

We welcome our fair correspondent...

The nominations by the Philadelphia Convention...

Fourth of July.—The Whigs must make a rousing demonstration...

TEMPERANCE.—We are requested to say that a lecture on the subject of Temperance...

DELIVERANCE TO THE CAPTIVES.—The case of the colored risters, sentenced by Judge Hepburn...

We see by the proceedings of the Methodist General Conference...

We also give another paragraph, showing the kind feelings which exist between Mr. Clay and General Taylor...

Herald for the Campaign.

ONLY FIFTY CENTS A COPY.—CIRCULATE THE DOCUMENTS, WHIGS!

To put our paper within the reach of all who desire a paper during the coming Presidential campaign...

HON. JAMES COOPER has again been nominated by the Whigs of Adams county...

GEN. CASS' ACCEPTANCE.—The Washington Union contains the letter from the Committee...

From Washington.—The President sent in to both Houses of Congress on Monday...

Which was it?—The following is a portion of one of the resolutions of the Lococo Convention...

Resolved, That the war with Mexico, produced on our part by years of insult and injury...

The Convention, it will be seen, casts the responsibility of the war upon Mexico. It is attributed to her protracted 'insults and injuries' to this country...

None of us have denied, the President has acknowledged, the whole Democratic party has again and again asserted, that the annexation of Texas was the cause of the war with Mexico.

COLS. CONFORT.—The Lococo of Washington held a meeting the other evening to respond to the nominations...

The House has passed a Post-Office bill, but whether it is the greatly desired bill, regulating newspaper postage...

The Secretary of the Treasury seems to be a bad arithmetician. Mr. Sherman, in the House Committee on the Treasury...

Of the Davills' Demoralizer, which was burnt out some four weeks since, made its appearance again this week in an entire new dress...

WHIG NATIONAL CONVENTION.

OPINIONS OF DELEGATES.—CLAY, SCOTT, AND TAYLOR.—GEN. JAY'S POSITION.

The Whig National Convention meets in Philadelphia to-day. The indications are that the proceedings will be conducted in the most harmonious manner...

GEN. TAYLOR'S POSITION.—We have recently conversed with several delegates to the Whig National Convention...

We also give another paragraph, showing the kind feelings which exist between Mr. Clay and General Taylor...

Dear Sir.—I am obliged to you for your kind attention in transmitting me an invitation to attend the Convention on Internal Improvement...

GEN. CASS' CHICAGO LETTER.—There is a general desire, now that Gen. Cass is nominated, to see his letter to the Chicago Convention...

Dear Sir.—I am obliged to you for your kind attention in transmitting me an invitation to attend the Convention on Internal Improvement...

W. J. Whiting, Esq. LEWIS CASS.

Silas Wright, Benton and others wrote long letters approving of appropriations for western Rivers and Harbors.

ONKONG.—The President sent in to both Houses of Congress on Monday...

Resolved, That the war with Mexico, produced on our part by years of insult and injury...

The Convention, it will be seen, casts the responsibility of the war upon Mexico. It is attributed to her protracted 'insults and injuries' to this country...

None of us have denied, the President has acknowledged, the whole Democratic party has again and again asserted, that the annexation of Texas was the cause of the war with Mexico.

COLS. CONFORT.—The Lococo of Washington held a meeting the other evening to respond to the nominations...

Scott among the Volunteers.

GEN. CASS HUNG IN EFFIGY BY THE PENNSYLVANIA VOLUNTEERS.

We are indebted to a friend, says the Reading Journal, for the following letter from Sergt. Graef, a member of the corps of Artillerists...

Mr. Buchanan who received 55 votes in the Baltimore Convention, was one of the most bitter and uncompromising Federalists in Pennsylvania.

DEAR R.—You will allow me the privilege of saying one word on politics. I know no man that would be more deserving the Presidency than Winfield Scott...

Next let me tell you how Senator Cass was treated by the volunteers. You will recollect that we (or the volunteers) were mustered under the act of May, '46...

POOR PROSPECT FOR FARMERS.—The Caledonian brings bad news for our farmers. Flour is down in England to six or seven dollars a barrel...

GEN. CASS' CHICAGO LETTER.—There is a general desire, now that Gen. Cass is nominated, to see his letter to the Chicago Convention...

Dear Sir.—I am obliged to you for your kind attention in transmitting me an invitation to attend the Convention on Internal Improvement...

W. J. Whiting, Esq. LEWIS CASS.

Silas Wright, Benton and others wrote long letters approving of appropriations for western Rivers and Harbors.

ONKONG.—The President sent in to both Houses of Congress on Monday...

Resolved, That the war with Mexico, produced on our part by years of insult and injury...

The Convention, it will be seen, casts the responsibility of the war upon Mexico. It is attributed to her protracted 'insults and injuries' to this country...

None of us have denied, the President has acknowledged, the whole Democratic party has again and again asserted, that the annexation of Texas was the cause of the war with Mexico.

Gen. Cass an old Federalist.

We presume it has not escaped the observation of our readers, says the Daily News, that all the prominent candidates for the Presidential nomination...

Mr. Buchanan who received 55 votes in the Baltimore Convention, was one of the most bitter and uncompromising Federalists in Pennsylvania.

DEAR R.—You will allow me the privilege of saying one word on politics. I know no man that would be more deserving the Presidency than Winfield Scott...

Next let me tell you how Senator Cass was treated by the volunteers. You will recollect that we (or the volunteers) were mustered under the act of May, '46...

POOR PROSPECT FOR FARMERS.—The Caledonian brings bad news for our farmers. Flour is down in England to six or seven dollars a barrel...

GEN. CASS' CHICAGO LETTER.—There is a general desire, now that Gen. Cass is nominated, to see his letter to the Chicago Convention...

Dear Sir.—I am obliged to you for your kind attention in transmitting me an invitation to attend the Convention on Internal Improvement...

W. J. Whiting, Esq. LEWIS CASS.

Silas Wright, Benton and others wrote long letters approving of appropriations for western Rivers and Harbors.

ONKONG.—The President sent in to both Houses of Congress on Monday...

Resolved, That the war with Mexico, produced on our part by years of insult and injury...

The Convention, it will be seen, casts the responsibility of the war upon Mexico. It is attributed to her protracted 'insults and injuries' to this country...

None of us have denied, the President has acknowledged, the whole Democratic party has again and again asserted, that the annexation of Texas was the cause of the war with Mexico.

COLS. CONFORT.—The Lococo of Washington held a meeting the other evening to respond to the nominations...

The Barnburners and Old Hunkers.

The origin of the term barnburner was, we believe this.—In the State of New York it is well known that politics were for many years arranged and directed by a class of men called the Albany Regency...

Mr. Buchanan who received 55 votes in the Baltimore Convention, was one of the most bitter and uncompromising Federalists in Pennsylvania.

DEAR R.—You will allow me the privilege of saying one word on politics. I know no man that would be more deserving the Presidency than Winfield Scott...

Next let me tell you how Senator Cass was treated by the volunteers. You will recollect that we (or the volunteers) were mustered under the act of May, '46...

POOR PROSPECT FOR FARMERS.—The Caledonian brings bad news for our farmers. Flour is down in England to six or seven dollars a barrel...

GEN. CASS' CHICAGO LETTER.—There is a general desire, now that Gen. Cass is nominated, to see his letter to the Chicago Convention...

Dear Sir.—I am obliged to you for your kind attention in transmitting me an invitation to attend the Convention on Internal Improvement...

W. J. Whiting, Esq. LEWIS CASS.

Silas Wright, Benton and others wrote long letters approving of appropriations for western Rivers and Harbors.

ONKONG.—The President sent in to both Houses of Congress on Monday...

Resolved, That the war with Mexico, produced on our part by years of insult and injury...

The Convention, it will be seen, casts the responsibility of the war upon Mexico. It is attributed to her protracted 'insults and injuries' to this country...

None of us have denied, the President has acknowledged, the whole Democratic party has again and again asserted, that the annexation of Texas was the cause of the war with Mexico.

COLS. CONFORT.—The Lococo of Washington held a meeting the other evening to respond to the nominations...

Foreign News.

LATER FROM EUROPE! ATTEMPT TO OVERTHROW THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT—SUBSEQUENT ARREST OF THE LEADERS.

The Steamship United States arrived at New York on Wednesday last, with four days' later intelligence from Europe.

The negotiations of peace between Denmark and Holstein are going on under the mediation of England, with prospects of favorable results.

The Emperor of Austria has concluded an alliance; offensive and defensive, with the Emperor of Russia.

Three of the National Guards were killed during the night. A rescue of the prisoners at the Hotel de Ville was apprehended, and efficient preparations were made to meet any such attempt.

The Journal des Debates of this morning states that the members of the Polytechnic School placed themselves, armed, at the disposal of the government, upon the first alarm of the insurrection.

The city has been tranquil during the whole morning, but it has the appearance of being in a state of siege.

The Niagara sailed from Liverpool on the 20th ult., and brings three days' later intelligence. Her news is highly interesting.

Notwithstanding the croakings of certain papers, the crops in Ireland are in a flourishing state, and promise an abundant harvest.

France is quietly settling down after the late emeute, although many have grave misgivings for the future.

The financial condition of England was steadily improving, and the accounts from the Continent are of a more encouraging character.

State Central Committee.

The following is the new State Central Committee appointed by the late Whig State Convention.

Alexander Ramsey, of Dauphin; Morton S. Michael, of Philadelphia; Thomas E. Cochran, of York; Robert Trevel, of Montgomery; Washington Townsend, of Chester; John C. Kunkle, of Dauphin; James Fox, of Berks; Francis H. Buck, of Philadelphia; Benjamin Mather, of York; George Lear, of Bucks; Thomas J. Watson, of Philadelphia; Co. George Brey, of Berks; H. H. Stier, of Perry; Joseph Paxton, of Lancaster; Edward C. Darrington, of Lancaster; David W. Patterson, of York; George F. Miller, of Lancaster; David Cooper, of Mifflin; Lon Benson, of Berks; Joseph Paxton, of Lancaster; George V. Lawrence, of Washington; John Penion of Cambria; L. A. Finney, of Crawford; D. D. Wetmore, of Warren; John Morrison, of Allegheny; H. W. Wright, of Berks; Samuel W. Patterson, of Somerset; Alexander W. Taylor, of Indiana.

AN UNTRAINED REMEDY, and an Almanac for 1848 gratis.

FOR COLDS AND CROUP, and for all the ailments of the throat, Liver, Cough, Indigestion and Loss of Appetite. For Stomach Affections, in females and males. For the Great Points, it is not to be taken, never gives pain and never leaves any costive.

This medicine is LONGLEY'S GREAT WESTERN INDIAN PAINKILLER. Fuller description in an Almanac for 1848 gratis.

FOR COLDS AND CROUP, and for all the ailments of the throat, Liver, Cough, Indigestion and Loss of Appetite. For Stomach Affections, in females and males. For the Great Points, it is not to be taken, never gives pain and never leaves any costive.

FOR COLDS AND CROUP, and for all the ailments of the throat, Liver, Cough, Indigestion and Loss of Appetite. For Stomach Affections, in females and males. For the Great Points, it is not to be taken, never gives pain and never leaves any costive.

FOR COLDS AND CROUP, and for all the ailments of the throat, Liver, Cough, Indigestion and Loss of Appetite. For Stomach Affections, in females and males. For the Great Points, it is not to be taken, never gives pain and never leaves any costive.

FOR COLDS AND CROUP, and for all the ailments of the throat, Liver, Cough, Indigestion and Loss of Appetite. For Stomach Affections, in females and males. For the Great Points, it is not to be taken, never gives pain and never leaves any costive.

FOR COLDS AND CROUP, and for all the ailments of the throat, Liver, Cough, Indigestion and Loss of Appetite. For Stomach Affections, in females and males. For the Great Points, it is not to be taken, never gives pain and never leaves any costive.

FOR COLDS AND CROUP, and for all the ailments of the throat, Liver, Cough, Indigestion and Loss of Appetite. For Stomach Affections, in females and males. For the Great Points, it is not to be taken, never gives pain and never leaves any costive.