We are not to believe that perfection in agriculture was necessarily connected exclusively with a more or less advanced civilization. The Tyrians and Carthagenians, with their purely comliterary and aristic tendencies, were only middling cultivators. Rome, from its cradle, was the capital of an eminently cultivating people. Their Patricians and Plebeians equally did honor to themselves by cultivating the carth with their own hands. For it was the earth which nourished the people, and it was the labour of the fields which hardened their bowhen compared with the subsequent efrepublic the culture was left to slaves, amusements, plays, sights, and idleness zard that settled his hash mighty sudden, I soon finished in their corruption. Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor. That is to say, the Genuine article, (not the misnamed, spurious and counterfeit extractors, that appear under various forms, name tors, that appear under various forms, names and disguises,) and which may be had at the Proprietor's only Depot in New York, and of his authorized agents, (whose mancs are in the papers and on my Pumphlets,) never fails in any of the above cases, no matter how see vere they may be, not alone to extract the pain forthwith, and effect a speedy and cer-tain cure—and thus save a vast deal of suffering. But, what is of the least importance, especially to Girls—and it is to this that the attention of Mothers is particularly requested Dalleys Genuine Extractor, in the worst case of Burns and Sculde, leaves no scar, or un-sightly mark behind, to remain, in after years any mark beamin, to remain, in after years a monument of sorrow and regret to after-tionate parents. It has, moreover, and not unfrequently, been the means, in extreme cases, of preserving life itself.

No Family ought therefore to be without the Extractor for a day. Printed Pamphlets containing certificates f cures, and for the truth of which I hold myself Resronsible, may be obtained, at my Depot 415 Brotdway, New York, and on application to my anthorised agents.
