Lying Locofoco Pamphlets!

BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION, FUND! Since the Governor's election in this State, the corrupt horde of office-holders af Washington have become frantic and desperate. They have taised HALF A MILLION OF DOLLARS, with which they say Pennsylvania must be carried for Cass and Butler .-Having given up all hopes of New York, they calculate to import votes enough from there to carry Pennsylvania. Free voters of Pennsylvania, watch well your ballot-boxes! Let the mercenary office-holders know that you can neither be bought up, or defrauded ok your rights!

They have also got up two new LYING PAMPHLETS, with which to deceive the people. One is intended for the North, the other for the South. The first is headed, "Read Pennsulvamans, and decide at the Polls It is intended for Northern circulation alone, and attempts to show that Gen. Taylor will veto the Wilmot Proviso, if elected President. Huge bundles of these pamphlets have been sent within's week to leading Locofocos in Carlislo, and thrown broad-cast among the community. It is also attempted to be rain or shine, hail or snow, before they shown that Gen_Taylor received catra pay, all of which is filse, and the authors know it.

The other pamphlet, issued by the very same men, but intended for Southern circulation alone, attempts to prove that both Gen. TIONISTS; and that Gen. Taylor has given those with cheated them so badly and laurels. From 1835 to 1840, he was in the Florida war, and acted throughout with great

The Popular Votc.

The Locofocos are trying to coasele themselves for their recent defeat by the inference that the vote in Pennsylvania was a small affair compared to what it will be in Novempleas well, when it states that the vote for Governor last month was by far the largest ever cast in the State. It exceeds by 9,000 box the highest ever before cast in Pennsylvania "Gov. Johnston, has 8,000 more votes than any candidate for Governor ever before had. ile has 7,000 more than Clay had in '44, and nearly 8,000 more than Shunk, and 1,000 more than Polk's triumphant vote. He has Rally from every hill !- Rally from ever more votes than Pennsylvania ever cast for any other man that ever tived! Il Locologoism can derive any consolation from these facts or from guessing how many votes might liave been polled this year, it is welcome so to amuse itself.

CONGRESSIONAL VOTE. -- The Locoloco arith-* meticians are trying to cypher up a Locofoed majority in the State on the Congressional vote. They claim 3,956-but how do they arrive at this result? Simply by appropriat "I'ling to themselves nearly the entire scattering vote in the State, For example, in the 11th district where a staunch Whig is elected to Congress, a Locoloco majority is made to appear of powards of 2,000 !- while 15,288 of the remainder of its aggregate majority is made up in four of the strongest Locoloco districts, Berks included, where Longstreth

FRIENDS OF TAYLOR!

On TUESDAY, NEXT, Freemen

You have achieved one triumphant victory in the election of Gov. JOHN-SON. You can as certainly ELECT Gen. ZACHARY TAYLOR, on Tuesday next, if you attend the election and deposite YOUR VOTE for him. This is ALL THAT IS NEEDED On the part of every friend of Gen. Taylor. LET NOTH-ING PREVENT YOU FROM VOTING, then. We told you that a FULL YOTE would elect Gov. Johnson. You did not give him a rull vote, but fortunately he was elected. Gov. Johnson received 108 votes less in Cumberland County than you gave Henry Clay in 1814; and consequently lacked 80 of a majority. Don't let this be the case, we entreat you, on Tuesday next! Old Mother Cumber'and must have her full share in the great victory! Give OLD ZACH EVERY VOTE, and you ensure him a majority of a hundred in our county, and of thousands in the State! Arouse, then, friends of Taylor! Let every man work, and out EVERY VOTE!

HIS PERSONAL CHARACTER. If have traced him from the earliest re-cords of his history. I find that a strong love of justice and a deep regard for liberty al-ways characterized his conduct. I find him teinperate, laborious, frugal, simple, and plain in all his tastes, and ready at all times to sacrifice self to secure the comforts of his fellow soldiers. Though his life has been devoted to arms, I find him drawing his let the great object of his work be to get sword only at the bidding of his Government, and always tempering the stern necessities of war with the more glorious attributes of benevolence and mercy. When the lient of battle was over, no wife was made a widow, no children fatherless, by any act of his. orilliant career; his hand never signed a death avarrant. When he surveyed the fields of his glory, the sternness of the warrior yielded to the noble impulses of the man, and you find him with a heart tender as that of a child, overflowing at the sight of human misery. If there is one feature in his character more strongly marked than another, t is a high stern regard for justice. In all the leading traits of his character, there is a striking resomblance to that of Washington The one has evidently served as a model for the other. Their characters were formed under very similar circumstances. Both er tered the army while young men, and the first services of both were on the frontiers, warring against savages. There is probably that we have vot renough to give the majority on the 7th of November to Old no situation better calculated to develope the minut of man and strengthen his character. mind of man and strengthen his character than this, His energies are kept constantly awake by the sleepless activity of the foe with which he is contending. Such are the qualities, such the 'character of the man whom the Whigs seek to clevate to the Presidency. Let us now briefly glance

BIRTH, PROGRESS, AND SERVICES: Gen Taylor was born in 1790, and is now 58 years of age. In 1808, Jefferson commis sioned him a lieutenant in the 7th Regiment U.S. Infantry. In 1812, as a reward for services, he was made a Cappin by Madison, and commander of Fort farrison.

On the 4th of September, 1812, with only twenty men under his command, he delen-

He gar risoned Point I sabel, and then marched to a point opposite Matamoras, which was occupied by Gen. Arista and several thousand Mexican troops. On the 8th of May, as a necessary consequence of the previous or ders of Government, the battle of Palo Alto took place between about 6000 Mexicans and about 2000 Americans under Taylor.-The latter were victorious. On the 9th, the battle of Resaca de la Palma followed, and Taylor was again victorious. On the 18th Matamoras was occupied by Gen. Taylo atter a severe cannonading. Volunteers now flocked to Gen. Taylor's standard, and town after town on the Rio Grande tell, and the Government'still ordered the victor onward Government still ordered the victor onward. From this time to the present, the Polk administration has done all in its power to destroy Gen. Taylor. And neither of these talentee nodel of George Washington One of our editors have hesitated to express over and listinguished men who says he has devoted over again, the most sneering contempt for Gen. Taylor's "mental capacity"!! Gen. Taylor's want of "intellectual ability" has also been a favorite theme of the big and little orators of the Locoloco party of this county.

These editors and orators have discovered all these deficiencies in Gen. Taylor since his nomination by the Philadelphia Convention -We might prove this by extracts from th Volunteer and Democrat, if we had room to them. The Volunteer of May 14, 1847, pub lishes with apparent satisfaction a letter from the Hon. Simon Cameron, which contains high-wrought eulogy of Gen. Taylor's intel lectual and moral qualities! The Democra noticed with approval the proceedings of the No court martial followed in the train of his Democratic Taylor Conventions held about that time, and formally gave in its own ad hesion to Gen. Taylor, in the lotlowing para graph :

"Our neighbor seems quite importunate of the subject of General Taylor's nomination by the Democracy. Whit friend until the ides of March next, and You WILL SEE THE OLD HERO'S NAME FLOATING AT THE MAST HEAD OF EVERTY DISTORMATIC JOURNAL IN THE COUNTRY! Stick a pin there!"—American Democrat of July 14, 1847

But to cap the climax, we find the follow ing among a series of resolutions reported b Mr. W. M Beetern, and unanimously adop led at a Locofoco County Convention, helon the 17th of August, 1847-

on the 17th of August, 18-17—
Resolved, That we entertain a high regard for the distinguished bravery and patriousm of Zachary Taylor, and we rejoice that the brave old General has too much patriotism and self respect to permit his name to be used as the candidate of a party who have denounced the country and the cause, in defence of which he has acquired imperishable fame. We hope to see old Rough and Randy in better and more congenial company, and we will then he most harry to vieto him our cordinal surrout for the Presidence of the Union.

We have the astounding fact disclose in these extracts, that "the Democracy." which is now so energetically engaged in showing up Gen. Taylor's "want of fitness and qualification" for the Presidency, was but one short year ago trying to steal hin from the Whigs and make him the LOCOFO CO CANDIDATE for the very office for whose duties they now dedare him unfil—We have not room for further comment, but commend this exposure of Locoloce hypocrisy and meanness to the unprejudiced of all parties. It is a sufficient answer to Locofoco sucers at Gen. Taylor.

Glancing at the qualifications of General Taylor, whose name had been mentioned as the possible candidate of the democratic party, Mr. Wright remarks: "I know nothing of his tastes and qualifiand successful soldiers have those qualifications in perfection; and some have not a single one of them-but in civil situations are wholly destitute of moral firmness. We have a class of men in Cumberland county-all of them Whigs in principlewho refrain from voting, on alleged conscientious grounds. With these men's assiscounty every year. But they stay away from upon them just as fast as it pleases. We commend to these men the following remarks of President WAYLAND, of the Baptist

The happiness and virtue of the community, no less than he security of property; depends greatly on the character of the magistracy. If I am in-nred in person or property by a wicked pub-lic officer. I have a right to cemplain of my fellow citizens who gave him authority over me, or who, when it was in their power, die not prevent his election. A Lie Nailed!

One of the stories retailed by the loco foco Mississippi Legislature, which was appointed to invite him to visit that State; "that the South ought never to submit to the Wilmot Proviso." The statement rested on the authority of a Col. Boone, a leading locotoco of the State. He is said to have been the Chairman of the Committee. It now appears that Col. Henry was chairman, and he knows nothing of such a sentence having been uttered by General Taylor. The Worcester (Mass.) Whig has an article upon the subject, and has forever set the matter at rest .-The editor says, "General Taylor has contradicted it under his own sign manual. This we know; we have seen and read the contradiction, with the name of Zuchary Taylor affixed to it." The truth is that Gen. Taylor has never

For the Herald. ALLEN TOWNSHIP, Oct. 28.

MR, EDITOR-I being a Farmer that earns ny bread by the sweat of my brow, have presumed lo take my pen and give you an account of how matters are going on about cations for civil administration. Some brave Old Zach. I can tell you we are busy. On Friday I thought I was but one man and my country might go into the hands-of the British party again. I started for my horsento haul in some corn; old Bully took a race eross the field, thinks I you may run. I went to Bubb'sv Says I, Lewis what will we do towards the meeting on Saturday. He says by jing we must have a Liberty pole raised. Agreed says I. We went to work. soon found a beauty about 80 feet high. I says to Lewis what will we put on it, where will we get a flag. Says Lewis we will empty the powder out of the keg, and put tance the Whigs might carry Cumberland that on the top of it, it will do for three things, it will put us mind of an 1840 cider the election, and Locofocosm piles taxes barrel, and how Old Zach made Polk's friend Santa Anna run; and now being empty it will show Old Zach like Washington is first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of our countrymen. All was got ready, and it looked very gloomy through the afternoon. Towards evening the Whitehill delegation appeared. The noble Squire and Elias Medan off coats and af it they went .-The hole was soon dug, not by hirelings with British Manufacturers' money, but with our own hard hands. Some was for cutting a piece off it, said it was too heavy. No, said Lewis, not for twenty dollars, it will go up just like Old Zach goes President. By this time the people swarmed in like bees to a sive towards evening. All was ready, the Squire stood at the butt to see all right. We gave heave all together, it went right up and and Van Buren papers, and which they keep not shout huzza for Old Zach? I guess we General Taylor said to a Committee of the did, and I can tell you if we could have canality south nose agent of the British man ufacturers among us such as I saw in Carlisle lew days ago, we would have given him marching orders to the Picton mines. Well the pole up, we organized our meeting. It was ably opened by the Squire, and the Lo cofoco or British party shown off in its true colors. He then introduced to us Mr. Frederick Fenn of Harrisburg, who gave an address true and pointed and to the purpose showing us clearly that the Locoloco party are standing on the Baltimore platform,

Well we got a cannon cast for ourselves, bought our own powder, (British-manufacturers' money in the hands of a snub nose agent has no charms for us,) we fired a shot for each Slate, Florida echoed seven times, but poor Texas fizzled out. I can tell you we had a glorious time of it. The Sherbans, the Sidler's, the Coover's, the Eberly's and all the other marrow bones of the party will election, and stay by it, from it opens to it closes, to see that the British agents get no
