WEDNESDAY, JUNE 6, 1849. Enlargement of the Heraid! The favors of our advertising friends continue to encroach so largely upon the space in our paper devoted to reading matter, that some new arrangement of things seems absolutely necessary. Now we can't do without the advertisements. They are the very life and soul, and bread and butter, of a newspaper-not only to the editor, but to the business world .-An enlargement of our paper seems therefore to be the only course left to us. But we must . first have un increase of our list of subscribers. Our present list although respectable, bears no proportion to the Whig strength of the county. cores and hundreds of Whigs in the county, (and some who annually ask for office) do not now take our paper ! Is this right? is this the way to advance the success of Whig principlas? Certainly not. The very reason why the whig vote is frequently so small is because the appeals of the press do not reach the great mass of the party. We ask our friends therefore to exert themselves a little in our behalf .-Every one of our present subscribers can procure an additional one, we know. Let them do so, and we promise an enlargement of the paper at the beginning of our next volume, at the same rate of subscription-One Dollar and Fifty cents a year in advance! Friends! let us hear from you.

EDUCATION .- A National Convention of the friends of Education is to be held in Philadelphia, on the 22d of August next. It is expected a large number of the leading men of the country will be in attendance. We learn that at a meeting of the Board of School cotore, of this borough, on motion of T. H. Skiles, JAMES HAMILTON, Esq. was appointed to represent the Board in said Convention.

MILITARY ELECTION. - The election on Monday last, we are informed resulted in the choice of Capt. SAMUEL CROP, of Carlisle, ns-Brigade-Inspector-by-a-handsome-majority-We have not received a table of the returns .-Capt. Crop is every inch a soldier, and we doubt not will make a good officer. Gen. An-MOR was of course elected Brigadler, and Capt. HUNTER elected Major of the Battalion.

NEW COMPANY .- A new Military company under the title of the "Hunter Rifles," was organized by Brigade Inspector REHRER, on Saturday evening fast. It is com--manded by Captain J. F. Barron, First Licutenant George W. Crop, Second Lieutenant

On the 10th of May last, at his residence in Newton township, in this county, Mr. Samuel Irvine, in the 64th year of his age. On the 22d ult., at the residence of Robert Bryson Esq., in this county, Mrs. M. Bayson, widow of the late Wm. Bryson. Having reached the age of a ly 82 years, the energies of her material frame were exhausted, and while this decay did not impair her naturally strong ludgment, it so diminished its activity, that during her last lineas she felt less dispo-sition to indulge in conversation. It was not necessary to test the reality of her supreme love to the Redeemer, that during the approach of death, she should have the ability to speak much of her religious experience; for, at an early period of her life, s had connected herself with the Presbyterian Church, and had maintained throughout a deportment honoring to the cause of her Savior. With David she could in the spirit of gratitude aver-" Thou art my hape, O Lord God, thou art my trust from my youth O God, thou hast taught me from my youth and blebasta have I declared the wondrous works."-Her attachment to the doctrines and government of the Presbyterian Church was strong and abiding; for it was the result not of educational discipline, but of pains taking examination of the liny Scriptures. At all times she cherished a deep interest in the prosperity of the congregation to which she belonged, and knowing that its spiritual well-being could not be advanced while its pecuniary affilies were neglected, she, contributed, not a little by her ensonable counsels and exemplary liberality, to train the congregation to be punctual and honorable in the discharge of their obligations to their pastor, and to the Missionary enterprizes of the Preshyte-rian Church. While she did not overlook the weighty claims of Foreign Missions, her sympathics and prayers were strongly enlisted in the cause of the Domestic Missions of Presbyterianism, being fully convinced that nothing thurt of the thorough and comprehensive instructions of a Calvinistic and well-educated ministry, can diffuse that intelligence and virtue amongst a free people, which are indispansable to the vigorous and salutary working of republican institutions. Having been distinguished by great energy and force of character, as well as en-dowed with a vigorous intellect and poculiarly warm affections, she held a prominent place in society, and her departure has created a vold which will be long felt and greatly lamented. May it stimulate those of her relatives who are fellow-heirs with her of eternal life, to redoubled diligence in the service of their common Redeemer, and may it lend those of them who have hithorto neglected the great salvation to comply with the pringent exhortations she address ed to them on her dying bed, to seek the Lord God of their fathers.

In Wheeling, Va., on the 17th ult., after a short illness of dropsy of the chest, Gen. Ro-BERT McCov, formerly of Carlisle; but for the last eleven years a resident of Wheeling. Gen. McCoy held many stations of trust and profit during his life, in all of which he discharged the duties with faithfulness and credit. In 1831, he was elected to Congress, from the district of Cumberland, Adams, Franklin and Perry. In 1833 and again in 1835 he was appointed by Gov. Wolf, one of the Canal Commissioners.— He removed to Wheeling in 1838. He was soon after elected Treasurer of the Wheeling Savings Institution. He was afterward elected Secretary of the Western Insurance Company, and by appointment of the Board of Public works of Virginia made Sugerintendent of the Board of the Board of College and Price and Sugerintendent of the Summer Cloths:
