Israel Painter, Esq. the loco candidate for Canal Commissioner, signed the 'Circular o the Democratic Taylor Central Committee issued Sept. 3, 1847, -copied on our first page, in which Gen Taylor is endorsed as a good Democrat, and every way qualified to fill-the Presidential chair, -ir. company with upwards of thirty leading locofocos of Pennsylvania. We have seen no public renunciation of the sentiments of the address by Mr. Painter, as yet.

Some of the miserable party slander ers, who kept themselves snugly enscorred at home, whilst Gen. Taylor was huxarding his life, have begun the business of abusing the Old Hero as stingy and mean, because when he left home for New Orleans he gave directions to refuse lefters from all whose handwriting was not recognized. They llink it very 'stingy' in him, that he refused $7,30 worth of letters, and permitted them to To to the General Post Office as dead letters.

Messrs, Ruese & Wars—Gentlemen—I was afflicted with Asthma for fourteen years, and had tried every remedy in the country: I had also been to several physicians, and found no relief whatever. I was afflicted at times so severely, that the blood would gush from my nose, and my breathing was difficult. Indeed, the disease had gained so much on me, that I desourced of ever getting well, when I chanced to get a bottle of "Wistrad's Balsan or With Chinary," which effected a perfect cure, and I now consider myself perfectly sound. This can be proved by numbers of men-lib Franklin county, and vicinity, and I think it my duty to let it be anower.
