We find a glory in the smile.
That lives in childhood's happy face, Ere fearful doubt, or worldly guile, Have swept away the anget trace. The ray of promise shineth there To tell of better lands afar,-God sends his image pure and fair, To keep undimmed Faith's Guiding Star.

We find a glory in the zeal. Of donting breast and toiling brain, Affection's marfyrs still will kneel, And Song, though ininished, pour its strain, They lure us by their quenchless light, And point where joy is lighter They shed God's spirit warm and bright, And keep undimmed Paith's Guiding Star.

We muse besides the rolling waves, We linger o'er the grassy hill, 'We linger o'er the new piled graves,'
And find that star is shining slift. God in his great design hath spread Unnumbered rays to lead afar;

The Blind Slave of the Mines

FRY REV. PRESIDENT HITCHCOCK. ALLow me here to refer to a case that lately fell under my observation, which illustrates more forcibly than I had ever conceived, the priceless value of the Christian's hope to the most unfortunate and degraded. I had descended one thousand feet beneath the earth's surface, in the coal pits of the Mid Lothian Mines in Virginia, and was wandering through their dark, subterranean passages, when the sound of Music it a little listance, broke upon my ear. It ceased upon our approach, and I caught only the concluding sentiment of the hymn " I shall be in Heaven in the morning,"

On advancing with our lamps, we found the passage close by a door, in order to give a different direction to the current of air for the purpose of ventilating, yet this door must be opened occasionally to let the rail cars pass, load ed with coal, and to accomplish this, we -found-sitting-by-that door an aged-bline slave, whose eyes had been entirely destroyed by a plast of gunpowder many years before, in that mine. There he sat on a seat cut in the coal, from sunrise to sunset, day after day, his sole business being to open and shut the door, when he heard the rail cars approaching, We requested him to sing again the hymn whose last line we had heard. It was indeed lame in expression, and in the poetic measure-very defective, being in fact, one of those productions, which we found the pious slaves were in the habit of singing, in part, at least, impromptu. But each stanza closed with the sentiment,

"I shall be in Heaven in the morning." It was sung in a clear and pleasant voice, and I could see the shrivelled, sightless eyes of the old man roll in their sockets, as if his soul felt the inspiring sentiments; and really the exhibition was one of the most affecting that I ever witnessed. There he stood, an old man, whose earthly hopes, even at the best, must be very faint; and he was a slave and he was blind—want could he hope for on earth? He was buried, too, a thousand feet beneath the solid rocks.-In the expressive language of Jonah, "He has gone down to the bottom of the mountain, the earth with her bars was about him forever." There from month to month, he sat in darkness. Oh, how utterly theerless his condition! And yet that one pleasant hope of a resurrection morning was enough to infuse peace. and joy into his soul.

I had often listened to touching music

I had heard gigantic intellects pour forth enchanting eloquence, but never did will manufacture to order CABINET with enchanting eloquence, exert such overpowering influence, over my feelings as did this scene. Never before did I witness so grand an exhibition of sublimity. On how comparatively insignificant did earth's mightiest warriors and statesmen. earth's mightiest warriors and statesmen, her princes and emperors, and even her princes and emperors, and even her philosophers without piety appear !--How powerless would all their pomp and pageantry, and wisdom be to sustain them, if called to change places with this poor slave! He had a principle within him superior to them all; and when that morning which he longs for shall come. Dry Goods. Groceries, &c., how infinitely better than theirs will-his how infinitely better than theirs will his lot appear to an admiring universe. And that morning shall ere long breakt upon thy darkness benighted old min. The hight of the natural sun, and the face of this fair world will never, indeed, revisit, you, and the remaint of your lent embraces location which will be jound days must be spent in your monotonous task, by the side of the wicket gater deep rin the coverns of the earth But that bright and the seath But that bright and the seath But that bright and the seath when the saviour in whomeyou trust what he will be incorrected by the saviour in whomeyou trust what his saviour in whomeyou trust what he will be incored to be saviour of the land the seath who had been saviour in whomeyou trust what himself to you even in deep. manifest himself to you even in deep darkness, and at the appointed hour, the chains of slavery shall drop off and the double night which en elphes you shall vanish into the light and the liberty and the glory of heavenin-And in just proportion to the depths of "Your darkness, and degradation haw, shall be the bright-ness and the joy of that level asting day."

The following is from Col. S. G. Taylor, a gentleman of high standing and extensiv acquaintance in the Southern states, and lately appointed Consul to New Granada:

Meskiy, A. B. & D. Sands:

Gentlensin,—Having used, and witnessed the effects of your excellent preparation of Sarsaparilla, on different persons in various parts of the Southern country, viz., Vigning, Louisiana, Texas, and Mexico, I feel much pleasure in stating the high opinion entertained of its great medicinal value. In my own case it acted almost like a charm, removing speedily the enervated state of the system, and exciting, in the most agreeable manner; a tonic and invigorating influence.

Your Sarsaparilla is highly abroved and extensively used by the U. States army in Mexico, and my cousin, Gen. ZaCHARY TAYLOR, has for the past are years been in the habit of using it, and recommends the same; he and myself adopted the article at the same time, and it is now considered an almost indispensable requisite in the army. In conclusion I would say, that the better its known the more highly twill be prized, and I trust that its health-restoring, virtues will make it generally known throughout the length and breadth of our widely-extended country.

Blue was, severely afflicted with the Serofula on different-parts of the body; the glends of the neck were greatly enlarged, and her limbs truch swollen. After suffering over a year, and finding no relief from the remedies used, the disease attacked one leg, and below the knee suppurated. Her physician advised it should be laid open, which was done, but without any permanent benefit. In this situation we heard of, and west induced to use Sands Sarsaparilia. The first bottle produced a decided and favorable effect, relieving her more than any prescription she had ever taken; and before she had used also bottles to the astonishment and delight of user friends, she will be a second to the second of the control of the second of Messrs, A. B. & D. Sands — Norwich, N. V., Oct. 6, 1847.

Gentlemen—Feelings of gratitude induce me to make a public acknowledgment of the benefit I have derived from the use of your Sarsaparilla. I have for several years been afflicted with scrofillous swellings in my head, which at times would gather-and-discharge-at-my-throat-nose, and ears, and at-others would-break-out-ladderent parts of my face and head. These continued until my throat, face, and head were almost one complete sore, and for a long time I was so hone's that it was with the tumost difficulty that I could speak above a whisper. During this time I had several attacks of pleurisy and other diseases. I consuited different physicians, and tried various remedies, but received no benefit until I commenced using your Sarsaparilla. I am now well; the sores are all healed; and I attribute the result entirely to the effects of your valuable medicine.

Yours, with respect and gratitude, PHEBE CAHOON.

howels were ulcerated, for blood and gus, at-tended with a peenliar putrid small, were the frequent discharges. A short time since I made a visit to Massachusetts, in hopes of henefit from change of air, but suffered more severe than ever before. While there, a phy-sician offered to caure me f. r. $40; in three-months. Happily, in the midst of incase pain, occasionally relieved by laudnum, I saw in the wrapper of your Electoary, a perfect description of my complaint, together with many certificates of cures. This gave me great confidence in the medicine, and I pur-chased a box, nine doses of which has appa-refitly cured me, and I am prepared to say everything in its favor, or render any service. Letter of Capt. G, W. Lean, late of the U. S service, and diember of the N. J. Legislature Rahway, June 16, 1847

I have been afflicted for years with the Piles, and have tried, without anything like permanent benefit, almost everything, assuming the name of a remedy. I had as a matter of course, lost all confidence, in medicine.—Under this feeling I was induced—not without reluctance, I confess—to use Upham's Electuary, and having used it about three weeks, according to the directions laid down, I find to my surprise, as well as satisfaction, that according to the directions laid down, I musto my surprise, as well as satisfaction, that exery symptom of the disease has ett me. I think it doe alike to Dr. Upham and myself to make this statement. GW McIEAN

Yorthand, Me., March 14

My Dear Sir—Leannor express to you my sincere and heartfelt thanks for the wondertal cure I have experienced by the use of your truly-valuable Pile Electuary. I have been a perfect martyr to the Bleeding Piles for ten years past, so muchaso, that I became reduced to a mere skaleton, with loss of appetite and general derangement of the digestive organs, my eyes also became affected, and in fact I was a piscry to myself and was abliged to was a niscry to myself, and was obliged to give up my office here, which I held in the Custom House some years. I have tried all kinds of medicine, had the best advice the physicians of Period and the best advice the physicians of Bos'on and this place could give. spent much money and twice submitted to a surgical operation. I had become perfectly tired of life, and at the suggestion of my friends I was induced to try a box of your medicine. The first I found relieved me slightly, still I persevered and purchased a second, and assure you when I got half through I found myself getting well; I still kept on, and now I am a new man. My dear language connot express my I am once more restored to health, and now in Mersss Ketchum & Herblan - This certifies that have been severely affliced for many yours with the Piles but notes the technical transports. Merss Rethum & Height — This critises that have been severely afflicted for many years with the Piles, but more particularly within the last nine months. Having used all the remedies prescribed by my physician, also having tried other means to little or no od a vantage, I became very much discouraged and felt asthough I must suffer as long as I lived. But providentially, I was, informed by Mr. Mott, instructor of the public school at Staten Island, that I could be cared by your valuable. Pile Electuary. Having confidence is his statement, I immediately precured some of the medicine and am very happy to inform you that I am now perfectly cured by the use of ionly one bex. Very truly your obedient servant,
