Horse-Racing.

This cruel and dangerous amusement has become all the rage in this quarter lately. We understand there were five races last week, all within the limits of the borough, and from the good start that has been made there will probably be an equal if not greater number this week. The same passion for horse-racing we are told was prevalent some years ago, and was only checked by a sudden and awful casualty. Whether it is to be pursued to a like result now, or not, remains to be
