

A BUREAU VISTA VICTORY!!

OLD ZACK HAS COME!

The People have Spoken and ZACHARY TAYLOR is President of the United States!

With feelings of gratification far deeper than we can express, do we announce that the Election held on Tuesday last has resulted in the choice of Gen. ZACHARY TAYLOR and MILLARD FILLMORE as President and Vice President of the United States! Heartily do we congratulate our readers upon this auspicious result. Heartily do we rejoice with our Whig fellow-citizens upon an occasion which will give us the blessings of good government for at least four years. Under a Whig Administration the business of the country will resume and course healthfully through its accustomed channels. The Legislation of Congress will be, as in the better days of the Republic, enlightened and salutary. There will be a return to the halcyon days of Washington, Jefferson, Madison and Monroe. We shall live, under the benign influence of a Whig Administration, prosperous and happy at home, and in Peace and amity with the Nations of the earth!

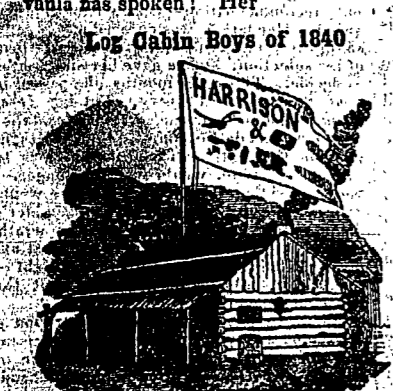

PENNSYLVANIA THE FLAG STATE!

Pennsylvania is acknowledged on all hands to be the Whig Flag State of the Union! Her soil was the great battle-ground of the contest, and the thunder of her TEN THOUSAND MAJORITY for TAYLOR and FILLMORE decided the contest! Proudly soars her has also come "out of the woods," and is again perched in exulting triumph over his prostrate adversary, whose "comb is cut" worse than Old Zack cut that of his Mexican duff-belt contemporary at Buena Vista! We have now the last sad tribute of respect to pay to our erring Locofoco brethren, in escorting their melancholy procession to the wharf and seeing them safely on board the "long, low, black schooner," for their dismal

Our Matchless Constitution. The ship Free Trade, LEWIS CASS, master, will leave Washington on the 4th of March next for Salt River, with a legion of office-bearers as passengers, and freighted with Shepherd's Medicines for the use of the passenger.

TELEGRAPHIC DESPATCH: Millard Fillmore, Nov. 15, N.Y. M. Fillmore elected President, Z. Taylor Vice-President.

Results in the States

MAINE. In 226 towns Taylor has 10,897; Cass 19,303. Cases 29,887, showing a Whig gain of 1133. The remaining towns however will probably keep Cass still ahead.

NEW HAMPSHIRE. In 134 towns Taylor has 10,897; Cass 19,303. Van Buren 7,384—a net Whig gain of 1133. The remaining towns however will probably keep Cass still ahead.

VERMONT. In 112 towns Taylor has 14,376; Cass 8,777; Van Buren 7,384—a net Whig gain of 2716 since September. Vermont is the safe place for Taylor.

MASSACHUSETTS. In 344 towns Taylor has 14,376; Cass 8,777; Van Buren 7,384—a net Whig gain of 2716 since September. Vermont is the safe place for Taylor.

CONNECTICUT. Taylor 29,304, Cass 25,530, Van Buren 4,747. The land of steady habits goes for old Zack by over 3000 majority.

RHODE ISLAND. Taylor 9,539, Cass 3,610, Van Buren 711. Little Rhode is safe at steel.

NEW YORK. Taylor's plurality will be somewhat between 40,000 and 100,000—not yet clearly known. The Whigs have elected 52 members of Congress, to one Free Soil man and one lococo. The Whigs elect a Governor, and have the Legislature. Not known yet between Van Buren and Cass which has the largest vote.

NEW JERSEY. Taylor 7,754, Cass 4,476. Taylor majority will be at least 2000. The Whigs have the Legislature, and four out of five members of Congress. Hurra! for the Jersey Blues!

DELAWARE. This heroic little State gives Taylor a majority of about 800. The Blue Hen's chickens "never surrender."

PENNSYLVANIA. Great and gloriously for Taylor—see table of returns in another column.

VIRGINIA. In 85 counties heard from Old Zack gains 2500 on Clay's vote in 1844, when Polk had about 5600 majority. The result is yet in doubt.

OHIO. The young Buckeye State has wandered from the fold and bowed to false gods. Van Buren has drawn an immense vote from the Whig ranks, and this given the State to Cass by probably 10,000 majority.

NORTH CAROLINA. The Whig Governor was elected in August by 840 of a majority. Gen. Taylor gave him a narrow margin to go on to give him the State by probably 5000 of a majority.

MARYLAND. Taylor gains largely all over the State and cannot have less than 8000 majority.

SOUTH CAROLINA. The Legislature met and chose electors for John C. Calhoun and Gen. Commanchee.

KENTUCKY. John J. Crittenden had several thousand majority for Governor, in August, and old Zack gains on him in every county! Nuff said!

TENNESSEE. Sufficient returns are in, says the Nashville Whig, to ensure 5000 majority for Taylor!

GEORGIA. In 68 counties Gen. Taylor's gain on last election is about 2000, which makes Georgia O. K.

LOUISIANA. Gen. Taylor's majority in New Orleans is 1051, which indicates that the State has gone for him by about 2200 majority.

MICHIGAN. Gen. Cass carries his own State by 7,000 majority, but the Whigs it is said have gained one member of Congress.

WISCONSIN & IOWA. A despatch in yesterday's papers says that Iowa and Wisconsin have gone for Cass.

ILLINOIS & INDIANA. Illinois has gone for Cass largely, but Indiana is yet in doubt and there is some hope of Taylor carrying it.

ARKANSAS & MISSISSIPPI. Few returns as yet, but in the counties heard from in each State Taylor gains considerable, and seems to have a fair chance of carrying the latter particularly.

MISSOURI & TEXAS. Have, both we sincerely hope, and expect, gone for Cass, especially the latter. We have no returns from Texas yet!

Vote of Pennsylvania.

	1848	1844	1840
Johnston, Longstreth, Taylor, Cass.	3021	2621	2621
Allegheny	2029	1814	1814
Adams	525	439	439
Armstrong	39	39	39
Beaver	382	301	301
Butler	151	151	151
Cambria	806	1039	1039
Carbon	101	315	315
Chester	285	230	230
Clark	270	270	270
Clearfield	228	238	238
Columbia	725	380	380
Dauphin	825	64	64
Erie	1176	1088	1088
Fayette	269	330	330
Gardner	383	188	188
Harrisburg	383	188	188
Huntingdon	481	400	400
Indiana	381	143	143
Juniata	475	647	647
Lancaster	143	138	138
Lebanon	1413	1396	1396
Lehigh	514	396	396
Lycoming	770	507	507
Montgomery	1098	615	615
Morgan	418	810	810
Nether Merion	593	100	100
Northampton	98	100	100
Northumberland	328	307	307
Perry	4213	538	538
Pike	446	219	219
Polk	1668	414	414
Schuylkill	798	1348	1348
Somerset	336	140	140
Susquehanna	536	31	31
Tioga	147	102	102
Union	578	737	737
Venango	225	225	225
Westmoreland	4961	5390	5390
Washington	486	4533	4533
Wayne	349	557	557
York	726	1239	1239
Total	16628	15740	15740

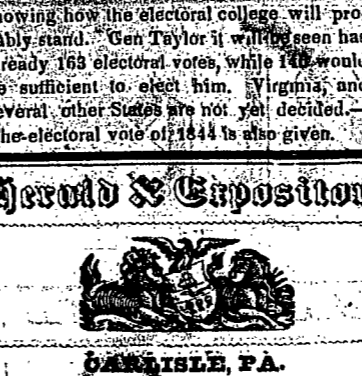

Gen. Taylor's majority will exceed 10,000! The Van Buren vote so far is about 4,500.

Who's that Knocking?

By R. A. ALLEN, WASHINGTON, D. C. Uncle Sam's White House was a fine situation for any one to live and attend to the nation. A good many came to the door and knocked. One who's that knocking at the door? Is that you, Cass? No, 'tis Cass! Is that you, Van Buren? No, 'tis Van Buren! Is that you, Longstreth? No, 'tis Longstreth! Is that you, Taylor? No, 'tis Taylor! Is that you, Johnston? No, 'tis Johnston! Is that you, Fillmore? No, 'tis Fillmore! Is that you, Fremont? No, 'tis Fremont! Is that you, Fremont? No, 'tis Fremont! Is that you, Fremont? No, 'tis Fremont!

The Grand Result

State	Taylor	Cass	Van Buren
Maine	10,897	19,303	7,384
New Hampshire	10,897	19,303	7,384
Vermont	14,376	8,777	7,384
Massachusetts	14,376	8,777	7,384
Rhode Island	9,539	3,610	711
Connecticut	29,304	25,530	4,747
New York	40,000-100,000	-	-
New Jersey	7,754	4,476	-
Delaware	800	-	-
Pennsylvania	29,304	25,530	4,747
Virginia	2500	-	-
Ohio	-	-	-
North Carolina	-	-	-
Maryland	-	-	-
South Carolina	-	-	-
Kentucky	-	-	-
Tennessee	-	-	-
Georgia	-	-	-
Louisiana	-	-	-
Michigan	-	-	-
Wisconsin	-	-	-
Iowa	-	-	-
Illinois	-	-	-
Indiana	-	-	-
Arkansas	-	-	-
Mississippi	-	-	-
Missouri	-	-	-
Texas	-	-	-

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1848.

Rough and Ready Jubilee! Every Taylor Man of the Borough and County Invited.

The supporters of old ROUGH AND READY will have a meeting at Octora's, this evening, at 8 o'clock. A cold collation, free of expense, will be furnished. Some Tar will be burnt on the occasion.

By order of the Committee.

The present number closes our contract with those who subscribed for the HERALD for the Presidential campaign. A number of these have already renewed their subscriptions for the year succeeding, and we trust that many others will do so. We are making arrangements to give increased value and interest to our paper, by giving an additional amount of reading matter in each number, and to improve its external appearance. We shall be glad to continue on our list the names of all our campaign subscribers, and now that the political excitement is over, will use every exertion to make the HERALD a good family paper.

The Temperance address, by Rev. Mr. Wm. postponed from last week, will be delivered to-morrow evening, in the Hall of No. 9, Sons of Temperance.

A communication appears in our columns urging a distinguished gentleman for U. S. Senator. Of course our columns are open to the friends of other candidates.

A worthy subscriber to the Herald in North-Middleton township, testified his gratification over the result of the election, and his sense of our humble exertions in aiding to produce the result, by presenting us a few days ago with a load of wood—a most acceptable and gratifying present, for which he has our thanks. We have labored zealously, if not with ability, in the good cause, and next to the unexpressed joy which the result has given us, do we appreciate such tokens of approbation from our readers.

Thanksgiving. This honored festival is near at hand—Originating with the devout piety of our ancestors, says an exchange, it has already spread itself over nearly, if not quite all the States of the Union. It always suggests good crops, large family groups, smiling faces, peals of laughter, stacks of turkeys, and pumpkin pies. It is redolent with feelings of gratitude and happiness. Yet while there are many to commingle their joys on this occasion, how many there are, whose hearts will be bound up in sadness and mourning. How many there will be, who will need all our abundant sympathies for their desolation and their poverty. Who could more efficiently express his deep gratitude to Heaven for the crowning blessings of the year, than by leading a sympathy to the afflicted, and a helping hand to the poor?

Mr. Cass and the Girls. The Tuscaloosa Monitor says the Boston Post claims that the girls are for Cass, and has the impudence to instance Miss I. Sippi, Miss Souri, Louisa Anna, Virginia, Mary Land, and the two Carrolls. This is a very fair list of the ladies of the Republic, that the people should not mark the main party away. It is best that the people should see how the "Genius of the Constitution" shrinks from the rude arms of her violator, reeling and staggering with drunkenness, and insolent with ill gotten power. It is best that the mad shouts of the contumacious of a free government, for their march in the new, should be loud and long, to drown, if possible, those of their allies of the old world. Very well! Those of the former classes who have clamored for a change, have a change. And they will see what a change it will be. They have snatched their best friend. So they will find it. Lewis Cass is sacrificed to their interests. So they will find it. Their enemies have triumphed over their friends, and they have helped them to do it. The new candidate is nearly back to the standard of '98. Those whose interest it was to keep it there, have stepped it, and given it to its old enemies the power to lead it again into by and forbidden paths.

They will see their error—prayer God it may not be when it is too late!

The Volunteer still belabors the poor laboring men. How considerate it is for their welfare! In 1844 it told them how beneficial the democratic party had been in giving the workingmen the blessings of the Tariff of 1842. Now it belabors them because they vote for the restoration of that same Tariff! What a pity the "laboring men" had not remained till the "standard of '98" was reached, under which Virginia has grown so great and prosperous!

A GREAT TRUTH BEAUTIFULLY EXPRESSED.—At a recent dedication of a new school-house in Boston, Mayor Quincy, after stating that $200,000 had just been expended by the city authorities in the erection of school-houses, gave utterance to the following noble thoughts:

All but once in a century, a little being should be sent into this world of the most delicate and beautiful structure and we were told that a wonderful principle pervaded every part of it, capable of unlimited expansion and contraction—capable of becoming associated with angels, and becoming the friend of God, or it should receive a wrong bias, growing up in enmity against him; and incurring everlasting misery, would any opening be given which would admit of his escape from such misery; and elevate to such happiness, be it much? But instead of one such little being, twenty-five thousand are now entrusted to the care of the "city fathers"; and their education in this world will determine their future destiny—of eternal punishment, with the angels, or of the degraded, wretched condition of God?

Has the Democrat found out yet whether there was an "Taylor shell game" in the summer of whether it was genuine or not?

CUMBERLAND COUNTY. OFFICIAL RETURNS.

The following table presents the official returns of the several districts of Cumberland county, as cast in the Governor's and President's vote of this year. This vote in the Presidential election is by far the largest ever cast in the county, and shows the desperate exertions made by our opponents.

Districts.	Johnson-Longstreth.	Taylor.	Cass.
Cariatsie, E. W.	163	213	176
N. Whittleton, J. W.	221	163	243
S. Middleton, J. W.	213	220	180
Dickinson, S.	201	212	213
Dickinson, T. W.	65	94	70
Pennsboro, J. W.	112	46	130
Frankford, L.	31	64	42

Cariatsie District, 334 1012 1054 1009

Newville borough, 73 62 67 71

U. Frankfort, 44 68 43 74

U. W. Pennsboro, 116 101 125 105

Millin, 78 157 11 172

Newton, 88 109 91 106

Shippensburg, 319 234 327 245

Dickinson, 188 205 203 226

Silver Spring, 107 296 109 309

Leesburg, 112 122 115 126

Hopewell, 94 108 90 114

Mounts, 209 121 237 127

Allen, 165 98 176 90

Mechanicville, 88 74 96 67

Harpenden, 98 78 119 95

Bridgeport, 144 121 154 134

N. Cumberland, 30 23 37 17

Colley's, 30 42 42 42

2989 3069 3242 3178

2989 3069 3242 3178

Longstreth's maj. 80 84 T. maj.

Gen. Taylor ticket received 11 votes in S. Middleton, 2 in Cariatsie, 2 in Dickinson, 3 in Bridgeport, 3 in Lubrun, 2 in New Cumberland, and 2 in Newville—making 25, all told.

Savage Death-song! The Volunteer dies like a Buccaneer, with his mouth full of curses and imprecations.—We copy the following from his last number, which our readers may laugh at:

Let there be a storm.—While we are writing this, the Federals are shooting, marching and hurrying over their success. That is all proper, and in perfect keeping. Nero filled when Rome was on fire, and it is fit that Neroes of this country should shout and sing when the torch is placed in the very bosom of the Republic. As well might the Imperial city have celebrated with triumphal processions the entrance of the hordes of Goths and Vandals, that ravaged her fields and sacked her temples, as the people of the United States rejoice at the ascendancy of Federalism. They know not what they do. Their yells are the yells of maniacs, their shouts are the shouts of the insane. They have lifted a party into power, whose ravages upon the principles of our institutions, will be like the blighting march of the Tartar and Tatarian and the King of Arid. They have warmed the serpent to his life. It will sting them to death. For years the old Federal party have ginned in hopeless rage at the resplendent and increasing power and beauty of the Genius of the Republic. Crushed at last by the irresistible march of the serpent, and in its moment of triumph, they have plunged into the arms of the skits of her garments. The people have, in an ill-omened hour of blind insanity, lifted that party on high, where with the strength of years of vain struggle and swollen noise, they can dash the clenched fist, into her face, and about the neck with revenge upon those who have defended her from a bloody hands. So be it!—Shout! But you shout over four own degradation. Rejoice! But you rejoice over your own ruin. For your triumphal procession, cast by your leaders' and march on! Your way leads through the very vitals of the Republic. March! It is well that the check of the progress of democratic principles should be celebrated with pomp and show. It is best that the King of the hydra headed monster, that vibrates his forked tongue as he sees his prey within his power, should be drownd with music, the roar of cannon and the revelry of insanity.—It is best that glittering flags, and gaudy circumstances should draw the attention of his victims from the flashing of his dlatheated glaring eyes. It is best when the vulgar hands of Federalism are placed upon the reins of the reins of the Republic, that the people should not mark the main party away. It is best that the people should see how the "Genius of the Constitution" shrinks from the rude arms of her violator, reeling and staggering with drunkenness, and insolent with ill gotten power. It is best that the mad shouts of the contumacious of a free government, for their march in the new, should be loud and long, to drown, if possible, those of their allies of the old world. Very well! Those of the former classes who have clamored for a change, have a change. And they will see what a change it will be. They have snatched their best friend. So they will find it. Lewis Cass is sacrificed to their interests. So they will find it. Their enemies have triumphed over their friends, and they have helped them to do it. The new candidate is nearly back to the standard of '98. Those whose interest it was to keep it there, have stepped it, and given it to its old enemies the power to lead it again into by and forbidden paths.

They will see their error—prayer God it may not be when it is too late!

The Volunteer still belabors the poor laboring men. How considerate it is for their welfare! In 1844 it told them how beneficial the democratic party had been in giving the workingmen the blessings of the Tariff of 1842. Now it belabors them because they vote for the restoration of that same Tariff! What a pity the "laboring men" had not remained till the "standard of '98" was reached, under which Virginia has grown so great and prosperous!

A GREAT TRUTH BEAUTIFULLY EXPRESSED.—At a recent dedication of a new school-house in Boston, Mayor Quincy, after stating that $200,000 had just been expended by the city authorities in the erection of school-houses, gave utterance to the following noble thoughts:

All but once in a century, a little being should be sent into this world of the most delicate and beautiful structure and we were told that a wonderful principle pervaded every part of it, capable of unlimited expansion and contraction—capable of becoming associated with angels, and becoming the friend of God, or it should receive a wrong bias, growing up in enmity against him; and incurring everlasting misery, would any opening be given which would admit of his escape from such misery; and elevate to such happiness, be it much? But instead of one such little being, twenty-five thousand are now entrusted to the care of the "city fathers"; and their education in this world will determine their future destiny—of eternal punishment, with the angels, or of the degraded, wretched condition of God?

Has the Democrat found out yet whether there was an "Taylor shell game" in the summer of whether it was genuine or not?

For the Herald. U. S. SENATOR.

Mr. Enton.—The history of the last few years shows that those whom the citizens of Pennsylvania have honored most, and have elected to the highest stations in their country, have betrayed their confidence, and sacrificed Pennsylvania's peculiar interests to their own ambition. These men, however, have now received the rebuke of their State, and the time has come for her to assert her rights in the national councils, and place there a man able and ready to maintain them.

The Whigs and Tariff-men of the Keystone have now an opportunity of sending a good and true representative—to the United States Senate, and it behooves them well to consider who shall be that representative. We do not want one whose limited attainments and "qualifications" will make him a mere block among the great men of the country who comprise that body. We have had enough of such. We want a man who can speak out, and tell them how much Pennsylvania has been wronged, and injured by the measures of the present Administration. We want a man who has always been an energetic Whig but not obnoxious to the opposition; and whose talents will command their admiration and respect.

The name of WILLIAM MEREDITH, Esq. of Philadelphia, has been suggested as a suitable person for United States Senator, and there is unquestionably no better within the bounds of the State, or one better calculated for existing circumstances. Mr. Meredith, years ago, even while a young man, took a high stand in the Legislature of Pennsylvania. In the convention to reform the constitution, he was among the most prominent. Although he is now ranked first in private life there is no one who has stronger friends and fewer enemies than Mr. Meredith; for integrity and honor his reputation is the highest. He has always been a most influential Whig, while his kindness and amiability have made him warm friends among his political opponents.

There can be no doubt that in the United States Senate his ability and great legal attainments would place him in the rank with Webster, and men of that stamp. Pennsylvania if he be elected will have one worthy and able to represent a great State, and himself enough to be true to her interests. Having such an estimate of the character of Mr. Meredith, we submit his name to consideration for the office and hope he may be our next Senator.

AN ACTIVE WHIG. Cariatsie, Nov. 12, 1848.

Letter from Gen. Taylor. Some time since, Hon. THOMAS SMITH sent to Gen. TAYLOR, by the hands of Major Bliss, a letter enclosing extracts from the Washington Union of April 6, stating that he had said "The South never should agree to the Wilmot proviso,—that he was in favor of the present Tariff;" &c. &c. Gen. Taylor immediately wrote the following reply, which he has since received authority to publish:

(PRIVATE.) Baton Rouge, (La.) April 27, 1848.

My Dear Sir—I received your letter and copies of the publications made in the "Union," by the hands of Major Bliss.

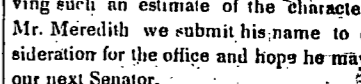

Those articles, avowing certain sentiments as admitted by myself, use one and all wide libations and fixings. When truth forms the basis of attack, I care not how much it may be denounced, but in cases like this I cannot but feel, and openly express, my honest indignation.

It gives me much pleasure to learn that I have many friends in England. I have the highest respect for that portion of our country. Association of the Union commands its people, and their great regard for law and order. Among none is there more sobriety of life, and devotion to industry and enterprise; by a more sincere and patriotic wish for the prosperity and reputation of the country, and a wise and judicious administration of the Government. I value greatly, therefore, the favorable regard for my name, which you assure me exists there, and which I hope will ever continue, whatever may be my position before the country.

With sentiments of cordial respect and regard, I remain, dear Sir, Your most obedient servant and friend,

W. IAYLOR, Hon. THOMAS SMITH, Z. IAYLOR, U. S. Representative, Washington, D. C.

A Great Swallow.

An English countenance, animal of the frightful Michigan species, giving illustration of how it might swallow all these with-out it hurting it. The animal made his last attempt on the 7th of November, but was so disgusted with his failure that he turned a somewhat down his own throat and has not since been heard of amid the noise and confusion.

PLEASE READ AND CONSIDER.—But little comment is necessary upon a plain, unvarnished address like the following. Coming as it does from one of the most respectable and worthy citizens of Philadelphia, N. Y., it must carry conviction with it, more especially, when we consider the fact that it has been written without a return of the postage—many of the certificates of the day being obtained after a very dry trial when a temporary (or perhaps imaginary) relief has been obtained, without any return of postage. (This certificate was checked by a respectable member of the Society of Friends.)

VALUABLE TESTIMONY. "I have a great pleasure in stating, that I have known and conversed with Mr. Taylor for some years, and I can say that he is a man of high moral character, and I have seen him in the most trying circumstances, and I can say that he has maintained his integrity and honor in every trial."

Prepared and sold by AGNEVEY & DICKSON, N. E. corner of Fifth and Spruce Streets, Philadelphia. Sent by mail, for one dollar, and by express, for one dollar and fifty cents.

More New Goods. The subscribers have just returned from the city with a large and beautiful stock of goods. For a list of the goods, and for a copy of the book, please apply to the publishers, at the corner of Fifth and Spruce Streets, Philadelphia.

THE subscribers have just returned from the city with a large and beautiful stock of goods. For a list of the goods, and for a copy of the book, please apply to the publishers, at the corner of Fifth and Spruce Streets, Philadelphia.