

JOHN W. HEINDEL, RESPECTFULLY informs the public, that hving opened an office in South Hanovér-pared to practice DENTISTRY in all its bran-chest. Go at Teeth are essential to health, besides-setterior are the DENTISTRY in all its bran-chest. Go at Teeth are essential to health, besides-setterior are tilden ones are not only useful but unanamental, and field materially to the comfort of the wearer. It need not be stated what can be of me to the teeth, suffice it to say that every defect wan be remedied, and new Teeth furnished from a single one to an entire set. Having had conside-dable gractice for a number of years, good refer-onces will be given to such us require them, but the best proof is the operation, which will in all aves he performed in the most careful mannet and at prices to suit the occasion and the times. Persina waited on at their residences, either in tewo acconstituty, without extra chafge. He may Lear.—On an evening preceeding Thanks-giving, not many years ago, two students tawn or confiltry, without extra charge. He may always he found at his office, as above, or at his residence in Pitt-street, one door north of Hendel's left the colleges, with the most foul intent of procuring some of the Doctor's fine fat chick-residence in Pitt-street, one door north of Hendel's Livery stable. If will also promptly attend to the repairing of Watches and Jewelry, at his office in South Han-er street. Also, ENGRAVING neathy excer-h.J., Hy, attention and skilful exceution of his ark the longer to receive and hereby solicits a bare of public patronage. "Carliale, April 8, 8 46.

HARRIS, TURNER, & IRVIN WHOLESALE DRUGGISTS,

No. 201 Market Street, PHILADELPHIA, Importers and Wholesale Dealers

N Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, Patent Med-icines, Surgical and Obstetrical Instruments, Druggiats Glassware, Window Glass, Paints, Oils as possible. Dyes, Perfumery, &c. &c.

The other immediately laying hands on ats, and Physicis An rnal smile rooster. exclaimed 'Here's ok Prex, will you have him?" "Pass him along," was the reply, and he was soon in the Doctor's bag. "Here's a marm Prex," of the temper. He struck the ground-the palace disappeared. A horrid turnil filled the air as the ministers of the demon's venthe Doctor's bag. said the all-unconscious student, grabbing a geance swept away his victims find old hen, " will you have her ?" " Yes," again responded the Doctor. " Here's son John, will you have him ?" " Here's daugh-Even now it is said that the traveller a he hurries over the site of the palace hears three voices in the air which cry : " Traveller ter Sal, take her," and so on until he had cone regularly through with the Doctor's family and chickens. The old man then beware, forget not the roruar." Luck .-- Rev. H. W. Beecher says in on of his lectures :-- "I may here, as well as walked off in one direction with the stunder any where, impart the secret of good an while the student, well satisfied with his night, work, came down and streaked it for bad luck. There are men, who, supposing the colleges. Great was his astonishment to learn from his companion that he had not Providence to have an implacable Passengers in the cars, strangers, travellers and visiters to Carlisle, are invited to call. Terms moderate, and every attention paid got any chickens, and if he gave them to any against them, bemoan in the poverty of a wortched old age the misfortunes of their lives Luck forever ran against them and for others to the confort and convenience of those whe patternize the detablighment. Carlisle, April 16, 1845. One, with a good profession, tost his luck in the river, where he idled away his time a fishing, when he should have been in his their thoughts until the next forenoon, when both received a polite invitation fro office. President, requesting the presence of their Another, with a good trade, perpetually burnt up his luck by his hol temper, which provoked his employers to leave him. Another, who was honest and constant at his company to a Thanksgiving dinner. To de-cline was impossible, so with hearts full of anxiety for the resulf, they wended their way Officit the unblic square, immediately in the source in the sent, and taking the source in the sourc work, erred by perpetual misjudgments ;---he lacked discretion. Hundreds lose their fuck by endorking; by sanguine speculations; by trusting fraudulent men; and by dishones gains. A man never has good luck who has a bad wife. I never knew an early rising, hard-working, prudent man, careful of his earnings, and strictly honest, who complainving knife, turned with a smile to the rogues and said-"Young gentlemen, here's O'd Prex, and Marm Prex, son John; and daughed of balluck. A good character; good habits, and iron indusity are imprégnable to the assaults of all the ill'luck that, fools ever ter Sal", at the same time touching suc-cessively the respective chickens, "to which will you be helped ?" The mortification of dreamed of. But when I see a tatter lemalior the students may be imagined.—Springfield creeping out of a grocery late in the afternoon, with his hands stuck into his pockets the rim of his hat turned up, and the crown knocked Rep: FILLAL AFFECTION .- The following trthfoul TILLAL AFFECTION. -The following tribinal in, I know he has bad luck-for the worst of and beautiful paragraphs we extract from an all luck is to be a sluggard, a know, or a <text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text> tipple." exchange. The authon is not given :

Then how beautiful at evening, When the tollaonne week is done To behold the blackmith's embers Fade together with the sub; And to think the doner of inhor Are all closing up like one:

ANNECOUTE OF DR. NOTT OF UNION COL

produring some of the Doctor's fine fat chick-ons, that roosted in a tree adjoining his house. When they arrived at the spor, one accended tha tree, while the other stood with the bag-ready to receive the plunder. If so happen-ed that the Doctor himself had just left-his house with the view of securing the same chickens for his Thanksgiving dinner. The roome under the tree hearing some one are passed-their time in enjoyment without seek ing to ascertain it worth. The nine years rolled away in festivals. and the most extravagant delights. The close of the term at length arrived. The de-mon punctual to his appointed time, appear-ed at midnight, during a splendid entertainrogue nuder the tree hearing some. The approaching, immediately creeped slip away, without a titving his companions among the branches. The Doctor came up silently, and ment given at the place. The hideous appararition, rising among the was immediately saluted from above as tol-lows: "Are you ready?" "Yes," responded guests, addressed the brothers : "The last hour is about to strike. What have you to return to me ?" They were dumb with terror.

On awaking the next morning, they not doubting that they should return them at the appointed time. They fell asleep, thinking of their adventure, whose result by no means equalled their expectations. about to comence their daily toil, having almost forgotien the disappointment of the preceding evening, when suddenly they per-ceived three ingots of gold, which had re-placed the masses of iron. Their joy was -In a short time they resided in a magnifi cent palace. Their retinue was regal in its splendour. Forgetting their promise to the Evil one to return the value of his gift, they nous sombero. "Droves of asses pass, driv-en by ragged boys, and ladend with huge cargoes of wood, sacks of grain and bundles of corn stalks. Occasionally a dandy in white roundabout and pantulogis covered all over with buttons, dashed on by his richly caparsoned and spiritted poney, erect as a may pole, in the deep saddle, but incessantly mo-ving his legs and juigting ha long spurs.— Sometimes an independent looking Rauchero in the stirrups, but his saidle occupied by his slatternly sposa, adorned with a leather hat of no triffing dimensions. Sometimes two or works for the same period, $732,067. Net receipts, $625,135. The amount exhibits the actual receipts in payment at the Treasury,= without reference to the amount reported by the Canal Officers. The fiscal year clusted on the 30th of Nobeform with scruptions exactness all the obligations enjoined upon her by that con-stitution, and cling to the Union with an undying constancy and fidelity. Her hand will never be raised to insert or drive the wedge of severance. But she cannot forget, and ought not to lorget, that, under Provi-dence, the important element of her prospe-tive her heen the cannot for the prospeember. The above aggregate of profits was applied with the other revenues of the State, to the payment of the interest on the public debt, and the general expenses of the State Govrity has been, the ceaseless, diversified and persevering industry of her population. To labor, contrived by the head and performed by the hands of her freemen, under the conernment. The amount of relief notes in circulation on the first of January last, was $1.031;661. The loans which are due, or will fall due in the current year, and for which no provistrol and influence of her moral, religious and free institutions, she mainly over her present ion is made, except as far as the rolief notes There are thirty seven us that the relater notes are provided for, amount to $3,438,030. There are thirty seven seperate loans, which compose the State Debt, and the Treasurer recommends that they may be consolidated into a less number. Also that coupons should be attached to the consolida-ted or new stocks should be issued and to character and standing among the States of this confederacy: On this she must rely for her future weat and success. Our, people-regard-all-honest employment as honorable, and look upon idleness among the rich or the poor, as the prolific parent of vice. But labor, to be suc-cessful must be intellized. Whether and ted or new stocks, should be issued, and to he new transfers of the old etock. Also that these coupons be made receivable, for all dues for the Commonwealth.

ding over the last or moving amoug the ma-chinery of the cotton or the woollen mill, in the quiet retreats of agriculture or in the mart With regard to the interest due in February, the Treasurer states that the matter will of commerce; whether toiling upon the depend upon the amount of receipts for the land or upon the sea, before the mast of the merchantinan or hurling the harpoon into onth of January, and he remarks that if a deficit slight occur, the interest can be paid as on former occasions, inasmuch as the whale of the distant Pacific: whether it is intellectual or physical, exerted, in the field of science of in the harvest field, employed acconsiderable portion is not immediately in making the telescope in the mechanic's emanded, and by proper measure, some o Take in work she cannot. Neglected and forsaken, she will end her days in misery. How many bright-eyed, beautiful girls have thus period, cannot interfere with the of the stars, to be successful it must be di-particular period, cannot interfere with the of the stars, to be successful it must be di-particular period, cannot interfere with the of the stars, to be successful it must be di-particular period, cannot interfere with the of the stars, to be successful it must be di-particular period, cannot interfere with the of the stars, to be successful it must be di-particular period, cannot interfere with the of the stars, to be successful it must be di-particular period, cannot interfere with the of the stars, to be successful it must be di-particular period, cannot interfere with the of the stars, to be successful it must be di-particular period, cannot interfere with the of the stars, to be successful it must be di-the year, the revenue, if faithfully collected this intelligence is, and always must be will, be adequate to the expenditures, but reduce the existing debt, and leave a balance found, for the great mass of our population in the district school house. There form and direction are given to the character of the boys, who are to be the future men of the in the Treasury, of $579,119. Commonwealth, and to whose keeping will The Policy. be committed her future destiny. The Baltimore, American thus deals with

Truly, she is a boautiful creature. What bright eyes! What rosy cheeks! What magnificient form! Her toot is like a fairy's. And her voice; how delicious — a seraph could not have richer tones. She seems the yery pink of performer, and a what will be in the very pink of perfection, as she walks in the streets or sits in the parlor. What a form for a painter! But alas, alas the truth most be told; beautiful to look upon as this lady s, she is as unfit for a companing or wife as an Egyptian mummy Dress, display and fashion take up all her time. She hardly knows a flatiron from a warming pan, or cullender from a teapot. A daming needle would be as great a curiosily to her as a Millerite to ourselves. Can such a lady be, good lor any thing ! any thing except to eat! sleep and tick is the fancy of brainless tops

Druggists, Country Alerennaus, and raysicanas supplied with the above articles on the most fa-vorable trans. Strict and prompt aftention paid to orders Every article warranted. Joury HARRIS, M. P. JAMES A. TURNER, lately of Virginia. WILLIAS LIVIN, M. D.

of Virginia. WILLIAM INVIN, M Philadelphia, Sept. 30. 846 - y.

THE MANSION HOUSE HOTEL Fronting on the Cumberland Valley Rail Road

OARLISLID, PA.

ATELY kept by Gen. Willis Foulk, has jus been taken by the subscriber. It is newly furnished and has been thoroughly repaired

J. IP. DRAINIPING. SURVEIOR.

OFFERS his services to the public, Hav Public patronage. Office in the public square, immediately in the rour of the Court House.

Carlinic, oct 21

DYEING & SCOURING.

STILLARD INT ATALATTICA TN, LOUTHER STREET, near the College dyes Ladies and Gentlemen's apparel, all onlors and warrants all work to be satisfactory. Offers'in his increases of the solution of the Offers'in his increases of the solution.

three boys gallop down the hill, sealed upon the same bridleless donkey, directing his movements solely with a stick. Sometimes a cart, with small frame and gigantic wheels of almost solid wood, rolls along, drawn by oxen yoked by the horns. If the day be bright and fair, uncouth coaches may be seen nearly as large and not unlike the dromedary slowly dragged bp six mules, with drivers on the backs of three of them, and with armed footiner in the rear.

Below lies the city, built principally of ado bes (unburnt brick,) and looking like a con-lused jumble of mnd walls, above which rise the rudely painted spires of the lour different chapels, the dome and Arabic lacade of the chapels, the dome and Arabic Jacade of the cathedral. A visit to the latter will be well repaid. This a vast pile of stone, quaintly carved in front, and decked on top with gro-tesque figures, richly and expensively filled up in the interior, and adorned wide many fine images and paintings by celebrated Span-ish artists, all howevers betracting, wratched ish artists, all howevery betraying wretched taste and gross superstition. The ultar piece and candlesticks are of massive silver, and several figures represent ing the Virgin are crowned with pure gold. In a beautiful painting near the altar, God the Father is depicted in the attitude of blessing Jesus, Mary and Joseph, (Jesus, Mariny, Jose,) the earthly Trinity as they are universally called. Another painting represents the three persons of Heavenly. Timit, stand-ing on the head of the Cherubum-whilst Mary, not needing such support, is, sbated near by. A third shows Mary, Mollipr, of God, as the people most commonly, name her, in the act of drawing a soul out, of, pur-ratiory will the resort. the other kill should her, in the act of drawing a soul out. of, pur-gatory with the rosary—the other lost spirite are gazing at her very respectfully, and are too polite to overtask her, powers by taking hold of the string two at a time. A tulle im-age probed in the highest part of the rotunda we were told, was the Father of the rotunda we were told, was the Father of the World of Wax, encared in a box, and intended, to represent Christian the Septicular, the Mext casts solemnity assure us, was covered all

and the second

The rose will fade from her cheeks ; he eyes will become dim ; her voice grow dull; and her form will, show the marks of age Who then will watch beside her! who love but display. We have such a one in our mind's eye. Tears come to our eyes as we recall her fading memory. Long since she fell a victim to her folly, and the grave worms leasted on her ckeek. We worms leased on her ckeek. We sat be-side her bed just ere she breathed the last; and, oh God! the change. She died amid the paupers in the poor house. As she ex-tended her hand for the last time; she ex-claimed—"Once I did not think of this?" But we will not harrow up your feelings by a recital of her woes. Ye who are follow ing in the same track, boware ! Let virtue irtue be the guiding star of your heart. Be industrious. Bow not to the God of-fashion I Then friends, real, earnest devoted, friends, wil gather about you. Good husbands you will obtain, and life will be pleasant and glorious, and, sweetly pass away; being a prelude to that life of joy to which you will at last accend. O, will you'be wise? Partland Tribune.

A CURE FOR CONSUMPTION -A.

Scotch paper relates an installed of a young lady who was lately restored to health, though in the last stages; of consumption, by duling While in that situation if was he

the administration party for its want of policy and plain in the Moxican war.

At this moment the House of Represent tives is engaged upon a bill to add the new jegiments to the regular army; yet a few days ago: it retused to lay a tax which the, Secretary of the Treasury declared was absolutely necessary for the prosecution of the war. On the one hand we find a symptom of activity—a projected increase of military, force, looking towards vigorous, hostilities; while on the other hand, in the rejection of the demand lor mana, in the rejection of the demand lor money, willout which noth, ing can be done, we discover signs of a discussion of the same want of a definite purpose, or of demand in a static forth on the same want of a definite purpose, or of decision in striking for it; has been manifested continuelly by the Executive branch of the administration. From the official paper, valurous outpourings ever since the war-broke outphave come by its fits and statte-by, auden blasts dring away as sullienty. "At. one. time nothing, would be heard but loud vauntings of the tertible things that were to be done immediately, if not soon of ... the war, was to be darried into the heart of Moxico ;

A Good Anecdote

character and standing among the States of

There formerly resided in the city of Aa Monsieur D. a man of great wealth, but w ao was ever getting into difficulty when he found it necessary to make an investment. His temperament being decidedly nervous, many were the tricks played upon him. On one occasion he had come to the conclusion that bank stock was precations property to hold, railroad worse, and insurance stock he y hold, railroad worse, and insurance stock he wouldn't have, no how. Arriving at this point, he resolved to leave his spare lupds with a Mr. G. for and kasping. According-ly he called poor him and made a deposit of ten thousand dollars. Mr. G. received at with studentice, but informed Monsieur D. that it he should have location on the moo-ney, he must give a few days notice. Some six months had elapsed, and all things were moving on smoothy, so far as the French-man's money was concerned, when a com-pany of yolung men were seen to enter the City Hotel, and on observing our meryons iffed, one of them asked, his companion, if he had heard of the failure of Mr. G., to which they all simultaneously replied...can't the Freichman spring from his seat, and approximation the party, exclaimed, "Mon