THE LAST SIXPENCE.

Were you ever in Lancaster!—not the noted town of that name in the Key-Stone State, but its less celebrated namesake, the good old town of Lancaster, Ohio. If you have not seen this village on the banks of the romantic Hocking, you have never been gratified with a sight of one of the prettiest country towns of the Buckeye State. In addition, if you have ever been there, and not stopped at the house of DAVE ROKOHL, as he is called, who is the beau ideal of a country landlord you have really missed a treat, temperance man or not. My first visit to this interesting place, was in the summer of 1834. I arrived there in the Columbus stage late in the afternoon. After having a brushing from "Jerry," which raised a considerable of a dust, I sallied out with a friend, who was on a collecting tour, to take a look at the place and see how the ground lay.

Upon returning to our quarters, we found an assemblage of hungry looking individuals awaiting the summons to supper. The crowd were soon "rung in." Being more tired than hungry, we did not join in the meal, but took time. Just as we were about preparing to follow, our attention was attracted to a hearty, honest looking native of the "Green Isle," (whose face and merry twinkle of his eye were the indication of mirthfulness,) who entered and deposited his shillalah, with "a very good evening to you Sir. Rokohl!—its a fine house house I understand you keep, Mr. Rokohl!—and I'd be afther stayin' the night wid ye," all of which was said in that bland and insinuating manner, characteristic of the boys who have kissed the blarney stone! approaching the bar, he called for a wee drap of the "crathur," to wash down the cobwebs, as he termed it. Supper lodging and breakfast followed of course, our hero the while, repeating, "a very good house you keep, Mr Rokohl," and reiterating the promise to spak a good word for him all along the road. His free and easy orders were of course taken as an indication that he had the "tin" to back them. Calling for his bundle and stick, he rumaged his pockets as if searching for the liquidating his score. He succeeded only in chasing up a solitary sixpence, which he laid down with an inimitably comic leer, and the following speech to match—

"I is sorry I am that that's all I'm able to pay ye for your nice entertainment, Mr. Rokohl,—for its a fine house ye keep, Mr. Rokohl—an' you've treated me like a gintleman as ye are yourself, Mr Rokoh'—but the fact is Mr. Rokohl, when I left swate Ireland my father, (Heaven rest his soul,) gave me an hundred pounds, saying, 'Larry, my lad, that'll take ye over the water, where praties are plenty and whiskey's cheap: but mind ye, don't be making a stingy spalpeen of yourself, but live well till its down to the last sixpence,' and I've done so, and that's it, Mr. Rokohl. I'll owe ye the balance, Mr. Rokohl, and hope you'll get it, Mr. Rokohl. Good day to you, Mr. Rokohl. I'll spake a good word for you all along the road, Mr. Rokohl.

Davey looked both puzled and amused, but tipping me the wink, I being the sole witness of the scene, bade his customer good morning, and invited him cordially to stop, if he ever came within a mile of the place.

Begging me to keep dark he told me he would have some fun out of the fellow yet. Asked me if I would like to see something of the country in the vicinity, which was of course accepted,—in a few minutes our horse and buggy was at the door. Driving out the Chilicothe road we soon overhauled our friend. Now, be it known that there was as much of rivalry between the two leading hotels of Lancaster, as between the houses "York and Lancaster," in times gone by.

Our Irishman greeted us with a good-natured smile, and a "How are ye gintleman?" to which Davy responded, "Look here my friend, I'm not after any more sixpences, but want you to do me a favor. Now, I want you to come back to town to night, and play that same trick on Col. Watson, who keeps the other hotel." The Hibernian looked rather disconcerted for a moment, but regaining his composure, he added with a hearty laugh:

"I is a fine house you keep, Mr. Rokohl, and I'll spake a good word for ye all along the road, but I'm afraid I can't oblige you in this particular, Col Watson might remember me too well, as he got me to play the trick on you!"

Davy wheeled about and we went back to town with a perfect rush, while the son of the Green Isle went on his way rejoicing.

"VAT'S DE MATTER.—Vat's de matter, exclaimed an old Dutch friend of ours, as he tucked up his apron and ran out of his shop to know the meaning of a crowd in his neighborhood; vat's de matter?"

"There is a man killed, replied a bystander.

"Oh, ish dat all?" said our friend evidently disappointed, "I dought all shoost a mad bull, or sumpin, I tho't it was a fight."

"What's the matter Cæsar?"

"Nothing sir, but I struck him back, Cæsar!"

"No, Cæsar, but I struck him head!"

Medicines.

To the Sick and Afflicted.

LET all those who are CONSUMPTIVE, or afflicted with Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Spitting Blood, Pain in the side or Breast, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Palpitation of the Heart, Whooping Cough, Liver Complaints, &c., remember that it is

THOMPSON'S Compound SYRUP OF TAR & NAPTHA, that is daily effecting such wonderful cures in all these diseases—

Therefore, beware of all other mixtures that contain, or professes to contain Tar, and purchase of them only who are known not to deal in Spurious articles.

Read the following testimony to the value of the above medicine, from a well known citizen of Cumberland county.

DICKINSON TOWNSHIP, Nov. 20, 1847.

About six years since, in consequence of the sedentary nature of my business, I was attacked with severe pains in the breast, palpitation of the heart and shortness of breath which were soon followed by a failure of appetite, extreme wakefulness at night, and patial paralysis of my limbs—these symptoms of a deranged system being frequently attended with spitting of blood. For about two years I was also occasionally thrown into convulsions which left me in a miserable state of feebleness and began to affect my mind. From time to time my sufferings were more or less severe until at length they increased to such a degree, and the violence of the symptoms were so augmented, that for a whole year I was unable to attend to attend to any business. During this time I consulted some able physicians and attended to their prescriptions; but all their skill was unavailing to procure me relief, and at length they regarded my recovery as entirely hopeless. In this condition I was informed of the salutary effects of Thomson's Compound Syrup of Tar and Wood Naphtha, in a case somewhat similar to mine, and though I had given up all expectations of a recovery of my former health by human means, yet being strongly advised to try the medicine, I was at length prevailed upon to do so, and I have now to say, that by the use of six bottles my health has been restored, and I am now able to attend to business with as much facility as usual.

'GARLEGAN'S BALSAM OF HEALTH!

An Approved Remedy for Dyspepsia, Colics &c. &c.

THE two reasons, why this medicine is to be recommended to the public, are—in the first place most persons who have occasion to buy it again, thereby showing that they regard it as a valuable Family medicine; the other is that certificates are in the possession of the Proprietor of permanent cures having been effected not only in persons afflicted for a short time, but also in cases of long standing.

It is composed altogether of a vegetable matter, is perfectly harmless, can be taken at all times, and is no hindrance to business. It restores and revives the animal spirits, cleanses the stomach from all morbid humors which cause indigestion and acidities. It also removes nervous tremors, rhumatic pains, and prevents their return; cures all colics of the stomachs and bowels almost immediately takes away palpitation of the heart, and promotes the free circulation of the blood.

The direction accompanying each bottle contains a number of certificates one of which is given in this advertisement.

DEAR SIR:—About two years ago I was severely afflicted with dispepsia, which I had for the last fifteen years previous to the above named time, which was very much increased by my having a blood vessel ruptured upon my lungs, occasioned by lifting—which increased my complaint, dispepsia and general debility and weakness, to such a decree, that two or three years previous to my using the Garlegant's Balsam, I never ate a meal but my stomach became so painful that I had immediately to throw it up. Seeing Garlegant's Balsam advertised I was induced to try a bottle; after taken the very first dose it appeared to strengthen my stomach; and every dose of the first bottle helped me so much that in the course of a few days my stomach began to retain and digest every thing I ate. I continued to use the Balsam until I used several bottles, which cured me entirely, and restored me to perfect health, which I have enjoyed ever since, and not before for fifteen years. I cheerfully commend it to all persons who are afflicted with dispepsia or debility of stomach.

DR. LEROY'S VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL PILLS.

THE only known medicine that at the same time purges, purifies, and strengthens the system. Dr. Le Roy's Pills are a new medicine which has just appeared, and is fast taking the places of all others of the same class. These pills are composed of many ingredients, but the two principal ones are Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry, so united that they act together; the one through its admixture with other substances, purifying and purging, while the other is strengthening the system. Thus those pills are at the same time a tonic and opening; a desideratum long and eagerly sought for by medical men, but never before discovered. In other words they do the work of two medicines, and do it much better than any two we know of, for they remove nothing from the system but the impurities, so that while they purge they strengthen, and hence they cause no debilitation, and are followed by no reaction. Dr. Le Roy's Pills have a wonderful influence on the blood; they not only purify without weakening it, but they remove all noxious particles from the chyle before it is converted into fluid, and thus make impure blood an utter impossibility. As there is no debilitation, so there is no nausea or sickness attending the operation of this great excellent of medicines, which never strains or tortures the digestic functions, but causes them to work in a perfectly natural manner, and hence persons taken them do not become pale and emaciated, but the contrary, for while it is the property of the Sarsaparilla, united as it is with other ingredients, to remove all that is foreign and impure, it is equally the property of the Wild Cherry to retain all that is natural and sound, and hence a robust state of health is the certain result of their united operation.

Medicines.

Dr. Wood's Sarsaparilla & Wild Cherry Bitters.

ARE an infallible Medicine for Dyspepsia or Indigestion, the universal complaint, Headache, Depression of Spirits, Pimples and Fustules on the face, Habitual Costiveness, Rheumatism, Affections of the Bladder and Kidneys, Bilious Fevers. It is a perfect preventative of Bilious and Western Fevers, and the best remedy ever used in restoring the patient, after being prostrated by Fever, &c. Erysipelas, Enlargement of the Bones, Fever and Ague, Flatulency, Fairness of Complexion, General Debility, total prostration, caused by dissipation, indiscretions committed in youth, confusion of ideas, loss of memory, dimness of vision, a hopeless expression, [illegible] and for this class of disease [illegible] has never had its equal. Asthma, Gravel, Impure Blood, Jaundice, Loss of appetite; Liver Complaint; Leprosy, [illegible]

MERCURIAL DISEASES.—Never fails to eradicate entirely, all the effects of Mercury infinitely sooner than any other medicine. Night Sweats; Nervous Debility; Nervous Complaints of all kinds; Neuralgia; Organic Affections; Palpitation of the Heart; Painter's Cholic. Pains in the head, side, back, limbs, joints and organs; Rush of blood to the head; Scurvy; Salt Rheum; Swelling; sick Headache; Stiffness of the Joints; Scorbuta or King's Evil; Syphilis in its worst forms; Ulcers of every description, and the Erysipelas, Exposure and Imprudence in Life.

FEMALE COMPAINLTS.—Ladies of pale complexion and consumptive habits, and such as are debilitated by those obstructions which females are liable to, are restored by the use of a bottle or two to bloom and vigor. It is by far the best remedy ever discovered for weakly children, and such as have had humors, being pleasant they readily take it. It immediately restores the appetite, strength and color.

Nothing can be more surprising than its invigorating effects on the human frame. Persons, all weakness and lassitude before taking it, at once become robust and full of energy under its influence. It immediately counteracts the nervelessness of the human frame, which is the great cause of barrenness.

The following are some of the certificates and complimentary notices that have been received by the proprietor, of the efficacy of this medicine.

Mr. Philip Wilcox, of the well known firm of Wilcox & Richmond, shipwrights, of New Bedford, was entirely cured of a confirmed canker of the stomach, throat and mouth, with sore lips usually accompanying this disease, and his general health much improved by the use of only one bottle. Mr. Wilcox has suffered severely for a number of years with this disease, and attributes his cure entirely to the use of the Bitters.

Col. John Bayliss, Deputy Sheriff of Bristol county, Mass., has voluntarily certified that he was cured by the Bitters, of Jaundice, Indigestion, Headache and Vertigo.

Col. Gibbs, of Sandwich, testifies that several persons in that town, well known to him, have been benefitted by the use of the Bitters, and in every case they have given the most perfect satisfaction.

J. R. Perkins, Esq. Attorney at Law, of New Bedford, was cured of an unpleasant eruption of the face, by the use of the Bitters.

[From the Daily Evening Bulletin.]

It is not our custom to puff Patent Medicines unless we know them to be really excellent.—Having ourselves a knowledge of Dr. Wood's Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry Bitters, and having several friends who have been benefitted by their use, we do not hesitate to recommend them to the public. Both Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry are articles of established reputation in the medical world, and this preparation is made with great care and appears to combine all the medicinal qualities of both in an unusual manner. For sale by the proprietor, E. Thornton, Jr. Water street, and by the Druggists generally. Any one suffering from diseases of the blood, indigestion, or headache, would do well to give these Bitters a trial.

Prepared by E. Thornton, Jr. Sold Wholesale and Retail by WYATT & KETCHAM, 121 Fulton street, New York; SAMUEL ELLIOTT, Carlisle, and Druggists generally throughout the United States. Price 1$, large bottles.

Worth Often Repeating.

IN THE BOOK OF NATURE AND OF COMMON SENSE, that the natural vegetable productions of every country are, if properly applied, amply sufficient for the cure of every malady incident to each peculiar climate.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills,

of the North American College of health are composed of plants which grow spontaneously on her own soil, and are therefore better adapted to our constitutions than medicines concocted from foreign drugs, however well they may be compounded; and as they are founded upon the principles that the human body is in truth SUBJECT TO BUT ONE DISEASE, viz: corrupt humors, and that said medicine cures the disease on by cleansing and purifying the body; it will be manifest, that if the constitution be not entirely exhausted—a perseverence in their use, according to directions, is absolutely certain to drive disease of every name from the body.

When we wish to restore a swamp or morass to fertility, we drain it of the superabundant waters; in like manner if we wish to restore the body to health, we must cleanse it of impurity.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills

will be found one of the best, if not the very best medicine in the world, for carrying out this GRAND PURIFYING PRINCIPLES, because they expel from the body all morbid and corrupt humors, the cause of disease, in an easy and naturly manner; and while they every day give ease and pleasure, disease of every name is rapidly driven from the body.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.—The public are cautioned against the many spurious medicines which in order to deceive, are called by names similar to Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills.

NOTICE.

DISSOLUTION OF COPARTNERSHIP.—The copartnership heretofore existing under the name of WM. SWAIM & SON, was dissolved on the 21st day of July last, by the decease of the said William Swaim, and the business is now, and will be in future, conducted exclusively by the subscriber, who has had the sole charge of the manufacturing of the Panacea and Vermifuge for the last fourteen years.

The Panacea will be put up as usual in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—"SWAIM'S PANACEA, PHILADA," and the only change made is the name of JAS SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork, with a new label for the side of the bottle, composed of geometric lathe work, comprising three different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. Four dies of different patterns form the body of the work, and in the centre is a portrait of the late William Swaim, seperated from the borders by two circles of lathe work. The words "Swaim's Panacea," are engraved conspicuously on two turned strips, and a large semi-circular die forms the upper margin. The borders are composed of plain lathe work strips, outside of which is engraved in small letters the entry of the copy right.
