3.7 In every change that is taking place in the body, Rismannifest that it is brought about by something having a substantive existence. If we suppose the organs of our body originally perfect, they must continue perfect unless changed by the intervention of something that bears an unhealthy relation to it. In all cases of disease, there must be the interposition of some new ingredient which by playing its part as a cause, served to modify the properties before connected with the body. It is absurd to talk of spontaneous disease taking place in organs previously healthy, without the aid of Sulphuric Acid. In all diseases there is a minimal to the properties before connected with the aid of Sulphuric Acid. In all diseases there is a prior cause which must be removed, thro' the agency of the Blood. For this purpose there is no remedy superior to the Panacea. In evidence the following is submitted to the public:

The Philadelphia, June 7, 1847.

Having been apprised of the nature of the Panacea, it affords me mucli pleasure to be able to recommend it is a valuable remedy for all those of the continuous constitutional and glandular diseases, to which it its especially adapted. To those who are affilicted, and require medicine as an alterative, they cannot obtain it in a more agreeble, active and uniform state than is to be found in the Panacea. I have used it in several instances with decided and signal success. Yours, &c.

Rahways Medicated Soap.

O'GREAT EXCITEMENT BE PITTSBURG!—Our agent of this place writes of a mysterious incident which occurred in that place, in relation to an excellent young lady, but who unfortunately possessed a very repulsive complexion. Her face was covered with purples, blotches, pustules,—her skin dark and yellow, cracked and chapped—her lips in cold weather would become sore and bleed. She had, however, several good traits, one. of which was to read the newspapers. One morning as she was looking over the columns of the Dispatch, she saw in large letters the words Rapway's Churkes Medicated Soap! As a sure exterminator of all skin blemishes, with a direction for all ladies to read the papers! Now mark the advantage. On. Sunday morning she took! her place as usual, among the chorasters, and to the utter surprise of her fellow-songsters, presented a complexion us fair as a lily, and beautiful as, the most admired, belle of the town—Strange wondering and much excitement was exhibited by the busy crowd, and nothing short of an explanation of how this sudden transformation from ugliness to beauty was attained, would answer. The lady, like all her sex, full of genteness and kindness, explained the cause, and to the greath grand and beneficial effects of Radway's Medicated Chinese Soap, which she had been using for two weeks, was awarded the full approbation of the people, as the "restorer of lost heauty". Our agent concludes thus—"thinee the show has become known, I have had a ported the show has become known, I have had a ported to the store and gentlemen, if you wish to get Rahway's Soap in all its purity, call on 160 23.
