The young woman who was tarred and feathered and beaten by a lot of ruffiant, in the town of Xenia, Ohio, has been found in the woods, a few miles from town, dead.— Nothing has been done to the murderers, as the girl had no friends, was poor, and deficient in intelligence.

Pope Pius IX, it is said, is the last of Si Peter's line, for whose statue, at St. Peter's church, in Rome, there is a vacant niche left; a striking, if not most ominous fact.

In withdrawing the American troops from Mexico, the old regiments of the regular army are to be at once distributed about the various posts at home. A detachment of various posts at notice. It is said that the four leading Presidenstal candidates (Gen. Taylor, Gen. Cass, John P. Hale, and Gerrit Smith.) are all Temperance men. The former two are teg-totallers: the latter have frequently taken the stump. n favor of the cause.

The Hon. Thomas Fitzgerald has been appointed U. S. Senator, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of General Cass. We understand says the Vicsburg Whig. by a friend just up the river, that General Taylor is to take the place of Gen. It is stated that Louis Phillippe has con-cluded to deler his visit to the United States till after Cass's election. This is the longest postponement we have ever heard of.

Mr. Seth W. Fowler—Dear Sir —I take pleasure in stating to you my experience in the use of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry I own a very valuable negro girl who was attacked with a difficulty of the lungs, which brought her in appearance to the brink of the grave. I consulted some of our best physicians, who pronounced her case incurable, or that they could do no more for her. I tried many remodues, but none did any good. I saw some account of Wistar's Balsam and thought I would try it, but had Bittle tith in it. I procured a bottle, which was administered according to directions, and I saw she began to mend; and before the first hottle was gone she was up. "I precured a second and she took thit, and now she is, I think, cured, or nearly so. She attends to her daily laber, and I her no complaints from her.
