Live Feathers.—The editor of the Boston Bee tells a good story of his perigrimations "down South." He was a young lawyer, in attendance upon Court, and the village where the Court was held, was thronged to overflowing. Having, with some difficulty how- and the violence of the symptoms were so angever, procured a bed, he jumped into it-but he was out again almost in "no time."

awhat kind of a bed do you call this?" said he, to the negro who officiated as master of ceremonies.

"Feather-bed, massa." Feathers ! (I fear I used too warm un expression, but I don't femember what it was,) I should think it contained entire

"Cant be dat dar filty doll'r niger, Sam, thow de chick'n in!" murmered the waiter, dubiously, as he proceeded to insinuate his. hand into the coarse bagging tick. "Squash if he didn't tho!" said he, as he pulled forth a partly-picked rooster. "I tole de stupid jack-behind dis morn, when he was a featherin' de chickn's for dinner, to empty de feathers in de fuss class beds to prove the kerwality; and de old blind bat oberlook de chick'n in hurry ob business. Massa," 16 continued, in an apologetic tone, "dese here little accidums can't always le avided .--We hab dozen niggers trimmin'chic'ns all time, and 'casionally a foot or a head am oberlooked in de fedders when we put 'um way in de beds, but dis 'ere are de fust time I eber found a hull chick'n!"

BEAUTIFUE Answer .-- What wonderful questions children often ask and what itqually wonderful answers they sometimes give. What can be more touching than the following anecdote which we find in the N. Y. Organ:

A friend of ours while dressing a very young child, a few days ago, said-in rather an impatient tone, "You are such a lump of shape, it is imposible to make any thing to fit you!" The lips of the child quivered, and, looking up it said in a deprecating tone God made me." Our friend was rebu ked; and the little lump was kissed a dozen

"God made met" Had the wise men of the world pondered upon a fitting answer to such a careless remark for a century, they sinch a careless remark for a century, they could not have found a better one than flowed naturally and spontaneously from the wounded heart of the child. "God made me, mother; it is not my fault that I am what you thus seem not to like—such a little lump Got made me!" Blessings on thy innocent heart, sweet child, "of such are the kingdom. heart, sweet child, "of such are the kingdom; of Heaven."

TRAVELLING .- A strong, lazy fellow, who preferred begging to work, called on a genity, and asked for "cold victuals and old cloths." The man asked him what he did for a living. "Not much," said the fellow, "except travelling." "Travelling! Then you can travel pretty

"Oh yes," said the beggar "I'm very good at that."

"Well, then," said the gentleman, coolly opening the door, "let's see you travel."

NEW YORK, Angust 25, 1846.

Metars. Wyatt & Ketcham'—Gents: For several years past I have been trofbled with Piles, a very costive state of ray complaint not being to severe as to disable me from business, and a dread, I had of physicians and patent Medicines, that until this apring I never used any medicine or applied to a physician for relief. The Piles then being so severe that Lallowed several operations to be performed without any henefit. Determined after this to try other nesses, I read an advertisement of a cure guaranteed by the use of Dr. Upham's Electuary. I purchased three boxes at your store, and from the use of which I found myself entirely cured of the Piles, and my health much improved. I remain, Sira vour much indebted friend.
