On account says they were cut off between Monterey and Victoria, and that all were killed. The despatches are said to have contained the whole plan of operations. Another account states that the ten dragoons had reached in safety, but that there was no doubt of the. death of Lieut. Ritchie. He was lassoed and dragged across a com field at full speed.

An officer of the Ohio Regiment, supposed to be Lient, Miller, had been murdered near Chichironi, and awfully mutilated, by the General Scott was to embark Mexicans immediately, his destination supposed to be the Island of Lobos, about 75 miles from the leanth of Looos, about. To miles from, Vera Cruz, The attack-upon Vera Cruz, it was supposed, would take place about the 1st of March. Colonet Harney, had, been sen-tenced to be reprimanded, but General Scott had remitted the sentence, and ordered him to resume duty. The news in regard to the volunteers wrecked on board the ship Ondi-aka was less favorable than was anticipated. The detachment sent to their assistant said to have been made prisoners, with all the volunteers. Capiain Magruder's forces had started for the wreck, and the whole Brigade, it was said, were to fellow. The main body of the volunteers wrecked had Captain Magruder's forces certainly not reached Tampico, and at the latest accounts from them, they were engag-ed in a coullict with a body of Mexicans far superior in numbers and equipments. The ships Statesman, Arentroe, and Culharine, were off the Bar at Tampico, on the 4th, filled with troops. The Mississippi volunteers, on board the Statesman, we a suffering terribly by sickness, and dying daily in great numbers. The New York regiment, on
