Joyous evening! G d be praised for thee, and that they comest and lightest up a portion of our long dark winter with a ray of light which once, in the darkness of the world, was kindled at the cradle plum to suck at a future time. with a ray of light which once, in the dark-ness of the world, was kindled at the cradle of a child. Beautiful, also, is the old Swedish custom of allowing all children to celebrate the oirth of the Child of God. I have been a child, and have wept, and laughed, and wept again, like all my April mooded compeers, quickly forgetting the occasion both of smiles I have become a man, and have experienced the sorrows of life, and the pleasures of the world, they are now only as a dimmed memory; but like a newly kindled light—like a clear, cracking winter's fire—flames up before my mind the delights of Christmas evening in my childhood .of Christmas evening in my common.— Many a pleasure, many a breeze of Spring, many a bright beam of autumn sunshine, may still cheer the aged; but the joy of Christmas eve, that indescribable, unmixed, innocently intoxicating delight; experiences he never more! Yet still be can enjoy it in the gladness of children-his bwn, or Come to Sweden, George. Celebrate with us next Christmas eve; and let us together drink a health to all good parents and happy children for Christmas this year; and every year until the end of time. Your friend.

Stockholm, Dec. 1845.

HURRAH FOR POLK AND WALKER!-SHIRTS HURRAH FOR POLK AND WARKER!—Stricts that power that pitted him, he learns to pity AND SHEETS FOR LESS THAN NOTHERS.—Hear them. He is the example and the hope of ye! Hear ye! individuals of the untavored less daring spirits. His light directs their classes; you who have been compelled to contribute of your substance to pamper overuntribute of your substance to pamper overgrown monopolies; you have got your oppressors on the hip. Hereafter they will have compliabed—all that they desire, he has acpressors on the hip. Hereafter they will have compliabed—all that they fear, he has subto furnish you with shires and sheets for less instance. Stricts a strict the example and the hope of them. He is the example and the hope of daring spirits. His light directs their classes; you who have been compelled to contribute of your substance to pamper overuntribute of your substance to pamper overcompliabed—all that they desire, he has acpressors on the hip.

The is the example and the hope of daring spirits. His light directs their construction.—He is the example and the hope of daring spirits. His light directs their construction.—He is the example and the hope of daring spirits. His light directs their construction.—He is the example and the hope of daring spirits. His light directs their construction.—He is the example and the hope of daring spirits. His light directs their construction.—He is the example and the hope of daring spirits. His light directs their construction.—He is the example and the hope of daring spirits. His light directs their construction.—He is the example and the hope of daring spirits. His light directs their classes; you who have been constructed by the example and the hope of daring spirits. His light directs their classes; you who have been constructed by the classes; you will be a substantial their daring spirits.

The is the example and the hope of daring spirits. His light directs their daring spirits.

The is the example and the hope of daring spirits. His light directs their d grown monopolies; you have got your op-pressors on the hip. Hereafter they will have to furnish you with shires and sheets for less than gothing!

Robert J. Walker, our illustrious Secretary of the Treasury, in his report of last year, insisted that the duty on every foreign import was "added to the price of the import and also of its domestic rival." . On the 10th page of that report he says! or that report he says!

"The duty, therefore, must be added to the price, and paid by the consumer—the duty constituting as much a part of the price as the constituting as much a part of the price as lis cost of production.".
Now let us see how this theory works.

In the New York Express we find the prices of domestic sheetings and shirtings on the 30th of November last, and salso the prices less the duty; in other words the tree trade prices. From the table given below it will be seen that under the Free Trade system shirtings and sheetings must be furnish ed for considerably less than nothing by the sheatre 4.4 a 2 a 8 a 8 a 10 a 10 c 3.4 10 a 12 b 10 c 5.4 10 a 12 b 1 pens of joy the approaching era of clean shirts for less than nothing !—Troy Whig.

DOMESTIC GOODS. Tariff of 42, Price Dully Promines Price Confidence of the Confide

The Lancaster (Pa) American Republican

Washington, Dec. 12, 1846.

Take from your employments, therefore is at least one whom I now address he has faith as a mustard seed, is destined

the lowest in the gift of God

pened for himself

not be understood to encourage that desire

Thave shown you a young man as he should be; and as I trust each of you will be. Let us reverse the ploture.—How melancholy—how deplorable the contrast, when urning from this imperfect sketch, we abuse our eyes to look upon a youth of superior prospects, wasting the morning or spring time of life in indolence; in dissipation, and in vice. He not only has no post, but he never attains any to fill the first office in the gift of the people

And there are more, many more than one who may fill a much prouder office, that

To concentrate attention; let me present to

J. R. Chandler, Esq.—A memorial was presented to the Senate this morning by Mr. Johnson of La., signed by over 200 persons of both political parties, praying that the Tariff of 146, so far as it related to Sugar might be repealed and that the tariff of 142 restored. The memorial also cast censure upon one of the members of La in the House, Mr. Morse for his course upon that bill, and declared that he had in that respect, misrepresented

In the House there was an outpouring of viluperation, malevolence, valgarity, and slang wangery from that distinguished mem-ber from Ohio who became world known last gession by the cognomen of "sausage Sawyer." After Mr. Folk had given up six degrees of territory in Olegon, rather than fight Great Britain, Mr. Sawyer denounced toils incident to its attainment. The analysis racy of worth is true republican nobility, but it relies for its patent and security upon understand rectitude, and unliving industry. him in the coarsest and most vehement manner charged him with having basely retreated, and given away a portion of our ter-ritory to which he (Mr. P.) said our title was "clear and unquestionable," and as Mr. S. insisted it was. Mr. S. was then thought to whatever leisure time they may afford; take from your slumbers whatever hours are not inested it was. Mr. S. was then thought to be bold and honest—that he really, as he asserted, believed our title to be unquestionable, and being so, and Mr. Polk having taken the position he had, and induced his party-to stand up to 54 40 with him: thought Mr. Polk was acting a base and unpatriotic part in surrendering it. But it turned out that Mr. required; take from your sports and recrea-tions every moment they will reasonably allow, and appropriate these accumulated opportunities to moral and intellectual improvement, and in a lew short years where will you be found? Perhaps not rolling in will you be found? Perhaps not rolling in a your carriage, pampered and inflated by pride, or loling in Eastern magnificence and supineness—but you will be discovered where empty pride, luxury, and magnificence either never dare to show themselves, or can rately hold their place—in the councils of the nation—in offices of high and honorable trust—in the forefront of the army—on the constant deck of our callant navy in surrendering it. But it turned out that Mr. Sawyer was playing a game for himself, he knew how to manage Mr. Polk; he knew that nothing could be had of him by soft words, and that he was only to be operated on through his fears. Soon, or sometime after this abits sive speech, a Midshipman's warrant was given to a son of Mr. Sawyer, who is attached to the naval school at Anapolis, and has been spending some time in this city with his fathers, since the commencement of the Session. or in some other distinguished position in er, since the commencement of the Session.

Mr. Sawyer is now the willing advocate of all the measures of Mr. Polk, and ready to do any reasonable job, even if the kind he performed to day, for the administration. lite, less glaring and conspicuous than those, but still not less useful or mertitorious. There

In monarchies partisans are paid and the iscentented are purchased by appointments in the army and navy, and offices in the civil service; a nobleman who supports the government administration expects all his sons to be provided for by men in power, and we you a single picture—a mere finey sketch taken from one among a thousand, to which your thoughts might be invited in the way of illustration. Let me exhibit to you the porrepublicans rail at this system of corruption. But we have it among its to full as great an extent as they have it in Russia, Austria, Prussia, or any other monarchial government. trait of a youth, for which some of you may be supposed to sli-springing from obscure and it is working in the same manner here parentage—parents with no other inheritance than their henesty—no other hope on this side of the grave than the child into whose as it is there. Mr. Sawyer I presume prides himself upon being a democrat, and yet is not proof against that sort of means by which aronarchs are engaled to lord it over the penle, to live in royal luxury and magnificence mind they have instilled the virtuous princi-ples of their own—you see him struggling along during infancy, buffeled by adversity, nothing but clouds and darkness resting upon his path, with the feeble and flickering light while millions must groan in misery that they may revel in profusion and splendor.

Mr Sawyer having emptied his slush buckets upon the Whige, and used up his hour Mr. Baker of llinois obtained the floor, and he enjoys; his attention is directed to self-improvement, his associations though hum-ble, are of an intellectual cast; as the bee Mr. Baker of llinois obtained the floor, and spoke of the army to which he belings, being Col. of one of the Regiments of Illinois Volunteers,) of what it had done, and what it had suffered. He spoke of the effects of the invasion of Mexico upon her as a nation nationalizing her, giving her energy, patriotism and bravery, as well as concentrating her power, and creating a unanimous public opinion. The church, the clergy, the landholders, capitalists, and even the women, had entered heartily, zealously and unitedly into this contest—all the energies of the nation were called forth by it. What we can do he gathers honey from every flower, so he impibes instruction from every object around him, mainly because he seeks it. As he grows up, instead of wasting his sweetness.
It I may use the expression, in senseless dissipution, in idleness, or in pernicious amuse-ments and indulgences, he directs his attention to the edification of his mind, to the enlargement of his sphere of knowledgehis mental appetite increases by what it feeds on, and he is driven, as it were by an inmate and resistless impulse, to the pursuits of those bright and glorious objects which hourly break in upon the vista which he has

Where are the humble and obscure pathe banks of the Rio Grande, to take their la mount, to his condition. They shine in reflected, it not in original light. The fruit and eternal rest. It was one of the most sickly countries in the world. The regiment speaks for the tree,—the dark eye of the mother glistens, and the manly heart of the father swells with joy at the triumph of industry and principle, at the same time over obscurity and pride.

In the progress of years, where are his wite and children? They partake of his nobility—they share in his lustre, and he thus stands forth at once the regenerator of the stands forth at once the regenerator of the past, and the founder of future fortunes. He is the friend of the friendless—his own sad experience has instructed him in the value another summer in that sickly country. But to prevent this, the war must be pushed with all the vigor which the nation was capable of giving it. Mexico contains 8,000,000 of people, united in this war against us and the country was one of the most difficult to 'adof a friend in the time of need.-Taught by that power that pitied him, he learns to pity vance in he ever saw.—They could live on-almost nothing and their horses wanted noth-ing to eat. [A laugh] He did not mean this literally, but figuratively. Their horses would live and thrive upon what they found by the way side, while ours would die upon, such instance as this, stimulates an individual rather than a general benefit, who restricts it to local limits, or who conflues the operation of its influence to the present time, instead of tracing it to years and ages, yet to do come;

It was deserved, and the was some and prilliant, but to be so abundant troops operation of its influence to the present time, instead of tracing it to years and ages, yet to denote the proposition of Mr. Criterial denotes pay, said it was deserved and it would be doing but justice then. Every article they had to purchase was enormously extravagan in price, and it was often the case that soldiers wages would be entirely exhausted, so to countentance agrariantsm, or radicalism, of radicalism—subverting all order and dissolving a paradise into a chaos. Let us tion.

We speak of that which elevates us to the leligist, so that the march, of mankind may ever be forward and upward, and not backward and downward.

He then referred to the character of the control of equality which consists, in dragging the brightest, and the best down to our own necessaries. He had seen poor sick soldings to degrate poor sick soldings to cents per pound to below 25 cents for sugar, 25.

at the head of a company of volunteers, the gallant Criticaden had two sons in the army, and he rain over a long list of most gallant officers—men who had dustinguished—themselves by their bravery, who were staunch selyes by their bravery, who were staunch Whigs. There was no political disjunctions in the army, Whigs and Democrats were equally brave and gullant. David, who commanded the Mississippi regiment, as gullant an officerias ever led his troops to battle, was a Democrat, while his Lieut Col. McClung, the bravest of the brave, was an uncompromined. a Democrat, while his L'eut. Col. McClung, the bravest of the brave, was an uncompromising Wnig. He deprecated these discussions in the House, what was warted was ACTION. AATION, ACTION. The army expected it, and the country looked for it. All such attacks upon the White, as he had liested affect he came here, his looked upon with contempt and score.

Mr. B. said he had a resolution which had been drawn they the Scoretary of War are its suggestion, which he desired to present to the Phististen that the smooth result is suggestion, which he desired to present the limit of the Points of Points that he second result is suggestion, which he desired to present the limit of the Points of Point

Correspondence of the United States Cazette. delivered to the commander of each regi-Bayings and Doings at Washington. ment, for the men, and be charged to them at cost and no more.

After Mr. B. had closed his temarke, the Committee rose, and the resolution was then offered in the House, and road three several onered in the money and toay in see several times and passed than imously.

The debate by a resolution adopted in the morning, was to close at three o'clock, and was closed by Mr. B. a short time before that Evil, Companions.—Society is the atmosphere of souls, and we necessarily imbibed from it something which is either infectious of salutious. The society of virtuous persons is effoyed beyond their company, while vice carries a sting into solitude.—The society or company, you keep, is both the indication of your character and the former of it. In company, when the pores of the initial are opened, their requires more caution than usual, because the mind is passive. Either victous society will please you or it will not; if it does please you, the end of going will be defeated. In such society, you will feet your reversible for the dictates of conscience wear off, and that name at which angels bow and devils tremble, you will hear contemned and abused. The Bible will, supply materials for unmething jests or impious bufoonery, the consequence of this will be a EVIL COMPANIONS -- Society is the atmosterials for unmentality jests or impious bulfoonery, the consequence of this will be a practical deviation from vittue, the principles will become sapped, the fences of conscience broken down, and when debauchery has corrupted the character, a trtal inversion will take place, they will glory in their shame.—Robert Hall.

A Wond To Boys .- "The Learned Blacksmith says: Boys, did you ever think that this great world, with all its wealth and woo with all its shipping, steamboats, railpads, and magnetic telegraphs; with all its millions of darkly groping men, and all the science and progress of ages, will soon be given over to the boys of the present age, boys like you assembled in school rooms, or playing without them, on both sides of the Allantic Believe and the statement of the sta lieve it, and tock around upon your inheritance and get ready to enter upon its possesion. The Kings, Presidents, Governors, Statesmen, philosophers, Ministers, Teachers, Men; of the future, are all Boys, wildse feet like yours cannot reach the floor, when seated upon the benches upon which they are learning to master the monosyllable of their respective langüages.

LET'S HAVE A FAIR START.—It was Sunday morning—and a lough looking, but full bodi-gregation hite desembled to listen to their pastor's eloquent dissertation upon piety and 'equal rights.' In the midst of the sermon a denizen of the town rushed breathlessly into-their midst, with the inteligence that a vessel had stranded on the breach near by: and was fast going to pieces. The audience (who were known to a man as 'wretkers') rushed for the door and the spoils!

Hold my friends'—shouled the parson as he seized his hat—hold—be patient—be as he serzed his hat—"hold!—be patient be calm one moment, and listen to the words of advice. Observe,'—(and the Reverend geutleman still urged his way toward the door) be quiet one moment longer—control your passions! and having reached the door he bolted ahead—myth the final exclamation—now let's have a fair start!

ONE FAULT.-He who who will turn away entered heartily, zealously and unitedly into this contest—all the energies of the nation were called forth by it. What we can do he imsisted ought to be done this winter. A summer campaigne was destructive to the troops; of the volunteers who had been sent to Mexico, at least 2000 had lain down on the best feelings of the housands have descending the hearts of the Ris Granding in the hearts of the Ris Granding in the best feelings of the who will turn away a fine and for the heart who will turn away a fine of the heart will be a stranger to the best feelings of the human heart. Who has fault were not overlooked, to what depths of the Ris Granding in the heart was a stranger to the best feelings of the human heart. Who has fault were not overlooked, to what depths of infamy would not thousands have descending the heart was a stranger to the best feelings of the human heart. Who has fault were not overlooked, to what depths of infamy would not thousands have descending the heart was a stranger to the best feelings of the human heart. Who has fault were not overlooked, to what depths of infamy would not thousands have descending the heart was a stranger to the best feelings of the human heart. Who has fault were not overlooked, to what depths of infamy would not thousands have descended. ing temptations to which another may be exposed. He may have fought manfully for months against the sin; and still kept the secret locked in his boson: At last he that overcome. In a moment he yielded: He would give worlds to recall the act. He has mourned over it in sectiff, and repented in dust and sales. Shall we forsake him?—Earth and leaven—justice, hitmanity, philanthrophy and religion, cry out—"Forgive him!" He who will not forgive must possess the heart of a demon. Surely, the love of God is not in him. love of God is not in him:

> POWER OF FATTH THE N. Y. correspon dent of the Puritan relates the following touching incident given by Dr. Atlants of that city, in his setmon occasioned by the death of the late Dr. Armstrong:

death of the late Dr. Atmetrong:

"The end tiding were borne to the widowed family by Dr. Adams. The wife, in suspense, answered to the ringing of the bell—her cold hands told him of het albishelistics one of the nature of his erland; and whilst overwhelmed with the burden of his banful duty, he was yet more overwhelmed with the remark with which ship afficiently with the remark with which ship afficiently has always protocold the to vertice the glad tidings he sends; and, continued the the preaction; I know not all which notes to wonder, the impotery of that Translation. the prescuery is known or at writing nose to wonder, the mystery of that grant hope which has taken style, the little at and tather in the midst of his usefulness, or that power of religious principle which susaveil the desoluted heart of the bereaveil."

Ma. Benron's Views - Mi Seifator Bentoit that they had not the means to purchase aven mecessaries. He had seen poor sick saffitier pay 50 cents per pound to obese, 25 cents per pound to obese, 25 cents per pound to bakers bread, and other things in the same proportion.

He then referred to the charges that had been made against the Whigs, that they had declaring that discussion in the Senate. During that discussion in the Senate. Senate the been made against the war, and to granting the American Union, by virtue of a treaty will the confict. As on of Mr. Webster was at the head of a co-ppany of volunteers, the gallant Crittenden had two sons in the army, and he rain over a long list of most gallant critically responsible.

HERR DRIESBACK, the lion tamer, hall it. narrow escape a few days since in Cincilinat
He was in the cage with a 7000 inder the taming process when the saving attimit at tacked him said tore every resign or clothing from his person. He escaped however, when out any bodily injury.