REVIEW AT THE GARRISON .-- A salute was fired at the Carlisle Barracks yesterday morning, in bonor of the veteran General Churchill, Inspector General, U.S. A., who appeared at the post on a visit of inspection. The parade which took place immediately alter, for review and inspection, although the number of men was not large, was quite a number of men was not large, was quite a handsome affair. A detachment of ninety men left the Barracks on Saturday morning for Philadelphia, where they immediately took passage for Matagorda, Texas. The detachment was under the command of Cant Granger, and is intended to fill up value. for l'hiladelphia, where they immediately Capt Granger, and is intended to fill up va-

The fine Band at the Garrison—a; we must not lorget a particular note of—visited town on Thursday evening last, and came down upon the ears of our citizens, most unexpectedly but delightfully, with a 'crash' of soul-strring martial music. We are elad to learn that this treat may be expected frequently while the weather continues favorable.

Counterfeit five dollar notes on the Frank lin Bank of Baltunore, are now circulating in Maryland. The signature of the President is smaller than on the geruine note, and the impression paler, and the space between the word Maryland and the liberty cap wider.

Another new countertest has made its appearance on the Harrisburg Bank, of the denomination of five dollars. They are badly executed, and can be detected at a single glance. They bear the date of March 1, 1649, and are marked letter "A." Look out for them. DOUBTFUL BANKS.—Thompson's Bank Note Reporter, of the 24th, puts down the following institutions in its list of Joubtful Banks.— Salisbury Bank, Maryland; Exchange Bank, Washington, D.C.; State Bank, at Marris, N. J.; James' Bank, Jamesville, N. Y.; and Susquehanna county bank, Pennsylvania.
