ARRIVAL OF THE HIBERNIA

TELEGRAPH OFFICE, 13 P. M. St. John, N. B., June 28. The Steamer Hibernia, Captain Stone, arrived at Halifax yesterday afternoon, with 70 passengers for New York and 22 for Halifax.

The cholera has again appeared in England, and several cases have occurred in Manchester and other parts of the country. Paris the cholera is making the most frightful havoc—more so than in 1837.

Upwards of 11,000 deaths have already occurred, and in one day there were about 900 cases and 600 deaths reported. Marshal Bugeaud and many other persons of eminence have fallen before the scourge.

It has broken out again in Sicily, Vienna and Preburg, and is raging most fearfully at Alexandria and Cairo in Egypt.

The bill for the abolition of the Navigation Laws passed the House of Commons, and out material amendment, on the 12th, and received the royal sanction. The bill will go into effect in January.

The English Government repudiate all obligations of the French in the late war, and the French in their treatment of the Roman Republic, through his counsel, denies legality of commutation of his sentence of death to transportation, and the government have to provide for this unlooked for difficulty by a special act of Parliament.

Different and apparently reliable statements are made from parts of Ireland to the effect that the potato rot has made its appearance in some instances, but generally the vines look vigorous.

The wheat is represented as continuing very favorable, and the crops in nearly all parts of England and Ireland are said to look unusually promising.

Insurrection in Paris.—On Wednesday, an insurrection was attempted in Paris, by about 25,000 of the Mountain party, headed by M. Etienne Arago, Jr., and was suppressed by the troops, whose number amounted to 70,000. Several attempts were made to erect barricades. In the evening, the Assembly declared itself in permanence, and passed a decree declaring Paris to be in a state of siege.

On Thursday the alarm had considerably subsided, and business, which was entirely suspended the day previous, was generally resumed.

At one time the peril was imminent, and nothing but the courage and prudence of the President, aided by firmness and sagacity, prevented the most serious consequences.

Numerous arrests have taken place, including several members of the Assembly, M. Arago and Ledru Rollin being among them. The last arrests report a state of tranquillity, but there was an uneasy feeling about that a renewed attempt would be made to upset the Government, and that when it comes to the point the troops will not prove steady.

For the subject of Rome, the demonstration of the Assembly, to support the cause of the Pope, and to put down the Roman Republic, was seized upon in order to make a demonstration in favor of the Roman Republic, and at the same time against the government, and in the Legislative Assembly notice was accordingly ascribed, which was carried.

From Rome we learn that the French army commenced the attack on the 30th, and after a sanguinary engagement, in which the Romans lost 800 men, succeeded in carrying several important posts.

A series of attacks have since taken place, in which the French were usually stated, but in which the invading army has suffered most.

The French press publish conflicting reports of the operations of the army, but account recovered to the 5th instant, it is clear that Gen. Oudinot had not gained possession of the city, though he had gained a position at the north of Rome, which would enable him to command the city.

The latest despatch from Gen. Oudinot is to the effect that, within time he opened his trenches, and that regular operations of the part of the Romans, but, on the contrary, every thing goes to confirm the belief that they would make a most determined resistance, and fight to the death.

All the Socialist or Red Republican Journals at Paris except the National, have been suppressed, since the disturbance on Wednesday.

Kossuth has arrived at Pesch, and has been received in the capital as the President of the Hungarian Republic.

It would seem that hostilities are still carried on in the South between the Hungarians and the scattered remains of the Austrian army, supported by the Russians, but the reports which reach us are very vague and contradictory. It is not deemed advisable to transmit them by telegraph.

The Russian General has issued a Proclamation to the Hungarians, the pith of which is, that if they do not lay down their arms and submit to their lawful government, they will be made to feel the consequences of their presumption.

Every effort is being made to rouse the people, and the Magyar government has ordered the clergy to preach against the Russians.

The market is somewhat unsettled, and the average, generally, although the fluctuations will not, in extent, bear comparison with those of the preceding week, negotiations have been well supported.

In a conversation a lawyer who was an ardent admirer of this great man, he related us an anecdote of Mr. Crittenden's profession. He says that Mr. Crittenden was engaged in defending a man who had been indicted for a capital offense. He closed an elaborate and powerful defence, he closed his effort by the following striking and beautiful allegory:

"When God in his councils conceived the thought of man's creation, he called to him the elements which were to constitute his noble frame: Justice, Truth and Mercy, and he addressed them in these words: 'Shall we make man? Then said Justice: 'Oh God, make him not for he will trample upon my laws. Truth made answer also: 'Oh God, make him not for he will violate my statutes. Mercy said: 'Oh God, make him not for he will despise my mercies. Then said the Lord: 'I will create man, and I will surround him with my laws, though all the devils of hell may strive to tempt him, and though all the angels of heaven may strive to assist him, yet he shall be mine, for he shall be made in my image and after my likeness.'"

The jury when he finished were drowned in tears, and against evidence and what was said, they found the man guilty. In a few years the United States will have the most accomplished mechanic in the world. The union of a substantial education with mechanical skill will offer this.

STATE CONVENTION!

AT the last meeting of the WHIG STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE, held at Harrisburg, in pursuance of public call—it was on motion

Resolved, That the friends of the National and State Administrations in Pennsylvania be requested to meet in the several cities and counties in the State, and select Delegates equal in number to their representation in the State Legislature, who shall meet in Convention at the Court House in HARRISBURG, at 11 o'clock, A. M., on THURSDAY, the 10th day of AUGUST NEXT, for the purpose of selecting a candidate for CANAL COMMISSIONER, and to do such other business as the interest of the country may require.

By order of the Committee. GEO. BREYER, Chairm., pro tem. D. W. PATTERSON, Secretary.

COMMITTEES. Alex. Ramsey, Robert Irrell, John C. Kunkel, James M. Back, George Lear, H. H. Eiler, E. C. Darlington, David Cooper, Wm. H. Seibert, John P. Paxton, John Fenton, L. D. Wemore, H. W. Patrick, Alex. W. Taylor.

DELEGATE ELECTIONS.

Whig County Convention.

The following resolution was passed at a meeting of the Whig Stating committee, held at Carlsle, on Monday, June 18-1849.

Resolved, That the Democratic Whigs of Cumberland county be requested to meet in their several Wards, Boroughs and Townships.

On Saturday, the 21st of July, and elect two Delegates each, who shall meet in County Convention at Carlsle, on Monday, the 23rd of July, for the appointment of two Delegates to represent Cumberland county in the Whig State Convention which meets in Harrisburg on the 16th of August; and also to appoint Congressmen to meet Congress from Perry county, who shall agree upon a Senatorial Delegate to said Convention.

DAVID MAHON, Chairman. THOS. CRITCHFIELD, Jr., Sec'y.

The Declaration. In accordance with a custom we have seldom failed to, we republish to-day the Declaration of American Independence. On this day it should be re-perused by all.

With all the progress of our striding age, we are not likely to be in advance of our Revolutionary aims in the genuine appreciation of the pure principles of Republican Liberty.

$300 Exemption.

The law passed by the last Legislature exempting property to the amount of $300 from seizure and sale for debt, goes into effect on this glorious anniversary of Independence, and will apply to all debts or contracts entered into after this day. This law is now the subject of much discussion among business men, and will probably lead to a great change in business operations.

The merchant, shopkeeper and mechanic will naturally, some hesitation in opening accounts for small sales, and many poor men, (although honest) may find cash exacted where they have heretofore had credit.

But if the law has the effect to credit it away with this miseraled old credit system we have no hesitation in saying that it will prove one of the best laws ever enacted.

The whole system of all credit is ennobled to the working man as well as the dealer in goods. And any law which will ensure to the master-mechanic, journe, vman or laborer the immediate proceeds in cash of his labor, so that he can purchase in all necessities and comforts of life at cash prices without debt, must prove a laudable benefit to all classes.

If this should be an effect of the law it will be a blessing. Let us have the Cash System—the prompt paying of the working-man—the cash down for goods—leaving the credit system to larger operations; where it properly belongs. For our part we would rather have $1,50 for our paper, paid cheerfully in cash at the beginning of the year, than $2 which we must yet give in tedious months for, and then only get it in a year or more by a humiliating process of importunity and begging, to say nothing of the time, loss, and expense of the process.

Every effort is being made to rouse the people, and the Magyar government has ordered the clergy to preach against the Russians.

The market is somewhat unsettled, and the average, generally, although the fluctuations will not, in extent, bear comparison with those of the preceding week, negotiations have been well supported.

Poor Simon Drum.

LOCOFEOC HYPOCRISY AND OUTRAGE.—The Postmaster General, a short time since, removed from the office of Postmaster at Greensburg, in this State, one Simon Drum, who had held it during a period of forty years.

The whole Locofoco party, says the North American, seemed for a short time to be thrown into a state of asphyxiation by this event, and then revived, to experience and express the proper feelings at such a barbaous act of cruel "proscription." No language was strong enough to express their indignation, no terms sweet and tender enough to show forth their sympathy with the sufferer. Mr. Drum might have said, as Lord Byron said before him, on the publication of his first popular poem, that "he woke one morning and found himself famous;" and indeed, as all the Locofoco papers of Pennsylvania would go on mourning, and the politicians went craps on the left arm for thirty days, in testimony of grief for his unhappy fate. He had gained, to appearance, a vast political power, or capital; for his sufferings had moved all his political friends in the State towards him. Even the candidacy for the next Governorship might not be deemed beyond his reach; but with the modesty of true worth, Mr. Drum contented himself, some days ago with asking from the Locofoco Convention of Westmoreland county the very subordinate office of Sheriff.

Most strange to say, this little honor was refused him; but still, being most anxious to serve those who seemed to prize him so highly, he expressed his desire for the office of Register and Recorder, but through some unfortunate combination of circumstances, it could not be awarded him. The next step of the martyr was to ask his sympathizing friends for the County Treasurer-ship; but here again there were difficulties, and sinking still lower in his claims, in the most oblique spirit, he appended to offer to accept the County Commissionership. His name was placed upon the list of applicants voted for, but sad to say, he scarcely obtained a vote, and another man was nominated instead of the wronged, the lamented, the "proscribed" Simon Drum.

This proceeding forms a keen satire on the recent proceedings of the Locofocos, in Mr. Drum's case, and a very pretty comment upon the general system, now so much in favor among them, of making a great outcry about proscription when there is nothing to cry about.

Locofoco Abuse of Gen. Taylor. The quiet citizen who has his own business to attend to, and who does not apprehend that the country will be injured immediately, would be surprised to observe, says the Baltimore American, the violence and the bitterness with which Gen. Taylor's administration is attacked by adversaries who do not seem capable of viewing any thing except through the medium of party prejudices.

Mr. JEFFERSON had a similar opposition to encounter. "The very first acts of the administration," he says in a letter to GILES GRANGER in 1801, "the nominations, have accordingly furnished something to gelp on, and all our subsequent acts will furnish them fresh matter, because there is nothing against which human ingenuity will not be able to find something to say."

There is nothing, indeed, against which human ingenuity will not be able to find something to say; and it would be very weak for an Administration to expect or endeavor to please every one. It has duties to the country to perform, and it will be judged by its own standard of honesty, capacity and fidelity. The spirit of its acts, the scope and character of its policy, its tone and demeanor, will give shape and force to the impression it is to leave finally upon the public mind; as they will fix the place it is to occupy in history. But the attacks of the violent, the complaints of the querulous, the demands of the unreasonable—these may be left to perish by the force of their own reaction.

CHEAP U. S. UNIFORMS.—The Adjutant General of this State publishes in the Harrisburg Telegraph, a table of prices, showing the cost at which Volunteer companies may obtain dress and undress uniforms, according to the U. S. Army regulations.

He does this because all new Volunteer companies are required to conform according to the regulations of the General Government, and he states the price of full dress for a private at $87, and the undress at $5.50.

The preparations made, embrace all the divisions of land forces.

FIGHT ON THE RAIL ROAD.—The York Republican says, that on Thursday last, during a disturbance on the 7th section of the York and Cumberland Railroad, about seven miles from town, which was caused by some men who had been discharged for bad conduct, Mr. SVYCES, one of the sub-contractors, was severely injured as he lay in a cause apprehension for his life. He is getting better, however. Messrs. GORDON, BUNKER & CO., with a commendable desire to make an example of the first offenders have offered a reward for their apprehension. We learn from reliable authority, that the use of spirituous liquors upon the line of the road has been prohibited, and we may from this fact alone, feel pretty well assured that peace and order will be restored among the workmen.

A GAZETTE SPECULATION.—The best speculation in California of which we have heard, is that of a 100,000 lbs. of gold, and in 1849, returned, which, if true, is a reasonable rate of $5 each, in preparing the best for cooking, our leader found in his barn two chickens, and after packing freely, he, with the following, found the following list, by the profits of the transaction: For four pounds of $5 each, $20; for two pounds of $5 each, $10; for one pound of $5 each, $5; for half a pound of $5 each, $2.50; for a quarter of $5 each, $1.25; for a sixth of $5 each, $0.83; for an eighth of $5 each, $0.62; for a tenth of $5 each, $0.50; for a twelfth of $5 each, $0.42; for a fourteenth of $5 each, $0.36; for a sixteenth of $5 each, $0.31; for an eighteenth of $5 each, $0.28; for a twentieth of $5 each, $0.25; for a twenty-fourth of $5 each, $0.21; for a thirty-second of $5 each, $0.16; for a forty-eighth of $5 each, $0.10; for a sixty-fourth of $5 each, $0.08; for a ninety-sixth of $5 each, $0.05; for a one hundred and twenty-eighth of $5 each, $0.04; for a one hundred and ninety-second of $5 each, $0.03; for a two hundred and fifty-sixth of $5 each, $0.02; for a three hundred and eighty-fourth of $5 each, $0.01;
