Mr. Geo. Spangler—Sir: We have been using the Thermiometer Churn-I got of you for some time, and find it far superior to the old barrel churn for several reasons; first, great saving of time in getting butter, the average time of churning about fifteen minutes, (all weathers); secondly, the butter when obtained is much tirmer than when using any other churn; finally, my folks say they would not exchange it for any other churn and twice the original coat of the Thermometer Churn.

Sep. 28, 1848.] G. W. SHEAFFER.

Mr. Geo. Spangler—I have had the Crowell Thermometer Churn you made for me in use at my place, and I do not hesitate to say that no Farmer should be without it. Fifteen minutes is all the time required to make Butter, and the value of this saving of time and labor consists in this, that it requires no more time at any one season than another; and that the temperature of the gream necessary to make butter, is produced with certainty, and without the admixture-of warm or cold water with the cream itself.

After using the Thermometer Churn made by Mr. Spangler of this place; I would have none other in my family. We have been using the old barrel churn for thirty years past, and I must say it is not to be compared to Crowell's Thermometer Churn, either for speed of churning or convenience; in the old barrel churn it took generally from four to six hours to churn the churning, now in the Thermometer Churn we can churn butter in from fitteen to twenty minutes, by brining the cream to the proper temperature. I gan recommend it to the public as no cheat.
