Poetry.
THE REWARD.
By J. G. WHITTIER.
Who, looking backward from his manhood's prime,
Sees not the specter of his infant time;
Who, looking forward from his manhood's prime,
Sees not the specter of his infant time;
Who, looking backward from his manhood's prime,
Sees not the specter of his infant time;

Religion.
The Truest Friend.
By CHARLES WYMAN.
There is a friend, a secret friend,
Whom every true friend should prize;
Whom every true friend should prize;
Whom every true friend should prize;

Letters from Soldiers in Mexico.
THEIR HARSHIPS AND SUFFERINGS.
Now that communications are again opened between the city of Mexico and Vera Cruz, our gallant soldiers are able to make themselves known to their friends. We find numerous letters in our exchange papers from members of the Pennsylvania Volunteer regiments. These letters are highly interesting as showing the feelings, the opinions, the sufferings and the hardships of the brave fellows who have done the fighting.
