Variety.

☞There is a world of meaning in the following from an old scrap book:

If thou wishest to be wise,
Keep these words before thine eyes—
What thou speakest and how beware,
Of whom, to whom, when and where.

A New Item in a Bill.

Some forty years ago, while Jerome Bonaparte was travelling through New England, with a large suite, he stopped over night at the tavern of an avaricious old fellow in one of the beautiful villages in western Massachusetts. The landlord was an Englishman born, ultra tory in his feelings; and when he heard in the morning, that he was to have no less a person than a brother of the great Napoleon, with an extensive retinue, for his guest at night, his joy knew no bounds.—Extra servants were employed in all the rooms, clean sheets were put upon the beds, chickens and turkeys were run down, and had their necks rung—in short, every preparation was made to give the prince a reception becoming his high rank.

Night finally came, and with it came Jerome Bonaparte, with some twenty friends and servants. Here was a windfall for the old tavern-keeper—here was business for him. Supper was soon served; the distinguished guests went to bed at an early hour; next morning breakfast was prepared, swallowed, and soon after everything was arranged for their departure. There was one very important duty still to be performed by the tavern-keeper—the making out of the bill. Such customers were scarce—Bonaparte seldom visited that section of the country—and Boniface was determined to make the most of the present visit. He got along remarkably well with the bill until he had run up to $75. This was not enough. The landlord could not think of letting the brother of the greatest man of the age off short of $100. He figured it over again, added a little here, and put another "extra" there, but it only amounted to $80.

"The bill! the bill!" was shouted in his ears, but the bill was not right as he viewed it. All was bustle and confusion. The French servants were chattering and bustling about, the carriages were ready to start, and nothing was wanting but the bill.

"Why for you no make de bill?" asked the cashier of the party.

"In one minute," replied the landlord, scratching his head.

"By gar, you make him quick, or me no pay," continued the Frenchman.

Suddenly a thought struck him. Amid the unwonted clatter, jabber and din about his ears, he reflected that he should turn all the extra noise and confusion the visit had occasioned, to some account. The "item" he had so long sought to conjure up was at length found, and he immediately furnished the bill with—

"To making a d—— fuss generally, $20."

The paymaster glanced at the amount—paid the bill, and was off instanter. Whether Jerome Bonaparte ever found out that he had paid $20 for making a d—— fuss generally about a Yankee tavern keeper's house, is more than we can say, but if ever Basil Hall Fiddler, or Mrs. Trollope should get hold of this story they may rely upon its authenticity.

A YANKEE PEDLAR.—"See here, Mister, don't yon went tew buy somethin' in my line tew day? I've got a new machine for picking bones out of fishes. Now I tell it's a leetle the darndest thing you ever did see. Science, you know, is great, and the Atlantic Ocean is great, and the whale is great, but science is greater than all of them; its bigger than a meetin' house; it takes in all things; it explains parables, and will tell you where to find the gizzard in a codfish. Well now he people all thought that are was somethin wonderful, but I tell you this here machine for pickin' bones out of fishes, beats anythin there is goin'. All you have tew do, is to set it on the table, and turn a crank, and the fish flies right down your throat, and the bones t'other way. Wall there was a country 'greenhorn' got hold on it t'other day, and he got a turnin the crank the wrong way, and I tell you, the way the bones flew down that are feller's throat could't be beat; why it stuck the feller so full of bones, that he could'nt get his shirt off for a hull week."

KNOWLEDGE IS POWER.—While a worthy individual was "laying down the law" the other day to a knot of his acquaintances, he caught the eye of a carter hard by, who had been vainly endeavoring to raise a sack of potatoes to his cart, and who appealed to the man of knowledge—"Come, awa' Mr.—knowledge is power, you ken—gie us a lift on wi' this pock o' taties."

A STRONG SMELL.—"You say this was a very strong smell," remarked an attorney of the defendant to a witness.

"Yas, so much strong as I never shmelt," answered he.

"Well, tell the jury how strong that smell was," continued the counsel.

"It vash so strong as dake an ox by de horns and tumble him on de shmell."

☞It is stated that the segars smoked in the United States amount to $10,000,000 annually. This expense, great as it is, is incurred by boys and young men principally, and would support fifty thousand of their number in the process of obtaining a liberal education, at $200 per annum!

Read the following testimony to the value of the above medicine, from a well known citizen of Cumberland county.

DICKINSON TOWNSHIP, Nov. 20, 1847.

About six years since, in consequence of the sedentary nature of my business, I was attacked with severe pains in the breast, palpitation of the heart and shortness of breath which were soon followed by a failure of appetite, extreme wakefulness at night, and patial paralysis of my limbs—these symptoms of a deranged system being frequently attended with spitting of blood. For about two years I was also occasionally thrown into convulsions which left me in a miserable state of feebleness and began to affect my mind. From time to time my sufferings were more or less severe until at length they increased to such a degree, and the violence of the symptoms were so augmented, that for a whole year I was unable to attend to any business. During this time I consulted some able physicians and attended to their prescriptions; but all their skill was unavailing to procure me relief, and at length they regarded my recovery as entirely hopeless. In this condition I was informed of the salutary effects of Thomson's Compound Syrup of Tar and Wood Naphtha, in a case somewhat similar to mine, and though I had given up all expectations of a recovery of my former health by human means, yet being strongly advised to try the medicine, I was at length prevailed upon to do so, and I have now to say, that by the use of six bottles my health has been restored, and I am now able to attend to business with as much facility as usual.

'GARLEGAN'S BALSAM OF HEALTH.'

An Approved Remedy for Dyspepsia, Colics &c., &c.

THERE are two reasons why this medicine can be recommended to the public,—one is, that most persons who have so right it buy itagain, thereby showing that they regard it as a valuable Family medicine; the other is that certificates are in the possession of the Proprietor of permanent cures having been effected not only in persons afflicted for a short time, but also in cases of long standing

It is composed altogether of a vegetable matter, is perfectly harmless, can be taken at all times, and is no hindrance to business. It restores and revives the animal spirits, cleanses the stomach from all morbid humors which cause indigestion and acidities. It also removes nervous tremors, rhumatic pains, and prevents their return; cures all colics of the stomachs and bowels almost immediately takes away palpitation of the heart, and promotes the free circulation of the blood.

The direction accompanying each bottle contains a number of certificates one of which is given in this advertisement.

DEAR SIR:—about two years ago I was severely afflicted with dispepsia, which I had for the last fifteen years previous to the above named time, which was very much increased by my having a blood vessel ruptured upon my lungs, occasioned by lifting—which increased my complaint, dispepsia and general debility and weakness, to such a decree, that two or three years previous to my using the Garlegant's Balsam, I never ate a meal but my stomach became so painful that I had immediately to throw it up. Seeing Garlegant's Balsam advertised I was induced to try a bottle; after taken the very first dose it appeared to strengthen my stomach, and every dose of the first bottle helped me so much that in the course of a few days my stomach began to retain and digest every thing I ate. I continued to use the Balsam until I used several bottles, which cured me entirely, and restored me to perfect health, which I have enjoyed ever since, and not before for fifteen years. I cheerfully commend it to all persons who are afected with dispepsia or debility of stomach.

DR. LE ROY'S VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL PILLS.

THE only known medicine that at the same time purges, purifies, and strengthens the system. Dr. Le Roy's Pill are a new medicine which has just appeared, and is fast taking the places of all others of the same class. These pills are composed of many ingredients, but the two principal ones are Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry, so united that they act together; the one through its admixture with other substances, purifying and purging, while the other is strengthening the system. Thus those pills are at the same time tonic and opening, a deideratum long and eagerly sought for by medical men, but never before discovered. In other words they do the work of two medicines, and do it much better than any two we know of; for they removes nothing from the system but the impurities, so that while they purge they strengthen, and hence they cause no debilitation, and are followed by no reaction. Dr. Le Roy's Pills have a wonderful influence on the blood; they not only purify without weakening it, but they remove all noxious particles from the chyle before it is converted into fluid, and thus make impure blood an utter impossibility. As there is no debilitation, so there is no nausea or sickness attending the operation of this most excellent of medicines, which never strains or tortures the digestive functions, but causes them to work in a perfectly natural manner; and hence persons taken them do not become pale and emaciated, but the contrary, for while it is the property of the Sarsaparilla, united as it is with other ingredients, to remove all that is foreign and impure, it is equally the property of the Wild Cherry to retain all that is natural and sound; and hence a robust state of health is the certain result of their united operations.

Medicines,

Dr. Wood's Sarsaparilla & Wild Cherry Bitters.

ARE an infallible Medicine for Dyspepsia or Indigestion, the universal complaint, Headache, Depression of Spirits, Pimples and Pustules on the face, Habitual Costiveness, Rheumatism, Affections of the Bladder and Kidneys, Bilious Fevers, &c. It is a perfect preventative of Bilious and Western Fevers, and the best remedy ever used in restoring the patient, after being prostrated by Fever, &c. Erysipelas, Enlargement of the Bones, Fever and Ague, Flatulency, Foulness of Complexion, General Debility, for general prostration, caused by disease, medicine, or indiscretions committed in youth, aberration of mind, confusion of ideas, loss of memory, dimness of vision, a hopeless expression of countenance; and for this class of disease generally, this medicine has never had its equal. Gout, Giddiness, Gravel, Impure Blood, Jaundice; Loss of Appetite; Liver Complaint; Leprosy; Looseness.

MERCURIAL DISEASES.—Never fails to eradicate entirely, all the effects of Mercury infinitely sooner than any other medicine. Night Sweats; Nervous Debility; Nervous Complaints of all kinds; Neuralgia; Organic Affections; Palpitation of the Heart; Painter's Cholic, Pains in the head, side, back, limbs, joints and organs; Rush of blood to the head; Scurvy; Salt Rheum; Swellings; sick Headache; Stiffness of the Joints; Scorfula or King's Evil; Syphilis in its worst forms; Ulcers of every description, and the Erysipelas; Exposure and Imprudence in Life.

FEMALE COMPAINLTS.—Ladesi of pale complexion and consumptive habits, and such as are debilitated by those obstructions which females are liable to, are restored by the use of a bottle or two to bloom and vigor. It is by far the best remedy ever discovered for weakly children, and such as have had humors, being pleasant they readily take it. It immediately restores the appetite, strength and color.

Nothing can be more surprising than its invigorating effects on the human frame. Persons, all weakness and lassitude before taking it, at once become robust and full of energy under its influence. It immediately counteracts the nervelessness of the human frame, which is the great cause barrenness.

The following are some of the certificates and complimentary notices that have been received by the proprietor of the efficacy of this medicine.

Mr. Philip Wilcox, of the well known firm of Wilcox & Richmond, shipwrights, of New Bedford, was entirely cured of a confirmed canker of the stomach, throat and mouth, with sore lips usually accompanying this disease, and his general health much improved by the use of only one bottle. Mr. Wilcox has suffered severely for a number of years with this disease, and attributes his cure entirely to the use of the Bitters.

Col. John Bayliss, Deputy Sheriff of Bristol county, Mass., has voluntarily certified that he was cured by the Bitters, of Jaundice, Indigestion, Headache and Vertigo.

Col. Gibbs, of Sandwich, testifies that several persons in that town, well known to him, have been benefitted by the use of the Bitters, and in every case they have given the most perfect satisfaction.

J. R. Perkins, Esq. Attorney at Law, of New Bedford, was cured of an unpleasant eruption of the face, by the use of the Bitters.

[From the Daily Evening Bulletin.]

It is not our custom to puff Patent Medicines unless we know them to be really excellent.—Having ourselves a knowledge of Dr. Wood's Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry Bitters, and having several friends who have been benefitted by their use, we do not hesitate to recommend them to the public. Both Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry are articles of established reputation in the medical world, and this preparation is made with great care and appears to combine all the medicinal qualities of both in an unusual manner. For sale by the proprietor, E. Thornton, Jr. Water street, and by the Druggists generally. Any one suffering from diseases of the blood, indigestion, or headache, would do well to give these Bitters a trial.

1000 PERSONS in Philadelphia alone can testify to the wonderful efficacy of that powerful remedy THOMPSON'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF TAR AND WOOD NAPTHA Read! Read! Astonishing cure of Chronic Bronchitis!

Philadelphia, May 23, 1844.

Mr. S THOMPSON—Dear Sir: For more that four years past I had been dreadfully afflicted with an affectio nof the throat, which my physician pronounced "Chronic Bronchitis," caused by repeated and neglected colds. The distress suffered is indescribable. My throat was litterally raw with violent coughing, so that blood would come from it; also great oppression, pain and tightness at the chest ann fever;—in short all the usual pulmonary symptoms showed themselves, showed themselves, causing entire loss of necessary repose—my throat was leached and blistered over and over again. I made trial of every known remedy, and at different periods had the advice of six physicians, and all with no avail. About two months since I made trial of your Compound Syrup of Tar and Wood Naptha, and before I had taken the first bottle I felt relief. I continued until I had taken seven bottles, which completely removed the disease and restored me to perfect health, and I firmly believe I should not now be living, had it not been for your invaluable medicine. MAP OF

PENNSYLVANIA, NEW JERSEY & DELAWARE

Compiled from the Latest Authorities.

PUBLISHED BY S. AUGUSTUS MITCHELL, 1847.

SOLD by Messrs THOMAS COWPERSWAIT & CO, No. 253 Market street, and S. AUGUSTUS MITCHELL, N. E. corner of Seventh and Market streets Philadelphia.

This is a very handsome Map, well engraved and colored, and neatly mounted on rollers It presents very distinctly the natural features, as well as the cities, towns, villages, roads and civil divisions of the three States, and contains enlarged plans of Philadelphia, Pittsburg and Lancaster, with their vicinities, and of the principal coal regions, and the route designated for the Central Railroad is marked with dotted lines. Next to the study of Geography in school, the use of maps for reference, has the greatest tendency to diffuse accurate geographical knowledge; and as this map is well suited for general use, and furnished at the moderate sum of $1 50, we should be glad to see one placed in every house in the region to which it relates.
