Magnine A Million

Cards.

TIOT Arramgements

DOCTOR MYERS has associated his nephew, Mn. J. E. JACKSON; in his Drug and Book Business.

By this arrangement, Hoctor MYERS will be enabled to give his undivided attention to the duties of his Profession.

Cartisle, September 30, 1846.—3ms.

DOGROR AD. LUPPE Homeopthic P hysicin. OFFICE: Main street, in the house for morly occupied by Dr. Fred. Ehrman. Carliele, April 9, 1846.

DR I. O. LOOMIS SPINITE STATES

Will perform all operations upon the Teeth that are required for their preservation, suchas Scaling, Filing, Plugging, Sc., qr will restore the loss of them, by inserting Artificial Teeth, from a single Tooth, to a full sett. Tolke on Pittstreet, a few doors South of the Railroad Hotel.

N. B. Dr. Loomis will be absent from Carlials the last tend was in most present. lisle the last tend ays, in each month.

BENRY EDGAR REENE,

ATTORNEY AT LAW. WILL practice in the several Courts of Cumberland and the adjoining counties and atond to all professional business entrusted to his care with promptness and fidelity.

Office in South Hanover street, in Graham's new building, apposite the Post Office.

Carlisle, August 26, 846..-y...

S. DUNLAP ADAIR, Attorney at Law. OFFICE in South Hanover street, a few door below J. H. Graham, Esq.

DENTISTRY, &C. JOHN W. HENDEL,

TOHIN W. RENDER,

RESPECTFULLY interms the public, that living opened an office in South Handverstreet, nearly opposite the Few Otherete is prepared to practice DENTISTRY in all its brunches. Good Teeth are essential to health, besides ostural or artificial ones are not only useful but manamental, and add maternally to the confort of the wearer. It need not be stated what can be office to the teeth, suffice it to say that every defect can be remedied, and new-Teeth furnished from a single one to an entire set.—Having had consided be practice for a number of years, good references will be given to such as require them, but the best proof is the observation, which will in all ases be performed in the most caveful manner and at prices to suit the occasion and the times. Persons waited on at their residences, either in town or country, without extra charge. He may always be found at his office, as above, or at his residence in Pitt street, onedoor north of Headel's Livery Stable.

Livery Stable.

He will dso promptly attend to the repairing of Watelies and Jewelry, a Lhis office in South Hanver street. Also, ENGRAVING neatly execution of his work; he hopes to receive and hereby solicits a share of public patronage.
Carliale, April 8, 846.

HARRIS, TURNER, & IRVIN WHOLESALE DRUGGISTS. No. 201 Market Street, PHILADELPHIA Importers and Wholesale Dealers

N Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, Patent Med-A Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, Patent Medi-icines, Surgical and Obstetrical Instruments; uggists Glassware, Window Glass, Paints, Oils es, Perfumery, Ko. &c. Druggists, Country Merchants, and Physicians uplied with the above articles on the most favorable terms. Strict and prompt attention paid to orders. Every article warranted.

John Harris, M. P. James A. Touver, lately markable, that it called both mare than once under the control of the contro of Virginia. WILLIAM IRVIN, M. D. Philadelphia, Sept. 30. 846. — y.

THE MANSION HOUSE HOTEL Fronting on the Cumberland Valley Rail Road

CARLISLE, PA. ATELY kept by Gen. Willis Foulk, has just been taken by the subscriber. It is newly furnished and has been thoroughly repaired. Passengers in the cars, strangers, travellers and visiters to Carlisle, are invited to call.

Terms moderate, and every attention paid to the comfort fur conference of these who to the comfort and convenience of those who

J. A. WINROTT. Carlisle, April 16, 1845.

patronize the establishment.

J. P. HARPER. *KOTEVÆUB

FFERS his services to the public. Having had several years experience withhis Father, and having in his possession the valuable collection of papers made by him, he hopes by care and punctuality to obtain a share of public patronage.
Office in the public square, immediately in the rear of the Court House.

Carlisle.oct 21

DYEING & SCOURING.

WILLIAM BULLING M LOUTHER STREET, near the College dyes Ladies and Gentlemen's apparel, all colors, and warrants all work to be satisfactory. Orders in his line respectfully solicited. Carlisle, September 2, 1846

Herald & Espositor

PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY.

FFICE in the South West unple of the publi inre, back of the Court-House TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

One Dotter and Fifty centers year in Advance. Two Dollars, if pult within the year. Due Dollar for six mouths. These terms will be rigidly adhered to. RATES OF ADVERTISING, Advertisements, making fifteen lines or less, will be harged at the rate of Ffly cents for one insertion,—hree times for One. Dollar, and twenty-five cents for very subsequent insertion. Yearly advertisers will be tharged at the following rates: One Column, with the paper, for one year, falfa column, do.

You Squares, with quarterly changes, Business Cards, with the paper, JOB PRINTING, OF EVERY DESCRIPTION. Handbills, Blanks, Circulars and every oth cription of Printing, executed housomely arously, and at the LOWEST PRICES.

Address llaneous,

THE WINTER TIME. BY GOODWIN BARMEY,

This is now the winter time,
My metry gentlemen!
Yule legs are burning in your hall:
Fair furns are circling in the hall;
And cups are filled with purple wine,
To nid the pudding and the chine,
This is now the winter time;
Remember, centles, then,
That none shall starve while you shall dine;
that none shall thirst who grow the wine;
Yet give no alous in mean award,
But spread the just, list who grow the Wine;
This is now the winter time;
My noble gentlemen!

This is now the winter time. This is now the winter time.

My reverend clergymen!
Christ came to save in winter time.
And not in summer's sultry-prime;
And the your pattern sure must be
When glows with red the holly tree.
This is now the winter time:
Remember, clerks, adt, then,
That Christ, in winter, came to save,
Not only souls, but hodies brave;
The bread His body, and the wine
His blood: then sprend the feast divine.
This is now the winter time,
My Christian clergymen!

This is now the winter time,
My housest workingmen !eWeave truth with trust," ye weavers, then;
And "draw straight furrows," firming men;
And syith good grace and no hard knocks,
'Take justice for a Christmas box.
'This is now the winter time;
Remember, workers, then,
That none shall starve while others have;
That Christ in winter came to save;
And, but in no alms-taking way,
Accept your rights on. New Year's Day!
This is stow the winter time,
My gallant working men;

The flower beheld the star above, 'And longed to reach its airy love, But longed in vain. A dew-drop fell huo the rich and fragrant bell, And then the star was imaged there, As though it dropped from upper air, And glancing down from the even had con To seek on earth a kindlier home.

Said Walker to Marcy, "why did you pick Old Rough and Ready our foes to lick?" This answer was made without hasitation I much need a Taylor when I serve State or No

NAPOLEON IN HIS YOUTH. ANTUNPUBLISHED ANECDOTE.

Although Bonaparte was not perfect, yet his faults were those of a nature noble and generous, and rarely, if ever, merged into vices. I knew him at that age when the passions habitually govern the reason with tyranny, and I can well attest that he always vermastered his. The seriousness of Bonaparte was so the banterings of his young companions; but he was not of a character either to submit to but I feel the want of a confidante, as at this rudeness, or become piqued at a well intentioned joke: but if they in their mirth o'er order; thus, the young Lieutenant never allowed himself to be made the butt of their raillery—and those much older than he was and of a much more elevated station, would cringe before the cold dignity of his look. Bonaparte was fond of literature and science, and his favorite authors were those of the most reflective and philosophic, and when he wished to give himself up to dreams of imagination, he read Ossian. He would have certainly read Byron with delight. He have certainly feat by ron with dengny. He par i ularly disliked all species of affectation. He expressed his opinions briefly a d intrepidly; even his love letters were short, and said a great deal in a few words, but these words were so energetic that they contained as many thoughts in one line, as others would convey in a whole page.

Bonaparie was a dreamer, and of a very romantic turn of mind. I have seen him emain immovable for a considerable time, with his eyes raised to heaven, at the close of a beauteous and quiet Italian evening; and this man. so determined, whose mi was occupied with great daring, and, noble projects—this wonderful man was yet alive to all the most intense delicacy of affection; and I have seen him in after years; each night 'ore he retired to rest; place the picture. of his wife under his pillow, and even to the last year of his life, he preserved this sentimental disposition; and when he was Em-ushing through the tree, the white folds of Often:have I seen him slop in some corner of the park of Mulmaison, to listen to Rueil; and this man whom they have dared to accuse of being but a comedian in religious matters this man abominated infidelity or matters—this, man abominated; infidently or sceptishm on any point, and despised women thoroughly, who had no intense religious feelings. He used to say that Italian ladies had at least this advantage over the French, that they no sconer cried than they repented and that they wally tell the remoise is french.

woman only knows through rom uces or the triple at the tri

ued, striking his hand upon his brow, "I have here something that occupies me above all things clse.

Bonaparie was, however, of that organi-zation to teel particularly the power of woman. One evening he stopped before me, and said with peculiar gravity of voice: "Luis, I am in love."
"In love." I repeated.

"Yes, and deeply, too, with a little girl who lives in a small house behind the ramparts. She has nothing but her beauty, which is most striking. She possesses, besides, a fine mind, full of intelligence, and I have pussed hours listening to her, and looking with influence. ing with intense admiration at her soft and witching brown eyes, and her round and graceful form; and above all, she has the most exquisite hands and feet I ever saw."

'And she doubtless loves you?"
"Yes, she does, as Italians only can love; for she is a Florentine; she loves without measure, without reason, and without affectation; not us highborn women love, for they first-practice their tender glances in a mirror, and to assure themselves that they are presidible

"She would be a charming mistress for means with me, for she has given me her confidence. The other evening, after having sent the girl away, she said to me, "Bonaparie, you love my: daughter, Naddi?" I answered not; and she repeated the question of Do you not love Naddi? Then you must not come main here or if you do. not come again here, or if you do, you must achieved great and noble actions-and I shall pelieve great and noble actions—and I shail pelieve grou—that you will respect my child, and not induce her to take any step that would subvert the lessons of morality and wisdom-which I have toiled to impress upon her. She has nothing to depend upon but the labor of my hands, as her own are as yet rumskilde in industry. And for me, and the cruel alienation of his father, thus I would at least insure him this downs, that his daying. least insure him this dowry, that his daughter should be as pure and irrepreachable as her mother was; and that, although her po-sition was humble, her virtue be unblemished. And I tell you this, moreover, that if she forgets those lessons so dearly purchased. I shall torget my Italian stiletto; therefore, do not try the girl beyond her strength. And as it is my duty to remove her from danger you must, therefore, either absent yourself, or swear solemnly, as I shall dictate to you." "I have sworn." continued Bonaparte; and, in fact, I no longer wish to see Nadd; I no longer seek her, but have endeavored to avoid all contact with her in the absence of ier mother. But I am miserable and nappy." For several, days Bonaparte was full of care and sudness. At length he asked what I thought of marrying stiely for love.

"That all depends upon circumstances. I replied—"If a man has no ambition, it is a happy destiny; but he who has ambition such as you possess should never make a love match, for by that step he cuts away he ladder by which he can alone ascend to any height." "True. True," he said, "very true I was two days without seeing her. The third she wrote to me praying that I would go and see her, as she was very ill-very ill. Well, I

"I like not speaking of myselt" he contin-ned, "and above all, on those subjects particular moment I feel rather miserable,"
"When I called upon Naddi, the widow stepped their prescribed bounds, his calm and dignified look soon recalled them to order; thus, the young Lieutenant never almadly attached to me. For a considerable time I kept at the other end of the apartment replying briefly to her charming and inno-cent railery; but suddenly she began to weep and reproach me for my indifference, I endeavored to console her, and in my excite-ment promised everything, even to devote my life to her happiness, when Naddi, ising from her seat with dignity, laid her hand upon the hilt of my sword, emphatically exolaimed, "swear by that you will make me your wife." A cold shudder passed through my frame, the bright and ambitious dreams passed vividly before my eyes, I saw my madness, and happily had strength enough to be honest, and I answered her I could no

"These devils of women," continued the young Napoleon, "stop at nothing when they once love. Nothwithstanding my refusal she continued her endearments; but quickly disengaging myself, I had the courage to rush from her presence. A few steps from the house I encountered her mo her, to whom I related all. She thanked me with gratitude nd entreated the never to see Naddi again. "I know" she "continued, that I am doo ming my poor child to misery, but I cannot help it, if she remains here she will die; but it I could return to Flerence, the joirney, and the new scenes shell would sencounter might effect her cure."

"If you prove to meth Land, "that you teally approve of my conduct, and esteem me as a friend, you will accept from me, what will enable you to return to Florence. But you must not tell. Naddi to chase me altogether from her heart. Oh! Lnie, if you had seen how she grasped my hand, and looked her tearful thanks. This morning I sent her three months pay, which I have borrowed without knowing how I shall be able to repay it."

to repay it." And yet this man, without fortune; almost in want, soon commanded the whole army, and was sealed upon a throne, which raised im even above the rank of the Emperor. I have since occasionally spoken to him of

NEW GOODS.

I HAYE, received from Puttan, and New beard him say," is but a sad 'sfid' miserable onquest."

A woman which could be provided by the provided by

The Holo Sabbath. Convention of the Friends of the Sabbath.

In pursuance of public notice, the delega e appointed in the neveral counties of Adams. Franklin, York, Perry Dauphin and Cumberland, to deliberate upon measures for the promotion of the lietter observance of the Holy Sabbath, met in Convention; in the contributions be taken as early as the second Second Presbyterian Church in Carlisle. On Sabbath in March, and forwarded to M. Buch. motion of Rev. Mr. Lillie, the Convention was temporarily organized by calling Rev. Dr. S. S. SCHMUCKER, of Gettysburg, to the ken to defray the individual expenses of the chair, and appointing Mr. E. BEATTY; of Carlisle, Secretary,

Before proceeding to business the Reverend chairman addressed the Throne of Grace

On motion of H. Dushield, Esq. a committee, composed of one from each delegation "She would be a charming mistress for you," said I, laughing.

"No truly," he replied, "this girl has a mother who has immense power over me. Her husband was of a very high family, and sacrificed all to marry her, for the girl's virtue was stronger than his inducement to en.—
The father is since dead, and the mother is indefatigable in preserving the girl upright and pure, and truly she has taken the best means with me for she has given me her ield. Ray Mr. Neight 200. officers of the Convention. 3. To appoint a committee of nine to prepare business.—
4. To appoint a committee of nine to prepare an address. 5. To appoint a committee of Finance. The following gentlemen were accordingly appointed. Messrs. Henry Duffield, Rev. Mr. Nevin, Rev. Mr. Watson, Gen. Fetter, Gen. T. C. Miller, J. B. Fulwiler, James Dever, Mr. McClellan, John Brudley, Mr. Montroppery, Rev. A. Babb. Bradley, Mr. Mentgomery, Rev. A. Babb, Joseph Wirt, John B. Coover, Jon Clendenin, Christian Harman, Robert Dunbar, W. B. Mullen, Rev. A. Sharp, A. McIlvain, H. W. Mateer, Rev. J. Ulrich, and D. Leckey, Esq. On motion of Rev. R. Emory, all friends On motion of Rev. R. Emory, all friends of the cause who may be present, but, who have not been regularly appointed delegates to the Convention, are cordially invited to take seats and participate in the proceedings of the Convention.

On motion, the Rev. Mr. Powell, agent of the State Subbath Association, was invited to address the Convention, which he did at some length, detailing many interesting facts in relation to the observance of the Sabbathday.

The committee appointed above having retired now returned and reported the following as the permanent officers of the President-Ger. THCS. C. MILLER. Vice Presidents—Rev. Mr. Heines, Rev. Mr. Owen, Rev. R. Gracy, Coll J. B. Orr. Mr. George Arnold, Gen. Fetter, John A.

WERR, Esq. Secretaries—Robt, P. McClure; Esq. A. R. Stevenson, Esq. Rev. John Ulrich, John T. Dick, John Hyer."

The same committee reported the follow Business Committee.—Rev. A. Sharp, President Emory, Rev. Mr. Gerhart, Mr. Bradley, Rev. Mr. Babb, Mr. Moore, (Newville.) Rev. Mr. Foulk, Rev. Mr. Newlin, Judge

Committee on Address .- Rev. Dr. Schmucker, Rev. Messis. Nevin. Harper, Walson, Francis Eckles, Esq. Rev. Mr. Gehr, Mr. McHvain, A. L. Coyle, Mr. Paliner.

Finance Committee .- John H. Weaver, Robert Cobean, Mr. Fulwiler, Mr. Hayes, Mr. Dunbar.

The following rules for the regulation of the Convention, were submitted by Prest, Emory and adopted. 1. This Convention shall be governed in its deliberations by common parliamentary usage.

2. No member shall speak longer than 15 minutes upon any question, without the special permission of the Convention.

planation. planation.

4. No resolution shall be received, unless reduced to writing, not opened for discussion unless presented through the business Committee, until their regular business is dispos-5. Each member who rises to speak shall be named to the Convention, by the Chairman.

Mr. Powell and adopted. Resolved .- That the Sabbath is a divine in stitution and was designed as a day of sacred rest for all people in all ages. Mr. Powell submitted the following Reso-

Resolved-That as history affords no instance of the maintenance of civil govern-ment without the prevalence among the people of some form of religion, Pagan, Jewish, Mohamuden; or Christian, and the observance of days on which the rites of their religion were celebrated, and as we may fairly infer, that any future attempt to organizo and maintain civil government on an Atheistic basis would signally fail and as the christian religion and the christian Sabbath have in various ways been inplicitly acknowl-diged-by-our-national-and-state-Governments; patriotism requires of our cit-izens a sacred observance of the Sabbath, from a regard to its influence on the stability of our civil institutions.

Pending the discussion on motion of Judge Hepburn, the Convention adjourned to reassemble at 2 o'clock, P. M. Adjourned

2 o'clock, P. M. Convention met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. C. Walson. The question eing on the resolution of Mr. Powell; offered before adjournment; it was munimously agreed to.

The Committee on business reported the following series of resolutions, which being taken up and considered separately, were disdiscursed by Messrs. Hoffman, of Carlisle, Gracy, of Chambersburg, Hepburn and Stevenson, and the first six successively, and inanimously adopted.

1. Resolved, That the Sabbath duly sanotiety, it is important to enlist the whole community in measures to secure its universal

5. Resolved, That as such united action cannot well be obtained without the employment at least for the present of Agents and Missionaries at a considerable expense, it is respectfully recommended that collections be taken in the various churches in the region represented in this convention, in which aid to this cause is not otherwise secured, and that as far as consistent with the interests of this and other benevolent societies, these ler, Treasurer of the Philadelphia Sabbath Association, Philadelphia, 6. Resolved, That a collection be now to convention—the balance it any to be paid into the treasury of the Philadelphia Sabbath

The further consideration of resolutions was suspended to heat the report of the Committee to report an address; which Committee through Dr. Schumcker, Chairman, then reported. The address being read; after remarks from Dr. S., Mr. Powell, President Emory, and Mr. Sharp, was accepted.

The remaining resolutions were taken up and remarks made by Mr. Nevin, Mr. Morris, Mr. Sharp, Mr. Thorn, Mr. Powell, Dr. Emory, Mr. McIlvaine.

- 7. Resolved. That as "the Sabbath was made for man," no class should be excluded from its benefits, and last of all, the laborer on our public thoroughtares.

8. Whereas, the transportation of the Mail on the Sabbath is in the opinion of this convention a violation of the law of God, and contrary to the usage of our colonial antestors, as well as the practice and administration of our Government, which exempts from official duty and employment its other departments on that day. And whereas, it is a frightful source of immortality in our country and materially increases the expenses of the PostOffice department now encumbered with debt. And whereas, the discontinuance of a large number of Sabbath mails has given general satisfaction, and their universal cessition would we believe meet the cordial approbation of the community represented in his convention, as well as the great majority of those engaged in the transportation of the Mails, and whereas the rest of one day in seven is a privilege as valuable to the labo-rers on our públic thoroughfares as to any

Therefore Resolved, That it be respectfully ecommended to the Post Master General direct that the Mails shall no longer be ransported on the first day of the week...

9. Resolved, That the increased attention to this subject and the consequent improvenent in the public practice, while they afford great encouragement in the prosecution of this reformation, call for more vigorous and self denying efforts on the part of the friends of this cause.

10. Whereas, early impressions are the most permanent, and whereas the family circle is the nursery for the church and state, Therefore Resolved, That it is of vital impora nereloce resoured. That it is by vital impor-tance that parents and all who have the care of youths, should inculcate upon them just views of the duty of keeping holy the Sab-bath, and form their habits, from the first, to its observance.

11. Resolved, That among Christians there is a peculiar propriety in observing, as the day of sacred rest, the first day of the week. 12. Resolved, That it is of the utmost importance that the friends of the cause should not only advocate its claims before the pub-lic, but also conform, in their practice, to their declared principles. 13. Resolved, That as it is from God alone we derive either wisdom to devise, or strength to execute, any good enterprise, we devoutly acknowledge His hand in the success which

3. No one shall speak more than once up. I has hitherto crowned our efforts, and earnest on the same resolution, unless it be for ex- ly implore a continuance of His heavenly ruidance and blessing. Before taking the question on all the resolutions an 'adjournment was moved, until 7 o'clock, P. M.

7 o'clock, P. M.

The Convention was opened with prayer man.

The following resolution was offered by Rev. Mr. Nevin. The President presented a letter directed to the convention containing the proceedings of a meeting of triends of the Sabbath held in Bedford, Feb'y 12, 1817, approving of the Convention, and appointing delegates to the same. The pro-ceedings were ordered to be read and noted on the minutes. The consideration of the resolutions was resumed, and being discussed by Mr. Newlin, Dr. Emory and Mr. Sharp, Mr. Nevin, Mr. Morris, Judge Hepture, Mr. M. Miller, Judge Hepture, Mr. Miller, Mr. Miller, Judge Hepture, Mr. Miller, Judge Hepture, Mr. Miller, Mr. Miller, Judge Hepture, Mr. Miller, Mr. Mil burn and Gen, Miller, (President,) were severally adopted, except the last, the consideration of which was suspended tempora-rily. On motion of Mr. Powell, the 8th re-solution was reconsidered to be taken in connection with a report which was then made by Mr. Andrew Blair, in behalf of a committee appointed at a former meeting of the friends of the Sabbath in Carlisle, to confer with the Cumberland Valley R. R. Company in relation to the suspension of the running of that train of cars on that road on the Sabbath, which carries the mail. Mr. Blair made known to the Convention the Smith, Peter Monyer. result of the conference with the R. R. Company. He was followed by President Emory, Rev.Mr. Thorn: Whereupon, on motion of Judge Hepburn, it yvás Resolved. That a committee of six person from each of the towns and churches represented in this convention (in the counties senten in this convention (in the counter-through which mails are now carried on the Sabbath,) be appointed by each of those bodies whose business it shall, be to provide petitions and prouve signatures to the Post Master General/requesting him to prevent the distribution of the mails in the different towns

The 8th Resolution was then adopted. The last resolution (No. 13) was then_ in the morning was adopted and ordered to be published with the minutes.

On motion of Mr. Nevin Resolved, That children of the New Park Resolved, That the sacraphore general intelligence and social virtue.

2. Resolved, That experience abundantly the object we have in view, and to moting the object we have in view, and to this end we recommend a quarterly or semi-testifies that a day of weekly rest from toil of the commendation of the sacraphore well-being and worldly proporties. That the sacraphore well-being and worldly proporties and the sacraphore well-being and the sacraphore well-bein ow state of vital godliness which is matter of complaint among all evangelical denominations, is the desceration of the private hours of the Sabbath: and that one of the most efficient means of producing a genuine and powerful revival of religion, is the filling up of the intervals between the public services, with secret and family devotions or other religious exercises. On motion of President Emory,

Resolved That this convention has learned with pleasure that the Judges of the 9th judiwith pleasure that the Judges of the 9th judicial District so arrange the business of the Court that it is not necessary for jurors, witnesses, or others to travel ou Sunday, and also that they have this day adjourned the Court that those who wished might attend this Convention: and we recommend the example to general imitation.

On motion of Mr. Powell it was Resolved-That the thanks of this Convenion be tendered to the secular and religious papers in which the call for this convention was pulished and that all such papers, and especially all the papers in the six counties here represented, be requested to publish the proceedings and address

On motion of Mr. Morris, it was Resolved, That it be recommended to hold convention similar to the present hext year; the time and place to be fixed by a committee of five appointed for that purpose. Revd's. George Morris, of Camberland, J. C. Watson of Adams, A. Nevin of Franklin, Dr. De Witt, of Dauphin, and Judge Jankin, of Perry, were appointed said committee. On motion of President Emory, Resolved-That the thanks of this Convention be given to the officers of this Conven-tion, for the skill and fidelity with which they have performed their duties, and also to the Rev. Mr. Powell, the State Agent. for his services in connection with the calling and olding of this meeting.

The thanks of the Convention were tended to the citizens of Carlisle for their hospitality and to the Trustees and officers of the 2nd Presbylerian Church, for the use of their

The Chairman of the committee appointed for that purpose reported that there were 281 names regularly enrolled as delegates; of vhom he presented the following list:

List of Delegates in Attendancei ADAMS COUNTY.

Rev. Dr. Schmucker, Revd's, J. C. Wat-Mev. Dr. Schmucker. Revd 8. J. C. Wat-son, John Ulrich, and E. V. Gerhart, A. R. Stevenson, Esq., George Armold, James Ma-jors, Robert Cobean, John Brinkenhoft, (of H.) H. Beale, W. Schmucher, and John Ma-

FRANKLIN COUNTY. Mercershurg—Rev. Thomas Creigh, Mr Phillips, John-Bradley, John-Ritchey, James C. Boyd, and J. T. Dick. Chambersburg—Revd's. A. Nevin, Gracey and McGeehan. St. Thomas-S. B. Keeper.

PERRY COUNTY.

Landishurg-Gen. Henry Fetter, Dr. J. Galbraith, John A. Line, Abraham Albert, Dr. W. E. Niblo, James L. Divin, Samuel

keson.

Bloomfield—Rev. J. M. Dickey.
Orrstoun—Col. J. B. Orr, Hugh Smith,
amuel Knisely, J. B. Devor.

Loysville—Rev. Mr. Heim, John Titssler, lobert Dunbar.

YORK COUNTY.

Monaghan.-Robert King. DAUPHIN COUNTY. Harrisburg.—J. A. Weir, Esq., Samuel W. Hays, J. R. Boyd, Alexander Sloan, W.

CUMBERLAND COUNTY. Shepherdstown. - John B. Coover, Esq. An-rew Chapman, Alexander Catheart, John lyer, Robert Bryson, Samuel Eckels, sen., ames Graham. James Graham.

Mechanicsburg John Palmer, Esq., Wm.
Peoples, Rev. Mr. Kelly, Jacob Kast, sen.,

Sulphur Spring.—Joseph Witt.

Boiling Spring.—Rev. W. C. Bennet.

Carlisle.—Rev. Messis. Emory, Gehr, Lily, Hoffman, Newlin, Kremer, McClintock, Fhorn, Crooks, Butler, Preityman, Kempher, Leity.

Loidy.

German Reformed Church.—Messrs. Thomas P. Hackett, Joseph Shrom, John Paul, John Bitner, Daniel Keller, Geo. Keller, Wm. Cordman, Jacob Sener, James Lig get Samuel Sipe, Samuel Wetzel, Jacob Leiby Dr. Baughman, Henry Wise, Adam Faler, James Long, Philip Rhoads, Henry Smith, Peter Monter

Smith, Peter Monyer.

2d. Presbyterian Church.—George H. Lyon, Esq., James Hamilton; J. H. Graham, Wm.-H. Miller, James Colwell, J. E. Bonham, Hon. Samuel Hepburn, Andrew Blair, Robert Irvine, sen., George Metzgar, M. P. Ege, R. Parker, Dr. W. L. Creigh, W. McPherson, James McCullough, Esq., Robert Givin, W. B. Murray, Jacob Fetter, Robert Clark, A. Lamberton, Johr, Elliott M. C. Payer, Irwes, 1997. through which mails are now carried on the Sabbath, be appointed by each of those bodies, whose business it shall, be to provide pelitions and procure signatures to the Post Master General requesting him to prevent the distribution of the mails in the different towns Holmes, Holliday, John Graham, Willthrough which it passes on the Sabbath day.

and Granam, as Donayan, Andiswatter, and and Methodist Episcopal Church.—Jacob Squire, Esq., Prois Calitwell, Sutler and Allen, W. D. Seymour, J. Gallaher, N. Hantch, C. Bell, George, W. Rhieem, Rotert Moore, Thomas H. Criswell, J. McCaffrey, George R. Crooks, J. John Phillips, J. W. Eby, George Sanderson, M. Matthews, Jacob Hoffer, I. Todd, and social virtue.

2. Resolved, That experience abundantly tealines that a daylo weekly rest from told united. This end we recommend a quarterly or somition meeting of evangelical ciristians in all our villages and townships where worldly proporty.

3. Resolved, That the sacred observance of the Sabbath and community is essential to the Sabbath and community is essential to the prospectity and prevalence of the factors of the different churches, shall present in rotation on the subject of the Sabbath.

3. Resolved, That the sacred observance of the churches, shall present in rotation on the subject of the Sabbath.

3. Resolved, That the sacred observance of the many in the sabbath and appropriate the subject of the Sabbath.

4. Resolved, That the sacred observance of the many in the sabbath and the prospectity and prevalence of the many in the sabbath and the individual depends largely consistencies which in these days dishoner.

Newville.—Rev. Messrs. A. Sharp, Bridenibaugh, and McCahran, Messrs. E. A. Brady; John Waggoner, John Moore, J. C. Williams, Andrew L. Coyle, Dr. Archibald Ruskin, Dr. James R. Irvine, Dr. James Hannon, James Davidson, Samuel Irvine, Jacob Iligh, Wm. McCord, Col. John Hood, Wm. Ker, Jacob King, Thomas A. McKithley; George Lightner, D. Rhin, Samuel McKeellan, John McKeehan, Col. James Woodburg, Scott Coyle, George Rea. William M. Glenn, James Reed, Joseph McDermond, A. J. North.

J. North. Shippensburg.—Rev. Messrs. Harper, Moody and Owens, J. Foulke, Robert P. Mc-Chire, John Fulwiler, Benjamin Snodgrass, William Relin, Joseph Hock, and Mr. Mont-gomety.

Frankford.—Wi,liam Bloser, Paul Randolph, George Dicenbabgh, George Earnest
Samuel Tory, William Sanders, John Mc
Dowell, David Bloser, Daniel Leckey, Esq.

Motin Rock.—A. McIlvaine, Thomas Mc-

Dickinson.-Gen. Thomas C. Miller.

Papertown.—William B. Mullin. Kingstown.—Géorge Beltzhoover, Jacob Harman, C. B. Harman, George Longdorff. Silver Spring.—Rev. George Morris, Fran-ris Eckels, David Clark, H. W. Mateer. G. H. Bucher, Samuel Eckels, John Clendenin Rev. O. S. PHHEII agent for Philadelphia Sabbath Society.

Convention adjourned after prayer by the Rev. Mr. Gere. Adjourned sine die.

HASTY INTERMENT.—The French Journals HASTY INTERMENT.—The French Journals abound instances, of a too hasty interment after apparent death. Le Rhone, a provincial journal, announces a case of hasty burial at Cluney. A stone cutter had been buried alive, and the sound of the earth as it fell bif his coffin awoke him from his lethargic sleep. The impression produced by this event was so great as to overturn the reason of the sufferer, who animated by supernatural strength so great as to overturn the reason of the sufferer, who animated by supernatural strength burst open the coffin-and fled from the cemetry. He was overtaken only with great difficulty, after having been pursued a great distance. The Journal de Bordeaux apnounces a similar occurrence a few, days before the above. The wile of a rich farmer of Laurac, after a short illness and apparent death, had been buried with the accustomed formality. A few hours after, the sexton death, had been buried with the accustomed formality. A few hours after, the sexton passing through the graveyard imagined he heard groaus from under the earth. He has tened to inform the curate, who ordered the grave to be opened. The woman gave signs of life but did not recover her consciousness, and owing to the britishity of the again of the owing to the brutality of the sciousness, and owing to the brutality of the superstition of the neighboring libhabitants, who refused to have her admitted into their houses, she perished before medical assistance could be rendered.

( Henry Clay made an eloquent speech in New Orleans, on the 6th, in favor of relief to Ireland. The Delta says:

to Ireland. The Delta says:

First came the matchless Orator of the West—Henry Clay. His presence kindled a perfect furor of enthusiasm in the vast assemblage. Though silvered over with the snows of seventy winters, his noble and commanding brow, and still erect figure—his flashing eye and genius beaming face, declared the orator who for a quarter of a century has filled the world with the renown of his eloquence—who has salternately held of his eloquence—who has salternately held listening Senates and applauding crowds en-chained by his transcendent eloquence, un-Robert Dunbar.

Other Places—Dr. Isaac Lefevre, John Newcomer, P. B. Smith, Henry Titzell, Jacob
Bernhisal, Samuel Shumaker, Jacob Crist,
Jacob Weibley, Joseph Tressler, Jacob Kochepderfer, Samuel Heim, William Gracey, Andrew Welsh, Daniel Foose, David Knochgaletge David Bitton John Kieler Lock that incomparable voice, still maintaining its wonted rich, varied and dulcet tones, Andrew Welsh, Dapiel Foose, David Knochenderfer, Daniel Ritter, John Kistler, Jacob Ritter, John Buttorff, George Sheaffer, John Albert, William Carl.

Landisburg—W. Rice, Parkinsom Hench, Jacob Givin. Rev. C. Linebaugh, Alexander Adams. James McClure, James A. Devor, John Keller, Jacob Shearer.

Strasburg—Daniel Gelwicks, David Over, Phillip Harper, Thomas Slighter, George. Railing, Wm. McClelland, Wm. Fetter,

STRONG CURIOSITY.—A few nights ago a well dressed person knocked at a door in Derne street. Boston, and obtained a light to look after something which he said he had lost on the side walk. Several passengers, one after another as they came along, offered to assist him in the search and asked him what he was looking for. He evaded a repolar, and conjecturing it was something valupl., and conjecturing it was something valuable, the people loitered round to see it found. After an hour's search, the man exclaimed that he had got it! "What is it?" crid several in a breath. "It's a cent, said the man, a little ashamed; I did'nt care any thing about it but I regulated to exchange any thing about it, but I wanted to see where the darn'd thing went to m

Excusages.-Whilst a regiment of volunteers were marching through Camargo, a Captain (a strict disciplinatian;) observing that one of the drums did not beat, ordered a lieutenant to enquire the reason. the fellow, on being interrogated, whispered to the lieutenant. "I have two dicks and a turkey in my drum, and the turkey is for the captain. This being whispered to the captain, he exclaimed, "why did'nt the drummer say he was, lame? I do not want, any of my men to do their duly when they are not able?

(O'L' Men or Gor." A volunteer writing from Parras, Mexico, says that he attended service in one of the Catholic Churches there, and after the Ceremonies were over, was politely invited into the accrety by the attending priest. There he and his brother officers were regaled with cigars, wine and brandy. The priest was talknive; gotal and very good company. The boys? will certainly some his church?

Warre it in Gorn. The great comprehen-Warre it is Gono—The great comprehensive truths, says President Quincy; written in letters of living light on every page of our history are these:—Human happiness has no perfect security but freedom; freedom none but virtue; virtue, none, but knowledge and neither freedom nor virtue, nor knowledge and neither freedom nor virtue, nor knowledge, has any vigor or immortal hope, except in the principles of the Christian fellician and in the sanctions of the Christian religion.

"Please sir, I don't think Mr. Dosem takes his physic regiler," said a doctor's boy the other day to his employer.

"Whyse," "Cause vy" he's gitten vell so precious

Cancer vy he's gitten vell so precious y fast President (and the first president) by fast president (and the first president) y sought to marry Will, hou seed, the frost; and the flower will led.