After their reception an oration will be delivered by J. E. BONHAM, Esq. In the evening they will be our Hotels. The procession will be composed of the different associations, Masonic Lodges, Odd Fellows, Sons of Temperance, Fire Companies, U. S. Troops from the gar- ing and annexing the whole of Mexico, and rison, borough and neighboring Volunteer Companies, &c., It will form a most imposing display. The order of arrangements have been made known to the public in prined circulars. Gen. WILLIS FOULK has been appointed Chief Marshal of the procession issisted by a number of Aids. The precise day upon which they will arrive is not yet known, but will be duly anjounced in handbills, when reliable information is received. We trust that our citizens will enter into the ceremonies with spiritthat the hearts of the brave men who have acrificed so much for their country, may be gladdened by the approving smiles and the cordial welcome of their fellow-cutizens. The occasion we doubt not will attract many spectators from the vicinity of our borough.

A Foolish Candidate.

WELCOME to the Volunteers !

Mr. Manly, the Whig. candidate for Governor in N. Carolina, if not deleated has come within a hair's breadth of losing his eection in that staunch Whig State. "Indeendent," the Washington correspondent of but the Old Bay State has stood firm as the North American, thus accounts for the mexpected Whig falling-off:

"There is a sufficient cause for the depreiation of the Whig vote which has occurred rough I offer it in no-spirit of apology, for lonot much believe in the system of finding excuses alter deleat. By the Constitution of that state a distinction is prescribed between the qualifications of a voter for the two branches of the Legislature-a freehold of filly acres of land being required for the Sena and none for the-House of Commons. The politicians at Washington, concerted an issue founded upon the abolition of the property qualification and sent it to Mr. Reid, the Locoloco candidate, with instructions to make the canvass rest on the merits of this new lement. For some reason or other Mr. Mainly allowed himsell to be trapped by this movement, and instead of assenting to an amendment of the Constitution on this particular principle and going a step further for suffrage based on population, he had the infirmity to meet the issue and the folly to frage qualification, which has no sign of a ment to recommend it. It Mr. Manly is beaten under such einemstances, he is entitled to very little sympathy from the Whig party, whose cause he has jeopardized by an un-pardonable fatuity. If this lesson will have the effect of teaching our people a little prace-Cumberland, and others "friendly to the election of TAYLOR and FILLMORE, are hereby requested to assemble in their several wards, boroughs and townships, at the usual time and place of hold-ing Delegate Elections, on Saturday. the 19th of August, inst., to elect TWO DELEGATES in each of said wards, boroughs and townships, to, represent them in a COUNTY CONVENTOR, which shall meet at the Court House in the bo-rough of Carlisle,

Cass is of a Waterlop defeat on the 7th of November; inless he determines in the meantime, not to 'distract the party' by retiring."

A vile story which represented Gen. Tay. lor as having shamefully misused the North Carolina regiment of Volunteers, was also Adjournment of Congress. The session of Congress closed on Mon lay at 12 o'clock, noon. The Oregon bill was finally passed, free from all taint of Slavery. The House stood firm, and the Senute was obliged to recede from its amendment by which the Missouri Compromise was in serted. The President promptly signed the bill, and Gen. Shields was appointed Governor of Oregon.

The usual bills for the support of govern ment were passed. The River and Harbor failed. On Sunday an exciting scene look place in the Senate between Mr. Benton and Mr. Butler, of S. C. m relation to something that had transpired in secret session. A challenge followed from Mr. Butler, which was accepted, but the police got wind of the matter, and irustrated the scheme of a duel by the arrest of the parties. A pretty fact that to go abroad ! On Thursday, in the House communication was received and read from Nicholas the guests of a public entertainment at one of P.
