

War Intelligence

Later from the City of Mexico

The New Orleans Picayune had Delta of the 26th ult. containing highly important intelligence from Mexico...

Let us fly, then, all of us, to the combat—placing ourselves under the direction of our authorities—let us fully and sincerely place in their hands our fortunes and our persons...

These are the sole means of salvation. Let us all unite. Let us unite our disorganised and our armies, army, people and priests—all form a compact mass...

Politicians! these are the words of your clergy and we shall not fail to inculcate, in the villages and towns, and from the pulpits of the capital, these grand sentiments...

The war spirit was increasing daily, and new measures constantly adopted for carrying on the war with vigor. A subscription had been taken up in the city to defray the expenses of fortifying it against the approaching army of conquest...

LATER FROM VERA CRUZ. Capture of Puebla by General Worth. Santa Anna's march on Vera Cruz.

General Worth entered Puebla on the afternoon of the 15th, after a short skirmish with a party of lancers sent out to oppose his advance.

Santa Anna was in the city at the moment, but at once left and pushed on towards the Capital. It is reported that Gen. Valencia was between Puebla and the Capital, at the head of thirteen thousand men...

The result of the Presidential election was not known. Santa Anna, Miraflores and Herrera were candidates among others.

On his return his force was fired upon and passed Miraflores, Fringillo and five men were wounded.

20 armed men, stripped of her carriage and luggage, were taken to the city of Mexico...

The report that Gen. Worth had entered Puebla is fully confirmed. No opposition was made to Worth's entrance into the second city of Mexico...

WOOD! WOOD!—A few orders of good Oak and Hickory wood will be taken at this office in payment of subscription.

President Polk has returned to Washington. He received many enthusiastic demonstrations of respect on his route.

Mr. Webster reached New York on Tuesday last, on his return from the South, much improved in health.

The election of Herrera to the Presidency of Mexico, if it proves to be correct, is regarded as favorable to Peace.

The city papers have been so often hoaxed by accounts from anonymous letter-writers of duels, fist-fights, &c., purporting to have taken place in Carlisle, that the account of a duel in this city, which was furnished in a slip, was received by them with utter incredulity.

We have verbal accounts to-day in town of a riot in Carlisle last night about some slaves. According to the report, several slaves were arrested.

We have been requested to publish for the public information, the law respecting fugitive slaves, which was enacted by the late Legislature.

The Volunteer puts forth a ticket with Santa Anna's name on for the Presidency. The Volunteer displays this ticket we suppose because Santa Anna was a particular friend of James K. Polk...

On the 28th of April, a squadron of six or eight vessels was off Mazatlan, from which a thousand men were to disembark to take the town.

General Worth received from the Brazos to the 28th ult. A letter, published in the Dallas Herald, dated May 25th, states that Gen. Taylor was actively preparing for a move, and would probably start for San Luis about the first of June...

Herald & Postscript. CARLISLE, PA. WEDNESDAY, JUNE 9, 1847.

Gen. Taylor's Politics. The recent letter of General Taylor to a gentleman in Louisiana, settles the question as to his willingness to be a candidate for the Presidency...

A Veteran Office Holder! The great cry against Gen. Irvin by the lococo leaders is, "he is RICH!" They cannot say that he is rich by dishonest means...

Here we find that Mr. Shunk has been in office for about THIRTY-TWO YEARS and received the enormous sum of over SEVENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS out of the public treasury!

We have not the slightest doubt the Baton Rouge paper gives a correct account of Gen. Taylor's opinions except in relation to the tariff in regard to which we are assured, upon authority which we deem entirely reliable...

Gen. Irvin among the People. Gen. Irvin last week paid a visit to Road and Poltsville, where he was received with every manifestation of respect by all classes and all parties...

From England. The steamer Hibernia arrived at Boston on Thursday, with Liverpool dates to the 19th ult.

The most important news brought by this arrival is information of a great advance in Flour and Indian Corn.

Politics of the Great States. Since the commencement of the war against Mexico, Mr. Polk's Congress have been held for members of Congress in our foreign States with the following result...

At the Anti-Slavery Convention recently held in Boston, Frederick Douglass, the fugitive slave, was chosen President and a white lady named Kennedy, Secretary.

Never was so much false arithmetic employed on any subject, as that which has been employed to persuade men that it is their interest to go to war.

Social Matters. Seeing that neither of our neighboring neighbors, whose papers appear on Saturdays morning, made not the slightest notice of the riotous outbreak which occurred last Wednesday our paper has been weakly, we penned a hasty description of it, which we immediately issued in the form of a slip, and forwarded to the neighboring towns...

Tumult and Riot. Our town was thrown into great commotion and excitement yesterday afternoon, by an attempt on the part of a large portion of our colored population to rescue several slaves who had been arrested as fugitives.

During the hearing a large crowd of infuriated negro men and women gathered in and about the Court House, who evinced by their violent conduct a disposition to rescue the fugitives by force.

A second attempt was made as the slaves were brought down from the Court-room to the carriage, which resulted in a serious riot. The attack was commenced at the door of the carriage, where before the slaves were got into the vehicle a general rush was made on the slave-owners and constables by the negro men and women, and a frightful melee ensued in the street...

The rescue was a bold and vigorous attempt, and although there were numerous indications of such a disposition, we believe it was not seriously apprehended by either the slave-owners or our citizens. It had been a stronger force and more precaution should have been used.

As much as the whole affair will be made the subject of legal investigation we refrain from all comments. We regret extremely that our borough has been made the scene of so disgraceful a riot, and especially that its consequences should have been so serious.

Mr. Shunk has all his life time written a good deal, and has been industrious, assiduous clerk, beyond which he, perhaps, never had any equality. He remained in the office of his own office, until the year 1838, when he was appointed by Governor Porter, Secretary of the State.

There are thousands of Democrats in the State who will not vote for him—preferring rather to vote in blank than for him, while many who are the friends of Protection to the Domestic Industry of the country, will vote for Gen. Irvin, who is its open and avowed friend.
