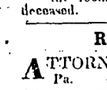
Magistrate's Office Removed.

THE Office of the subscriber, a Justice of the Peace, has been removed to the house adjoining the store of Mrs. Weakley, in High street, Carlisle, immediately opposite the Railroad Depot and Wright's Hotell. My residence being there, I will always be found at home, ready to attend to the business of the public. In addition to the duties of a Magistrate, I will attend to all kinds of Writing, such as Deeds, Mortgages, Bonds, Indentures, Articles of Agreement, Notes &c, which will be executed in a neat manner and according to the most approved forms,

The Office lately occupied by me, in Mr. Graham's building is for rent, and possession had immediately. The rent is low and the location good. jan 12 1848 GEO. FLEMING.

Cumberland and Perry Hotel.



THE subscriber desires to inform his friends and the travelling public that he has removed from the old stand, known as Weibly's Hotel, to the public house recently occupied by John Corman, on North Hanover street, near the public square, where he will be glad to see his old acquaintances from Perry and Cumberland, and as many new ones as possible. This house is large and in good order, containing a sufficient number of well furnished chambers and every other facility for the most comfortable accommodation of travellers and boarders. His table will be supplied with the choicest delicacies of the markets, and his bar with the best of liquors. There is commodious Stabling attached to the house, and a careful Ostler will always be in attendance. He respectfully invites a call from travellers and others, confident of his ability to give satisfaction march29—ly HENRY GLASS Premium Plaster.

DR. W. P. IRLAND now offers to the public his Indian Vegetable Premium Plaster, the qualities of which after long and tried experience have been satisfactorily established. To all women who may be afflicted with the affection of PROLAPSUS UTERI, or the Fallen Womb, he now recommends his plaster, guaranteeing a sure and speedy cure in the short space of time of from to three weeks, if applied with care and rest, discarding all the countless instruments and expensive bandages so long in use. This he feels justified in stating, inasmuch as he has not failed in one instance out of three hundred and fifty cases. Price ONE DOLLAR per box. Sold in Carlisle by S. ELLIOT and Dr. J. J. MYERS. feb23—1y

Napoleon Le Grande of the Tonsorial Tribe.

RICHARD JOHNSON—not the hero of the Thames, but the Knight of the Razor—respectfully informs those requiring his professional services, that he may always be found at the old stand in Louther street, one door west of North Hanover street, immediately in the rear of Inhoff's grocery store, and although he will neither brag nor boast, yet for clean and neat SHAVING, fashionable HAIR CUTTING and taste in laying out and cultivating either Whisker or Moustache, he does defy the county.

He is also sole inventor and manufacturer of the celebrated and never-failing remedy for baldness, JOHNSON'S APPILATORY, which he is so certain of its restoring the hair, that should it fail he will return one-half the purchase money. Price $1 per bottle. 12 1848

Extensive Furniture Rooms.

D. F. & A. C. FETTER,

WOULD respectfully call the attention of House-keepers and the public, to the extensive stock of splendid FURNITURE, including Sofas, Wardrobes, Centre and other Tables, Dressing and Plain Bureaus, and every variety of Cabinet-ware and Chairs, which they have just opened at their NEW ROOMS, on the corner of North Hanover and Louther streets, Carlisle. They are confident that the superior finish of the workmanship, and elegance of style, in which their articles are got up together with their CHEAPNESS, will recommend them to every person wanting Furniture. They have also made arrangements for manufacturing and keeping a constant supply of every article in their line, both plain and ornamental, elegant and useful, at prices which cannot fail to suit purchasers. They would earnestly invite persons who are about to commence house-keeping, to call and examine their present elegant stock, to which they will constantly make additions of the newest and most modern styles.

COFFINS made to order at the shortest notice, for town and country.

Carlisle, April 21, 1847.

The subscriber desires to inform the public that he has removed his entire stock, embracing a large and elegant display of FURNITURE, to the above establishment, where he will be glad to see his old friends and customers march 8 JACOB FETTER.

apr19 JOHN B. FORSTER.

Great Arrival of Cheap Goods

AT OGILBY'S

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL STORE.

I have now opened the largest and cheapest assortment of Goods ever brought to Carlisle and no mistake! Purchasers will do well to call and examine this multifarious stock, as they will be sure to get good bargains and save money.—To enumerate articles and prices is out of the question, as it would take up the whole of friend Beatty's paper, and the ball not then be told.—Suffice it to say that I have every thing in the Dry Goods line from superfine cloth down to a piece of bobbin.

A very extensive assortment of BOOTS and SHOES just received, and cheaper than ever.

GROCERIES.—A fresh assortment of Sugar, Coffee, Tea, Molasses, Rice, Spices, &c. now opening and selling at the very lowest notch.—Recollect the Old Stand, East Main street, where good bargains are sure to be had.

apr19 CHAS. OGILBY.

NEW SPRING and SUMMER GOODS

THE subscriber has just received and is now opening at his store, on the South west corner of the Public Square, an unusually cheap stock of seasonable goods, such as Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings, Alpacas, Silks, Bombazines, Lawns, Ginghams, Cambric, Jaconet, Mull, Swiss, Book and other descriptions of fine white Muslins, Checks, Tickings Gloves, Hosiery, &c.

A large stock of MUSLINS, white and unbleached, from 3-4 to 1-4 in breadth, and from 4 cents per yard up in price.

A splendid stock of CALICOES at prices varying from 4 to 12½ cts.

Also, a fresh stock of the

CELEBRATED FLUID LAMPS, which he has lately introduced, and which are found to be by all that have tried them, the most economical and desirable article in every respect now in use. Also the

The Pekin Company's Teas.

He has been appointed sole agent in this place for the sale of the above Teas, to which he would invite the special attention of the lovers of good Teas. The manner in which they are put up is such, as that the flavour is preserved for any length of time, being incased in lead or tin foil. Families can be supplied ith any quantity put up in this manner.

The public is respectfully invited to call and examine his stock before purchasing elsewhere inasmuch as he feels confident that his variety and prices will be satisfactory to purchasers.

apr5 ROBERT IRVINE, jr.

Miscellaneous.

From the Boston Transcript.

Fanny Forrester's Bird.

We mentioned yesterday that a paragraph in the Manmain Free Press announced that a daughter had been born to Mrs. Judson, of the mission at Maulmain, formerly well known under the NOM DE PLUME of Fanny Forrester. We are glad to have more decided confirmation of the fact from the lady's own testimony, which is not so metaphorical that there will be any question of its signification. The lines, which follow, and which bear date, Maulmain, January, 1848, (Fanny is at the antipodes, you must remember,) are from the June number of the Columbian Magazine, where they appeared under the title of "My Bird."

Ere last year's moon had left the sky,
A birdling sought my Indian nest,
And folded, oh so lovingly!
Her tiny wings upon my breast.

From morn till evening's purple tinge,
In winsome helplessness she lies,
Two rose leaves, with a silken fringe,
Shut softly on her starry eyes.

There's not in Ind a lovelier bird;
Broad earth owns not a happier nest;
Oh God, thou hast a fountain stirred,
Whose waters never more shall rest!

This beautiful, mysterious thing,
This seeming visitant from Heaven,
This bird with the immortal wing,
To me—to me thy hand has given.

The pulse first caught its tiny stroke,
The blood its crimson hue from mine;
This life, which I have dared invoke,
Henceforth is parallel with mine.

A silent awe is in my room—
I tremble with delicious fear:
The future, with its light and gloom,
Time and Eternity are here.

Doubts—hopes, in eager tumult rise:
Hear, oh my God: one earnest prayer:
Room for my bird in Paradise,
And give her Angel plumage there!

STATISTICS OF THE MEXICAN WAR.—The N. Orleans Bulletin is summing up the losses in the Mexican war, by death in the battle field and by disease. The former bear but a small proportion to the latter. The soldier in Mexico had much less danger to encounter from the bullets of the foe than from the inhospitable climate. The whole number of Americans killed in the war, including the line of the Rio Grande and that of Vera Cruz, is estimated at 2000, and the wounded 4000 It is impossible to say how many of the latter have died in consequence of their wounds but we should suppose not less than one fourth, say 1000, making in all 3000 deaths from battle.

The ravages of disease were terrible. At Perote there are 2600 American graves all victims of disease. At the City of Mexico the deaths were, for the greater part of the time, 1000 monthly.

The first Mississippi Regiment that went out to the Rio Grande, buried 135 on the banks of that river before it ever went into battle, and finally brought back less than one third of their number. They suffered dreadfully at Buena Vista.

The first and second Pennsylvania Regiments, recently returned, went out 1800 strong, (900 each;) they brought home at bout 600 of their original number. About 220 fell in battle, nearly 400 died, and about 600 were discharged as unfit for duty. How many of the latter have since died is of course unknown.

The third and fourth Tennessee Regiments, also recently returned, lost 360 by death.—Neither of these regiments have been in action.

Capt. Naylor, of Pennsylvania, took down a company of 104 men, he brought back seventeen; he entered the battle of Contreras with 33 men, he brought 29 out of it.

The most frightful instance of mortality, however, that we have heard of, was in that gallant corps, the Georgia Battalion, commanded by a gallant and accomplished officer, Colonel Seymour.

They were considered acclimated, and actually suffered much less whilst in the lower country, than when marched into the interior, on the high land. The battalion went to Mexico 419 strong; about 220 actually died; a large number were discharged with broken down and ruined constitutions; and many of them, no doubt, have since gone to their graves; and the battalion was reduced to thirty-four men fit for duty!! On one parade, when a certain company was called, that had mustered upwards of 100 men, a single private answered to the call, and who is sole living representative. The Captain, the three Lieutenants, the four Sergeants and the four Corporals, every commissioned and non-commissioned officer, were dead!

We have heard from officers of many other regiments details very similar to those we have given above, which may be taken as about the fair average losses for all the volunteer regiments. The regulars did not suffer to the same extent.

One of the most celebrated physicians of Philadelphia, informed us a few days ago that on last Saturday week, he was summoned to attend a sick child by its mother who felt much alarmed at the ill-health of her cherub. The doctor, after looking at the child and feeling its pulse, ordered the mother to fill a large tub three parts with water—then get a pound of good yellow soap, and a course towel, put the child into the water, and keep it there until it was thoroughly bathed and rubbed the soap being freely applied the while.

"But doctor," said the mother, "you mean to order some medicine, don't you?"

"For the present this is all that is necessary. On Monday morning I will call again."

When he came on Monday the child was perfectly well.

"Why, doctor," inquired the mother "this is very strange—as much like washing."

"Very like indeed," answered the doctor as he took his leave.

"Jim," remarked a gentleman a few days ago "did you ever during your residence in the West and South, have occasion to draw an article of this kind?" drawing at the same time a bowie knife of the most formidable dimensions from its scabbard.

"Never but once," replied the wag, and that drew it a little.

THE CHOLERA IN RUSSIA.—The following is an extract from a letter dated St. Petersburg, June 19, (July 1):—"The cholera has now raged here for more than a week, and about 800 cases are reported daily. The great mortality among the Moujiks has led them, in their ignorance, to believe that they are being poisoned wholesale, and yesterday several disturbances took place in consequence of some of the people attacking persons whom they suspected of strewing poison over the provisions exposed for sale in the markets. One man was beaten to such a degree that he has since expired, and a respectable English merchant (resident of the place) who attempted to interfere, was hardly able to escape a similar fate. Summary punishment has, however, been inflicted by the authorities upon the poor deluded Moujiks, who were the principal aggressors, for three of them were this morning publicly flogged in the same market-place. During the flogging the Emperor arrived, and stopped the punishment, so one of the men got off shot free.

"He then addressed the crowd, representing the unlawfulness of their proceedings, in taking the law into their own hands, and warned them, at their peril not to act similarly on future occasions. He spoke very energetically, and what he said seemed to have great effect on his audience. In conclusion, he told them that if they saw anything suspicious, they were to denounce the parties they suspected to the police authorities, who would then investigate the matter, and punish them if found guilty of anything wrong. The tall commanding figure of the Emperor, with his eagle-like look; the swarthy features of the bearded Moujiks, with their hats off; their looks of appeal to his Majesty, whom they revere and fear as children do their father; all this together formed a picture which will not easily be forgotten by those who were present. It is rumored that troops are being concentrated in the town, for fear of disturbances to-morrow (Sunday.) One Englishman here, an iron-founder, who employs about 3000 men, will have a grand religious ceremony on his premises to-morrow, in order to keep his people's minds engaged, and to deter them from roaming about and falling into danger. It is said that the malignity of the disease is decreasing, as cases are now cured, whereas, during the first few days none recovered who were attacked.

☞ A little periodical entitled the "World we live in," presents the following testimonial to the merits of the Graffenburg Pill:

'My Deer Sur: Phinding it necessary, for the kontinued helth of my phamily, to remane taking the Graffenburg Phamily Pil, as awl my children is affected wil a variety of dessesses, and as I deam it a possitive dooty to akquant the readers of your invaluabel Gernal of the hextraordinary working of this magnanimous medsin. My wife had the primitive consumpsion in an offul wa, and I korled on Dr. Sextant, won of the importers from Germenny, and I get all a box: gave her won every one for three weaks, rendering her hoapful, for the pressent. She rekovered herselph, and is now, thanks to Dr. Sextant, kervalescent. My next dorter had a repudiated soar finger, wit a smal wurt at the end. She tuched the wurt with sum Green mounting ointment, and took eighteen pills before her Dinner, which vomited meessant, the wurt went of, and she is now a Living model, and goes into the 1st Sosiety in konsequence.

'The next kase is my Grammuther, by my Farther's side. She had the palpetashun of he hindolent organ of hydrefobin, which pulled her doun aul a feet. She took two Boxes and won valise full of Pils, and a pound of ointment and a quarter of a pound of Butter, and is now entirely releeved of the impediment, and want of dyet, and is one hundred years old next Krismas, which she oalways expekts to reach every anny wersary. I'll give you my remaining phamily sicknesses and there kures in my next letter; thankin' yow four yewr frenship and for the prinsipal and interest taken in this glorious korse of the clensing of mankind by the celebrated Germun Fishisien, Dr. Graffenberg.'

CALL THINGS BY THEIR RIGHT NAMES.—An affair occurred in a town in Vermont, a few days ago, which in spite of the seriousness of the subject with which it was connected, must have been exceedingly ludicrous, and which illustrates the necessity of calling things by their right names. A deacon of the church, as usual, went to the store with his jug for some wine for the communion, and in calling for it, instead of calling for wine, as he should, he said he would take "a little more of that oil." The store-keeper—very innocently probably—filled the jug with oil, and no mistake, and the deacon went home. The accident was not discovered and the oil went upon the communion table and was partaken of by the church—no one wishing, at that peculiar time, to make the result known.—Nashua (N. H.) Telegraph.

THE DARK SIDE OF MATRIMONY.—Lately a slave in the West Indies, who had been married to another slave by one of the missionaries, at the end of three weeks brought his wife back to the clergyman; and desired him to take her back again. The clergyman asked what was the matter with her.

"Why, massa, she no good. The book says she obey me. She no wash my clothes. She no do what I want her to do."

The minister: "But the book says you were to take her for better or for worse."

"Yes massa, but she all worse and no better. She am too much worse and no good at all."

☞ A writer in Hunt's Magazine says, when he commenced trade in this country many years ago, he sold English chintz prints for sixty-five cents a yard, and a servant girl received for wages fifty cents per week, and paid four dollars for a dress pattern, now a girl gets one to two dollars per week, and yet can purchase a first-rate article for a dress at eighteen cents per yard. This change he attributes to the increase of the population, improvement in machinery, particularly in the invention of the spindle, competition, manufacturing our own goods, and substituting capital for credit.

REVENGE EXTRAORDINARY.—A wag having had a dispute with a man who kept a sausage shop, and owing him a grudge, ran in to his shop, one day as he was serving several good customers, with an immense dog, cut, which he quickly deposited on the counter, saying, "this makes nineteen—if you are busy now, we'll call some other time," and he was off in a twinkling. The customers, soon followed suit, leaving their sausages behind.

MORE GRAPE!

Locofoco Testimony in favor of Gen. Taylor.

WE publish below the Circular of the Democratic friends of Gen. Taylor in Pennsylvania. It was issued last Summer and received the cordial sanction of the Democratic party of this State. It is signed by many of the firmest and truest members of that party. Several, indeed, of the signatures will be recognized as mentioned, at this time, in connection with the Gubernatorial office. We are glad to have it in our power to add this endorsement to the many already published, in favor of Gen. Taylor. We have no doubt that Gen. Taylor will receive as many votes of the old Democratic party in this State as Gen. Cass. He will, with proper exertion on the part of our Whig friends, go over the State with an old-fashioned Jackson majority. As there has no change occurred in General Taylor since the publication of this circular, we hope to have the co-operation of Judge Eldred, Judge Bucher, Gen. Cameron, &c., in the prosecution of the campaign! A little more grape gentlemen and the day is our own!

CIRCULAR

OF THE DEMOCRATIC TAYLOR CENTRAL CORRESPONDING COMMITTEE.

At a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Democratic citizens, held at Harrisburg on the 26th of June 1847, the following among other resolutions were unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That this meeting of Democratic citizens, recognizing the omnipotence of the will of the people upon such a subject, and deeply impressed with the peculiar qualifications of Gen. ZACHARY TAYLOR for the Presidency, do hereby present him to the Democracy and the people of this State and Union; as the Democratic candidate, and the real candidate of the People for the office of President of the United States at the ensuing Presidential election.

"Resolved, That in the attachment of Gen. TAYLOR to THOMAS JEFFERSON—and in his warm friendship for ANDREW JACKSON, and in his determined opposition to a bank of the United States, his known patriotism, and the whole course of his life, we have the best warrant for our firm belief that he will administer the government upon those principles which have formed the policy of every Democratic administration, and whose object is the greatest good of the greatest number.

"Resolved, That a committee of correspondence be and are hereby appointed, for the purpose of interchanging sentiment with their fellow-citizens throughout the State, with a view and for the high purpose of promoting the nomination and election of Gen. ZACHARY TAYLOR to the Presidency;—and that the committee are clothed with full power, and are instructed to use all proper exertions to effect such political organization in Pennsylvania as may be calculated to vindicate and carry out the public will in regard to the next Presidency; and that the officers of the meeting appoint said committee."

The following named persons were appointed the committee:

Col. Seth Salisbury	P. Dougherty Esq
Hon. N. B. Eldred	James Peacock Esq
Hon. John M. Read	Hon. Geo. Kremer
Hon. Richard Vaux	Hon. Wm. Dock
Gen S. Cameron	D. W. C. Brooks Esq

O. Barrett Esq	Gen. Wm. Clark
E. C. Carson Esq	John P. Brua Esq
H. A. Muhlenberg	H. C. Overton Esq
Andrew Miller	J. Murray Rush Esq

Joseph J. Lewis, Esq.

Instructed by the foregoing resolutions, the committee beg leave to address you, and ask your co-operation in carrying out the object therein set forth.

Satisfactory information from all parts of the Union leave us no room to doubt that General ZACHARY TAYLOR, the hero of Okee-Chobee, Palo Alto, Resaca de la Palma, Monterey and Buena Vista, is the SPONTANEOUS FAVORITE of the "toiling millions" of America, for the office of President of these U. States; and it is a just cause of congratulation that the PEOPLE, they who pay our taxes, fight our battles, and make our Presidents by their votes, have taken the matter of the selection of a candidate INTO THEIR OWN HANDS and are calmly but resolutely, moving forward in the exercise of one of their dearest rights, guaranteed to them by the blood of their revolutionary fathers. This right should NEVER BE DELEGATED AWAY or entrusted to the management of others, except when necessary to procure a concentrated action in sustaining great and essential principles, by the selection of one from among a number of talented and and equally patriotic and worthy men, presented and urged from different sections of our common country, as an appropriate standard bearer thus avoiding division and consequent defeat.

No such a necessity exists at the present time. ACHIEVEMENTS the most brilliant—TALENTS the most undeniable and exalted and PATRIOTISM the most devoted, superadded to a life and character, ENTIRELY SPOTLESS, have marked out one of our citizens, raised him FAR ABOVE THE LEVEL OF EVEN THE GREAT MEN OF OUR COUNTRY, producing a CONCENTRATION OF THE PUBLIC GAZE, and an UNANIMITY OF THE PUBLIC VOICE, which places the matter BEYOND ALL REASONABLE DOUBT, and thus DISPENSES with the ordinary machinery of party politicians.

No man holding the principles which pervade our Declaration of Independence which animated and sustained our fathers in the conflict which terminated in the adoption of our invaluable constitution, but must recognize in the events of our history since that epoch, the same guiding Hand, and overruling Power upon which they relied, leading us onward and upward, as we are rapidly advancing towards the destinies far beyond the reach of mortal eye. Thirty years since, in our political history, when dangers, threatened our domestic peace and welfare, have the affections of the people at large been so drawn towards AN INDIVIDUAL, as to give unerring indications of HIS BEING THE MAN FOR THE EXIGENCY OF THE TIMES. A WASHINGTON, in whom all confided to settle and arrange our federal government, and a JACKSON with instinctive foresight to apprehend danger, and more than Roman firmness to meet and dispel it. Who but Gen. WASHINGTON, who had led our feeble armies to victory over the proudest of earth's nations, could have reconciled the conflicting interests of the States, built up from general bankruptcy a national credit, and cemented such seemingly discordant elements into a perfect union? And who but General Jackson who had closed the second war of Independence in a blaze of glory, could have, without a war, compelled France to do its long delayed justice; or with a purpose unbending as fate have delivered our country from that most powerful, dangerous and corrupt institution, the United States Bank?

The price of liberty is UNCEASING VIGILANCE; and we fear the day is yet far distant when the friends of freedom can lay aside their armor and fold their arms in security. Are there not some clouds now hanging about our political horizon, which although yet small, betoken to the observing patriot a storm which will require not only wisdom and strength, but COURAGE and UNSHRINKING FIRMNESS in HIM who is SAFELY TO HOLD THE HELM OF STATE? Statesmen in every section of our country are looking with intense interest upon the settlement of the questions which must grow out of the war in which we are now engaged. Who is the man for the occasion is no sooner asked, than THE PUBLIC VOICE, from the St. Croix to the Rio Grande answers GENERAL ZACHARY TAYLOR!

The PEOPLE BELIEVE that the man who can lead armies, ADVISE CABINETS, and win the affections of our citizen soldiers by his ENERGY, MORAL COURAGE, WISDOM and HUMANITY, is BEST FITTED TO FILL THE OFFICE which the Father of his country and the hero of New Orleans have shown, by their successful and glorious civil administrations, can be MOST SAFELY ENTRUSTED to those who in their own time and age are "first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of their countrymen."

We shall not in this circular write the eulogy of GEN. TAYLOR nor attempt to enumerate HIS BRILLIANT SERVICES.—They are written in letters of living light, not only in the pages of our country's history, but in the hearts of our fellow citizens! They are seen and read by ALL MEN EXCEPT THOSE WHOSE JAUNDICED EYES CANNOT BEAR THE SIGHT.

Gen. Taylor is not a professed politician.—He is descended from a DEMOCRATIC STOCK, and his associations, sympathies and sentiments, as well as his acts, show that he is a Democrat at heart. His father was a warm unflinching supporter of JEFFERSON, the father of democracy, and he has unwaveringly supported Gen. Jackson; who, more than any other man of his age, walked in the paths which JEFFERSON had marked out. The affection and confidence between them was so strong that a short time before his death, Gen. JACKSON pointed out Gen. TAYLOR, then, like Cincinnatus, on his farm, as a man for the times, whom he would endorse to the country.

Gen. TAYLOR IS NOT MERELY A WARRIOR, a "Military Chieftain", (an objection which Mr. Clay urged against General Jackson,) but the acts of his life, the RECORDS of the WAR DEPARTMENT at Washington, as well as HIS LATE MODEL DESPATCHES, show him to be a RIPE SCHOLAR and AN ACCOMPLISHED WRITER. His well known views in opposition to a bank of the United States, and in favor of a strict construction of the constitution, with the whole course of his life, are sufficient to satisfy any honest and reasonable mind as to the principles which will guide him in the administration of the government. THE PEOPLE, the HONEST YEOMANRY of the country, who ask no office but desire the greatest good of the greatest number, ARE SATISFIED, and with SINGULAR UNANIMITY are presenting him AS THEIR candidate for the highest and most responsible office in the world; and at the election in 1848, THEY WILL AS ONE MAN RALLY TO HIS SUPPORT.

After a consultation among ourselves, we have concluded to invite our fellow citizens to assemble in State meeting, at Harrisburg, on the glorious 24th of September next; the anniversary of the battle and victory of Monterey, for the purpose of adopting such measures as may be deemed exp
