Unlike the host of pernictous quackeries which boast of vegetable ingredients, the LIFE MEDI-CINES are purely and solely vegetable; and cou-tain neither Mercury, nor Antimony, nor Arso-nic, nor, any other mitteral, in any form whatever. They are entirally comboed of extracts from rare and powerful plants, the virtues of which, though long known to several Indian tribes, and recently ito some eminent pharmacentical chemists, are alto-gether unknown to the ignorant pretenders to medical science; and were never before admini-tered in so happily officacious a combination. The first operation is to losson from the costs of the stomach and bowels the various impurities and crudities constantly settling round them; and to remove the hardened faces which collect in the convolutions of the small intestines. Other medi-cines only partially cleause these, and leave such collected musses behind to produce habitual Costive-ness, with all its train of evils, or sudden Diarhæa with its imminent dangers. As I to as the close of ry, the English nobility were entirely innocent of forks, substituting therefor their fingers, with which they helped them selves and their neighbors in a style that would do honor to the noblest born Turk of the present generation. Indeed, to a well, bred person of our civilized age. their habits at table would seem hardly to comport with decency. I'he bones and fragments were scatered indiscriminately over the board; and were removed by servants who several times during the meal went the rounds with a wooden instrument somewhat in the shape of a knife, wherewith they scraped the remnants into a large basket known as "a voider." The fingers and hands of the banqueters, were, it may be supposed, in no very enviable condition at the close of the feast. Nevertheless, the English stomach is somewhat strong, and it did not seen necessary to English ingenuity to seek to remedy this evil. 'The Italians, however, are blessed with finer and more delicate perceptions of decency, which led them to the invention of the fork. The new instrument, and the improvements in enting which it introduced, soon found their way into England; but our sturdy forefathers ridiculed the innovation as the result of foreign affectation ; and lorks did not come into general use in the United Kingdom until the beginning of the 18th century. In Germany the invention was even more vigorously opposed, some saints whose godliness seems to have been fully equalled by their filthiness actually maintained that the fork was contrary to nature and religion, that it was an insult to the Deity not to use the fingers, and that had Providence intended us to use such instruments, it would have produced them ready for the hand of man.

The Greeks, the most refined race of antiquity, seem to have been entirely unacquainted with the fork. Homer describing a banquet of heroes, says that they divided it with their daggers, but leaves us to infer that they carried it. to their mouths with ther unassisted digits. Eastern nations, even at the present day, are tequally barbarous; and travelers tell us that there are few sights more diverting than to see a Turkish belle of some thirty stone, devouring the leg of a pretty bugh goose. A peculiar use of the fork forms a distinguishing mark of certain nations -D'Archenholiz, in his entertaining /Tai D Archenouz, transsenteraining lat-bleau d'Angleteree, furnishes us with the following paragraph. the worst cases. PILES. As a remedy for this most distressing and obstunct malady, the VEGETABLE LIFE MRDICINES deserve a distinct and emphatic recommendation. It is well known to hundreds in this city, that the former proprietor of these valu-able Medicines was himself afflicted with this complaint for upwards of puncty remedy prescribed within the whole compass of the Materia Medica. He however at length tried the Medicine which is now officed to the public, and he was erred in a uosted. O. CONRAD, Importer of Watches now offered to the public, and he was cured in a very short time, after his recovery had been pro-nounced not only improbable, but absolutely im-possible, by any human means.

FEVER AND AGUE.

For this scourge of the western country these fodicines will be found a safe, speedy, and cortain remedy. Other medicines leave the system sub-ject to a return of the disease—a curo by these medicines is permanent TRY THEM, BE SA-TISFIED, AND BE CURED. *

Bilious Fevers and Liver Complaints: Billious Fovers and Liver Complaints: General Debility, Lose or AFETITE, AND DISFASES OF FEMALES—these medicines have been used with the most benoficial results, in cases of this description:—KINO'S EVIL, and SCROFULA, in its worst forms, yields to the mild yet powerful action of these remarkable Medicines. NIGHT SWEATS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, NERVOUS COMPLAINTS of all kinds, PLETATION OF THE HEART, PAINTER'S COLIC, are speedily curved.

MERCURIAL DISEASES.

Persons whose constitutions have become im-paired by the mjudicious use of Manbuay, will find these Mediciues a perfect cure, us they never fuil to eradicate from the system all the effects of Mercury infinitely scongr than the most powerful preparations of Sareuparilla. A single trial will place them beyond the reach of competition, in the estimation of every patient. BE CAREFUL OF COUNTERFEITS.

Several have lately been discovered, and their nefarious authors arrested, both in the city of New ork and abroad.
