

CARLISLE, PA.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 31, 1848.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

Mr. Cass resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate on Monday last.

The Philadelphia Convention

The Whig National Convention, to nominate candidates for President and Vice-President, meets in Philadelphia on Wednesday next, the 7th of June.

Our opponents are already in the field with their candidates, and it is not to be disguised that a deep and anxious interest pervades the whig party in reference to the deliberations and result of the coming Convention.

The Pennsylvania delegation to that body is composed of the following gentlemen: SENATORIAL DELEGATES. William F. Johnston, of Armstrong. Samuel Bell, of Berks.

REPRESENTATIVE DELEGATES. 1. John Lindsay, 13. David Taggart, 2. Henry White, 14. T. M. Bibb, 3. Samuel Allen, 15. David Horner, 4. Samuel W. Vane, 16. E. M. Butler, 5. G. Henderson, 17. James Irvin, 6. Henry King, 18. F. M. Kimmel, 7. Townsend Haines, 19. Joseph Ottlinger, 8. Thos. E. Franklin, 20. William Henry, 9. Diller Luther, 21. Dr. T. F. Dale, 10. A. F. Brown, 22. John J. Pearson, 11. G. Phelps, 23. Saml. P. Johnson, 12. L. P. Williston, 24. Thomas White.

Of these delegates, the Harrisburg Telegraph, a leading Scott paper, says, fourteen are favorable to Gen. Scott, eight in favor of Mr. Clay, and four in favor of Gen. Taylor.

The estimates made of the respective strength of candidates in Convention are of course widely different. From what we have seen we have been inclined to think that the friends of Mr. Clay would have a controlling majority on the 1st ballot in Convention. The friends of Taylor, in Washington, however claim a clear majority for the Old Hero, on the first ballot. We subjoin their estimate as we find it in a neighboring paper, although we cannot vouch for its accuracy.

Table with 5 columns: Name, Taylor, Clay, Scott, Webster. Lists names of delegates from various states like Maine, Massachusetts, Connecticut, etc.

Delaware, which is not named in the list, has instructed her three delegates in favor of John M. Clayton, and in Indiana four delegates are set down for Judge McLean. It is also more probable that Gen. Scott will have a stronger show of strength than this table gives him.

The Baltimore Convention

We gave in our last paper a sketch of the final part of the second day's proceedings of this body. Tuesday's proceedings opened with a grand battle upon a Resolution requiring a two-thirds vote of the Convention to nominate a candidate.

Our opponents are already in the field with their candidates, and it is not to be disguised that a deep and anxious interest pervades the whig party in reference to the deliberations and result of the coming Convention.

The Pennsylvania delegation to that body is composed of the following gentlemen: SENATORIAL DELEGATES. William F. Johnston, of Armstrong. Samuel Bell, of Berks.

REPRESENTATIVE DELEGATES. 1. John Lindsay, 13. David Taggart, 2. Henry White, 14. T. M. Bibb, 3. Samuel Allen, 15. David Horner, 4. Samuel W. Vane, 16. E. M. Butler, 5. G. Henderson, 17. James Irvin, 6. Henry King, 18. F. M. Kimmel, 7. Townsend Haines, 19. Joseph Ottlinger, 8. Thos. E. Franklin, 20. William Henry, 9. Diller Luther, 21. Dr. T. F. Dale, 10. A. F. Brown, 22. John J. Pearson, 11. G. Phelps, 23. Saml. P. Johnson, 12. L. P. Williston, 24. Thomas White.

Of these delegates, the Harrisburg Telegraph, a leading Scott paper, says, fourteen are favorable to Gen. Scott, eight in favor of Mr. Clay, and four in favor of Gen. Taylor.

The estimates made of the respective strength of candidates in Convention are of course widely different. From what we have seen we have been inclined to think that the friends of Mr. Clay would have a controlling majority on the 1st ballot in Convention. The friends of Taylor, in Washington, however claim a clear majority for the Old Hero, on the first ballot. We subjoin their estimate as we find it in a neighboring paper, although we cannot vouch for its accuracy.

Table with 5 columns: Name, Taylor, Clay, Scott, Webster. Lists names of delegates from various states like Maine, Massachusetts, Connecticut, etc.

Delaware, which is not named in the list, has instructed her three delegates in favor of John M. Clayton, and in Indiana four delegates are set down for Judge McLean. It is also more probable that Gen. Scott will have a stronger show of strength than this table gives him.

The Barnburners and Gen. Cass

The language which the New York Globe, the organ of the Barnburners, holds in reference to Gen. Cass's nomination, foreshadows the course which that large and influential portion of New York Democracy mean to take.

Our opponents are already in the field with their candidates, and it is not to be disguised that a deep and anxious interest pervades the whig party in reference to the deliberations and result of the coming Convention.

The Pennsylvania delegation to that body is composed of the following gentlemen: SENATORIAL DELEGATES. William F. Johnston, of Armstrong. Samuel Bell, of Berks.

REPRESENTATIVE DELEGATES. 1. John Lindsay, 13. David Taggart, 2. Henry White, 14. T. M. Bibb, 3. Samuel Allen, 15. David Horner, 4. Samuel W. Vane, 16. E. M. Butler, 5. G. Henderson, 17. James Irvin, 6. Henry King, 18. F. M. Kimmel, 7. Townsend Haines, 19. Joseph Ottlinger, 8. Thos. E. Franklin, 20. William Henry, 9. Diller Luther, 21. Dr. T. F. Dale, 10. A. F. Brown, 22. John J. Pearson, 11. G. Phelps, 23. Saml. P. Johnson, 12. L. P. Williston, 24. Thomas White.

Of these delegates, the Harrisburg Telegraph, a leading Scott paper, says, fourteen are favorable to Gen. Scott, eight in favor of Mr. Clay, and four in favor of Gen. Taylor.

The estimates made of the respective strength of candidates in Convention are of course widely different. From what we have seen we have been inclined to think that the friends of Mr. Clay would have a controlling majority on the 1st ballot in Convention. The friends of Taylor, in Washington, however claim a clear majority for the Old Hero, on the first ballot. We subjoin their estimate as we find it in a neighboring paper, although we cannot vouch for its accuracy.

Table with 5 columns: Name, Taylor, Clay, Scott, Webster. Lists names of delegates from various states like Maine, Massachusetts, Connecticut, etc.

Delaware, which is not named in the list, has instructed her three delegates in favor of John M. Clayton, and in Indiana four delegates are set down for Judge McLean. It is also more probable that Gen. Scott will have a stronger show of strength than this table gives him.

GEN. SCOTT IN NEW YORK

ENTHUSIASTIC POPULAR DEMONSTRATIONS—COMPLIMENTARY SPEECHES! On our fourth page will be found an account of the public reception and welcome of Gen. Scott by the people of Elizabethtown, N. J.

Our opponents are already in the field with their candidates, and it is not to be disguised that a deep and anxious interest pervades the whig party in reference to the deliberations and result of the coming Convention.

The Pennsylvania delegation to that body is composed of the following gentlemen: SENATORIAL DELEGATES. William F. Johnston, of Armstrong. Samuel Bell, of Berks.

REPRESENTATIVE DELEGATES. 1. John Lindsay, 13. David Taggart, 2. Henry White, 14. T. M. Bibb, 3. Samuel Allen, 15. David Horner, 4. Samuel W. Vane, 16. E. M. Butler, 5. G. Henderson, 17. James Irvin, 6. Henry King, 18. F. M. Kimmel, 7. Townsend Haines, 19. Joseph Ottlinger, 8. Thos. E. Franklin, 20. William Henry, 9. Diller Luther, 21. Dr. T. F. Dale, 10. A. F. Brown, 22. John J. Pearson, 11. G. Phelps, 23. Saml. P. Johnson, 12. L. P. Williston, 24. Thomas White.

Of these delegates, the Harrisburg Telegraph, a leading Scott paper, says, fourteen are favorable to Gen. Scott, eight in favor of Mr. Clay, and four in favor of Gen. Taylor.

The estimates made of the respective strength of candidates in Convention are of course widely different. From what we have seen we have been inclined to think that the friends of Mr. Clay would have a controlling majority on the 1st ballot in Convention. The friends of Taylor, in Washington, however claim a clear majority for the Old Hero, on the first ballot. We subjoin their estimate as we find it in a neighboring paper, although we cannot vouch for its accuracy.

Table with 5 columns: Name, Taylor, Clay, Scott, Webster. Lists names of delegates from various states like Maine, Massachusetts, Connecticut, etc.

Delaware, which is not named in the list, has instructed her three delegates in favor of John M. Clayton, and in Indiana four delegates are set down for Judge McLean. It is also more probable that Gen. Scott will have a stronger show of strength than this table gives him.

Foreign News

LATER FROM EUROPE! ARRIVAL OF THE HIBERNIA—FRANCE PREPARING FOR WAR—ENGLAND QUIET IN TROUBLE—DECLINE IN GRAIN, &c.

Our opponents are already in the field with their candidates, and it is not to be disguised that a deep and anxious interest pervades the whig party in reference to the deliberations and result of the coming Convention.

The Pennsylvania delegation to that body is composed of the following gentlemen: SENATORIAL DELEGATES. William F. Johnston, of Armstrong. Samuel Bell, of Berks.

REPRESENTATIVE DELEGATES. 1. John Lindsay, 13. David Taggart, 2. Henry White, 14. T. M. Bibb, 3. Samuel Allen, 15. David Horner, 4. Samuel W. Vane, 16. E. M. Butler, 5. G. Henderson, 17. James Irvin, 6. Henry King, 18. F. M. Kimmel, 7. Townsend Haines, 19. Joseph Ottlinger, 8. Thos. E. Franklin, 20. William Henry, 9. Diller Luther, 21. Dr. T. F. Dale, 10. A. F. Brown, 22. John J. Pearson, 11. G. Phelps, 23. Saml. P. Johnson, 12. L. P. Williston, 24. Thomas White.

Of these delegates, the Harrisburg Telegraph, a leading Scott paper, says, fourteen are favorable to Gen. Scott, eight in favor of Mr. Clay, and four in favor of Gen. Taylor.

The estimates made of the respective strength of candidates in Convention are of course widely different. From what we have seen we have been inclined to think that the friends of Mr. Clay would have a controlling majority on the 1st ballot in Convention. The friends of Taylor, in Washington, however claim a clear majority for the Old Hero, on the first ballot. We subjoin their estimate as we find it in a neighboring paper, although we cannot vouch for its accuracy.

Table with 5 columns: Name, Taylor, Clay, Scott, Webster. Lists names of delegates from various states like Maine, Massachusetts, Connecticut, etc.

Delaware, which is not named in the list, has instructed her three delegates in favor of John M. Clayton, and in Indiana four delegates are set down for Judge McLean. It is also more probable that Gen. Scott will have a stronger show of strength than this table gives him.

WAR IN OREGON

A correspondent of the Pittsburg Gazette, writing from Louisville, Ky., on the 21st inst. states that Maj. Meek, from the West, had arrived at Oregon, where hostilities had broken out between the whites and the Indians.

Our opponents are already in the field with their candidates, and it is not to be disguised that a deep and anxious interest pervades the whig party in reference to the deliberations and result of the coming Convention.

The Pennsylvania delegation to that body is composed of the following gentlemen: SENATORIAL DELEGATES. William F. Johnston, of Armstrong. Samuel Bell, of Berks.

REPRESENTATIVE DELEGATES. 1. John Lindsay, 13. David Taggart, 2. Henry White, 14. T. M. Bibb, 3. Samuel Allen, 15. David Horner, 4. Samuel W. Vane, 16. E. M. Butler, 5. G. Henderson, 17. James Irvin, 6. Henry King, 18. F. M. Kimmel, 7. Townsend Haines, 19. Joseph Ottlinger, 8. Thos. E. Franklin, 20. William Henry, 9. Diller Luther, 21. Dr. T. F. Dale, 10. A. F. Brown, 22. John J. Pearson, 11. G. Phelps, 23. Saml. P. Johnson, 12. L. P. Williston, 24. Thomas White.

Of these delegates, the Harrisburg Telegraph, a leading Scott paper, says, fourteen are favorable to Gen. Scott, eight in favor of Mr. Clay, and four in favor of Gen. Taylor.

The estimates made of the respective strength of candidates in Convention are of course widely different. From what we have seen we have been inclined to think that the friends of Mr. Clay would have a controlling majority on the 1st ballot in Convention. The friends of Taylor, in Washington, however claim a clear majority for the Old Hero, on the first ballot. We subjoin their estimate as we find it in a neighboring paper, although we cannot vouch for its accuracy.

Table with 5 columns: Name, Taylor, Clay, Scott, Webster. Lists names of delegates from various states like Maine, Massachusetts, Connecticut, etc.

Delaware, which is not named in the list, has instructed her three delegates in favor of John M. Clayton, and in Indiana four delegates are set down for Judge McLean. It is also more probable that Gen. Scott will have a stronger show of strength than this table gives him.