THE BARDER-BANKER .- A Washington co respondent of the N. Y. Globe tells the follow, ing anecdote of a new banker, who has been issuing notes lately:

A cunning hair-dresser in town, a native of La Belle France, took advantage of the example set by self-sty.ed "bankers, and put forth notes from six-and-a-quarter up to twenty-five cents.

One day as he was engaged in his lawful occupation of shaving a customer, a lad came somewhat abruptly into his shop, thrust forth a scrap of paper, resembling a bank note. "Aha! well, boy, vat you want, eh?" said the barber. "This' ere's one of your bills, and I want a quarter in silver for it-'cause nobody' will take it of me!!) "You want a quarter in silver, eh?-permaps you no read the paper, eh?-read him! Boy reads-"When presented in five dobanker in a half soliloguy, muttered-"Be gar! its a great thing to understand de sipance! I pay when five dollars come to but be gar! I no issue but four dollars and seventy five cente!".

A PREDICAMENT - The correspondent of The New York Herald says: "Hon. Dixon H. Lewis, we regret to say in the act of getting Into a carriage, on Pennsylvania avenue this morning, broke out the bottom of the carriage with his great weight his legs crossing o yer the coupling pole and nearly touching the ground, between the wheels, the residue of the honerable seneter being invisible inside the hack, but it was a curious spectacle to the Coutside barbarian, to see two such substantial legs sticking through the bottom, as those of the honorable Chairman of Finance.

SVEARING IN HEBREW .- Not long since as 1 was on, my way from Newark to Jersey city, in the cars I observed a young lady sitting opposite to me who seemed very much annoyed by the conversation of a young naval officer, which was continually intermingled with oaths. She at length, (having sat as long as she could without reproving him.) said, "Sir, can you converse in the Hebrew tongue, ?" He replied that he could. expecting, no doubt, to hold some conversation with her in that dialect. She then politely informed him that if he wished to the free circulation of the blood swear my more, he would greatly oblige herself and probably the rest of the passengers if he would do it in that language. The young man was silent during the remainder of the passage. Boston Gleuner.

Read the following testimony to the value of the above medicine, from a well known citizen of Cumberland county.

Dickinson Township, Nov. 20, 1847.

About six years since, in consequence of the sedeitury niture of iny business, I was attacked with severe pains in the breast, palpitation of the heart and shortness of breath which were soon followed by a failure of appetite, extreme wakefulness at night, and patial paralysis of my limbs—these symptoms of deranged system being frequently attended with spitting of blood. The following are some of the bertificates and complimentary notices that have been received by the proprietor, of the efficacy of this medicine.

Mr. Philip Wilcox, of the well-known firm of Wilcox & Richmond, shipwrights, of New Beiford, was entirely cured of a confirmed canker of the stomach, throat and mouth, with sore lips usually accompanying this disease, and his general health much improved by the use of only one bottle. Mr. Wilcox has suffered severely for a number of years with this disease, and attributes his cure entirely to the use of the Bitters.

Col. John Baylies, Daputy Sheriff, of Bristol sounty, Mass., has voluntarily certified that he was cured by the Bitters, of Jaunlice, Indigestion, Headache and Vertigo.

Col. Gibbs, of Sandwich, testiles that several persons in that town, well known to him, have been henefitted by the use of the Bitters, and in every case they lave given the most perfect satisfaction.
