An Enthusiastic Meeting and an Eloquent Speech !

CTThe Rough and Ready Club of our orough had an overflowing and enthusiaslic meeting on Friday evening last, which was addressed by the Hon. CHARLES B. LEN-ROSE, who being in our borough on a visit, esponded to a special invitation of the Club to address them upon the political questions which enter into the Presidential canvass. His speech on this occasion is we believe the first speech delivered by Mr. Penros since the memorable campaign of 1840, in which he bore so distinguished and active a part. To a Carlisle audience his voice on Friday night came like "the crack of the old Rifle," and woke up at once the enthusiasm which his spirit-stirring eloquence never ailed to excite in the hearts of his old contituents. The speech was an able one in every respect. fact is, if we are to believe the Washington Union, or his Michigan letter, Cass is abso lutely pledged to veto the Proviso if it should pass Congress. We defy the Editor of the

Taylor has declared that he will abide by the will of the people. Cass is in avor of opening new territory for the spread ter of Lewis Cass. of slavery. Taylor is opposed to the acquigainst the extension of slavery. Cass was in favor of the annexation of Texas. Taylor than the honest old Commodore was able to was opposed to it. Cass says that Congress which is the voice of the people, has no con trol over this subject. The people say, through Congress, we have the control of it, just as the Representatives of the People and Taylor says the Executive ought to carry out the wishes of Congress. Which of these two candidates, then, can the opponeuts of slavery-extension most safely support? Let them reflect and act wisely.

LATER FROM EUROPE. Reported for the Herald.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMSHIP CAM-BRIA-THE REBELLION IN IRELAND -GREAT BATTLE IN ITALY. The Cambria, which arrived at New York on Saturday, brings intelligence of an unsuccessful dutbreak in Ireland. We of course have to fely upon the English version of the matter, for the Irish papers friendly to the Irish cause have been mostly suppressed .---This will account for the ridicule thrown over the movement. A collision had taken place between the police and insurgents; the latter have been worsted and the leaders are fleeing from arrest! The immense preparations made by the English government seems to overpower all idea of effectual resistance. A continued. stream of lorces, consisting of cavalry, infantry and artillery have poured into Ireland, and an immense fleet of war steamers encircled the whole coast. The Felon, Nation and other papers were seized, the types carried away, and effectual steps taken to prevent their re-appearance. Nine counties were further proclaimed under the Arms Act, including Kerry, Galway and seven baronies in Cork county, Wexford, Queen's co., Carlow, Kildare, Wicklow, and eight baronies in King's county; Westmeath, Louth, and four baronies in Cavan; Famey, in Monaghan; two baronies in Armagh, and the barony of Newry, in the county of Down, Meantime numerous arrests have been made in Dublin and in various courties. Patrick O'Higgins, the leader of the Dublin Chartists, was the first person sent to Kilmainham jail on a charge of high treason. From the latest advices received from the disturbed districts about Billingarry; where General Macdonald has established his head quarters, everything continues peaceable, with the general impression that the moment the troops, are, withdrawn, dissatisfaction would again show itself. O'Brien' is supposed, by the most cool-headed people writing from the spot, to be concealed in some of the mines in the neighborhood.

-Wilmer and Smith's European Times says -"it is quite evident, from all that has occurred that the movement has totally failed. The most sanguine of the confederates must now be aware that there never existed the smallest chance of successfully coping with the British arms," Other and Starfling Intelligence !

The N. Y. Tribune of Monday, gives what purports to be a private letter from a confidential correspondent in Dublin, dated Au-gust 3d, which gives an entirely, different version of the Irish outbreak. The information brought by the Tribune's correspondent is, that a great battle was fought at Slievenamon, which resulted in the deteat of the British forces, with the loss of 6000 killed & wounded, Gen MacDonald being among the former. The writer also says, that the Irish leaders Meagher and Dillon have been wounded. The troops, it is said, had fraternized with the people. It was generally expected that the people of Dublin would rise and attack the jails on the 6th of August. The Trihune speaks confidently of the truth of this iews, but it is disbelieved by other N.
