TEMPERANCE CELEBRATION IN NEW-VILLE. Division No. 128, Sons of Temperance, intend having a celebration in Newville, on Friday next, the 14th insta The members will walk in procession, adorned with the Rogalia of the Order, and be acompanied by the Newville Brass Band, an amateur association, whose reputation as musicians does credit to that place. A number of the neighboring Divisions, we are informed, will also join in the celebration, displaying the insignia of the Order and flinging to the breeze the bright banners of the good cause of Temperance. After the parade an address, with appropriate exercises, will be delivered in one of the churches. The occasion will doubtless be one of much interest, and we hope the friends of the cause may find their efforts encouraged by a large attendance.

MILITARY ELECTION.—On Saturday last, the 1st instant, an election was held at the public house of Mr. H. L. Burkholder, in this borough, to elect a Second Licutenant for the Carlisle Independent Light Artillery," which resulted in the choice of Mr. Altred S. Sener; by a very handsemusing jority.

DICKINSON COLLEGE.—The new session of this institution opens on Saturday next, the 15th inst. A number of Students have already arrived. 1 -

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY .- A meeting of the Cumberland County Agricultural Society, to make preparations for the annual Fall Meeting, is called in to-day's paper, and we hope will receive due attention from members.

STATE ELECTION.—The general Election in Pennsylvania will take place this year on Tuesday, the 9th of October. The Sheriff's Proclamation is given in to-day's paper.

THE CRY IS STILL THEY COME !- TWO more Circuses are advertised to exhibit in our borough this season! The circus-going portion of the community we fear will have a surfeit.
