Beware of Imposition. The greater the value of any discovery, the higher it is held in the esteem of the public, and so much in proportion is that public liable to be highered upon by the spurious initiations of figurant, designing und dishonest men, who like the drone in the hive, have neither the ability or inclination to think, or provide for themselves, but thive and luxuriate on the barnings of the deserving. The extraordinary success attending the use of Wistaris Balsam of Wild Cherry, in disenses of the lungs, and the many singular cures it has effected, have naturally attracted the attention of many physicians, is well as the whole fraternity of quacks—and-caused unprincipled imitators and counterfeiters to palm of spurious mixtures of similar name and opperature for the gaunine Balsam. Some are called "Syrup, of Wild Cherry and Tar," "Cherry Syrup," Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry," and sundry other compounds, to which they attach a long string of "puffs." But of such most runs we know nothing. It is "WISTARIS BALSAM OI. WIED CHERRY alone that beforems the cures. Let them not decive you.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills in the City of Mexico. - Great Success.

Extract of a letter from the Editor of the Green-lile (8-C.) Mountaineer; Extract of a letter from the Eattor of the Greenville (8-0.) Mountaineer;
Dr. W Wright—Dear Sir,—* * A-week or two ago I sent you a "Mountaineer" containing a letter from one of our Volunteers in the city of Mexico, in which he pays Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, under all circumstances, the highest meed of praise I have ever known a medicine of any kind to receive.
The Volunteer, William M Goodlett, Eeq. is a gentleman of high standing, an accomplished and well educated man, and was recently High Shreid of this District. By one of your advertisements in a Charleston maper, I anphened to notice the location of your office, and thought you might extract an article of some value. In regard to 'your medicine—therefore I sent the paper.

The following is the paragraph of the letter, refer-

"My beath is very fast improving: I procured, a few days ago, some of Dr. wright's Indian Vegetabis Pills, and they have acted on my system like

Thus it appears that Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are fast obtaining celebrity among the brave and patriotic Volunteers who have gone to Mexice to defend the rights and honor of their country. Long may they live: All who intend going to the South or West, should not fait to take a supply of the Pills with them. They are invaluable.

The genuine is for sails by CHARLES OGILBY, sole sgent for Carible, and general agent for Cumberand county, by whom country dealers will be supplied at the Philadelphia prices.
