A Lady in Troy, N. Y., who had been given up by her physicians, sends us the following:

Troy, May 15, 1846.

Mr. Fowler—In October last, Tlook a violent cald, which settled on my-luings and produced a hacking cough, accompanied with night sweats, which reduced me very low. A few days after I was taken I employed one of our best physicians, but received an hiely I tried another, but with no better success, and finally a third, still growing worse all the while. At this stage of the disease I was reduced so low as to be unable to turn myself in my bed, or sit up while my bed was made. My physiciads finally gave me mp, and said that I had the Consumption, and that there was, no help for me. My friends advised ne to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, but the doctors objected, said that it would only harry me out of the world; I finally procured a battle, and by using three bottles I was restored to perfect health.
