WEATHER WISDOM .- A careful study of the thermometer has shown that a des-cent of the temperature of London from cent of the temperature of Loudon from forty-five to thirty-two degrees generally kills, about three hundred, persons. They may not all die in the very week when the loss of warmth takes place, but the number of deaths is found to increase to that extent over the previous average within a short period after the The fall of temperature in change. The fall of temperature in truth, kills them as certainly as a well-aimed cannon shot. Our changing climate, or deficient food and shelter, has weathered them for the final stroke, but they actually die at last of the weather. Instead of a warm summer being followed by a cold winter, the tendency of the-law of the weather is to group warm sensons together and cold seasons together. Mr. Glasier has made out that the character of the weather seems to follow certain curves, so to speak, each extending over of fifteen years. During the first halt of each of these periods the seasons become warmer and warmer till they reach their warmest point, and then they sink again, becoming colder and colder, and colder till they reach the lowest point, whence they rive again. His tables range over the last seventy-nine years-from 1771 1849. Periods shown to be the coldest' were years memorable for high priced food, increased mortality, and popular discontent, and political changes .--- Dickens' Household Words

How TO GET TO SLEEP.-How to get to sleep is, to many persons, a matter of high importance. Nervous persons, who are troubled with wakefulness and excitability, usually have a strong tendency of blood to the brain, with cold ex-tremities. The pressure of blood on the brain keeps it in a stimulated or wakeful state, and the pulsations in the head are often painful. Let such rise and chafe the body and extremities with the hands, to promote circulation, and withdraw the excessive amount of blood from the brain, and they will fall asleep in a few moments. A cold bath, or sponge bath, and rubbing, or a good run, or rapid walk in the open air, or going up and down stairs a few times, just before retiring, will aid in equalizing circufation and promoting sleep. These rules are simple, and easy of application in castle or cabin, and may minister to the comfort of thousands who would freely expend money for an anodyne to promote "Nature's sweet restorer, balmysleep."

SUPERSTITIONS REGARDING FRIDAY .----It is strange, that Friday is regarded, in all countries, as a peculiar day. In Eng-land it is generally considered unlucky; and many people-will not commence any undertaking on that day: and most sailors believe that the vessel is sure to be wrecked that sails on Friday. If a mar riage takes place on that day, the old wives shake their heads and predict all kinds of misfortunes to the bride and bridegroom. Nay, they even go so far as to pity all children who are so unlucky as to be born on Friday. In Germany, on the contrary, Friday is considered a lucky day for weddings, commoncing new undertakings, or other memorable events; and the reason of this superstition is said to be the ancient belief, that the witches and sorcerers held their weekly meetings on this day; and of course, while they were amusing themselves with dancing, and riding on broom-sticks around the Blocksberg, they could have no time to work any evil.

THE HAIR .- Each hair is a tube, containing an oil, of a color similar to its own. Hair contains at least ten distinct substances: sulphate of lime and magnesia, chlorides of sodium and potassi-um, phosphate of lime, peroxide of iron, tate of ammor oxide of man ganese and margain. Of these sulphur, is the most prominent, and it is upon It this that certain metallic salts operate in changing the color of the hair. Thus, when the salts of lead or mercury are applied, they enter into combination with the sulpher, and a black sulphuret of the metal-is formed. A common formula for a paste to dye the hair, is a mixture of litharge, slacked lime, and bicarbonate of potash. Black hair contains iron and manganese and no magnesia; while fair hair is destitute of the two first substances, but possesses magnesia.

LOLUSENESS, BROM-CALTER, OROSP, ASTH-

THE WONDERS OF NATURE .- There is a tree called the Machaneel, in the West Indies; its appearance is very attractute, and the wood of it peculiarly. beautiful. It bears an apple resembling a golden pippin. This fruit looks very tempting, and smells very fragrant, but to eat it is instant death, and its sap or juice is so poisonous, that if a few drops fall on the skin, it raises blisters, and occasions great pain. The Indians dip their arrows in itsjuice to poison their enemies when they wound them. Providence has so appointed, however, that one of these is never found, but near it grows a white wood, or a fig tree, the juice of either of which, it applied in time, is a remedy for the descase produced.

Assaferina.-This article is obtained from a large umbelliferous plant growing in Persia. The root resembles a large parsnip externally, of a black color on cutting it traversely, the assafatida; exudes in form of a white thick juice, like cream, which, from exposure to the air, becomes yellower and yellower, and at last of a dark brown color! It is very apt to run in putrefaction; and hence those who collect it carefully, defend it from the sun. The fresh juice has an excessively strong smell, which grows weaker and weaker upon keeping; a single drachm of the fresh fluid smells more than a hundred pounds of the dry assofæetida brought to us .- Scientific American.

GREAT SIZE AND LONGEVITY OF TREES. -We learn from a late number of the North American Review, that there are North American Review, that there are three cypresses in Mexico, whose ages va-ry from 2,390 to 4,024 years, at the min-imum estimate of scientific calculation; at the maximum, from 3,480 to 5, 124 years almost coeval with the creation. These calculations are based upon inspection of the layers' of wood, as compared with: the known age and relative growth of smaller trees of the same species. The girth of the cypress of Montezuma is 45 feet That of the giant cypress of Santa Maria del Thule, the Nestor of the race, is, near the base, one hundred and twenty-two feet, or forty feet in diameter. Its height is not given, but the tree as yet shows no signs of decay. Pinus Douglass attains an altitude of from 200 to 300 feet; one measured by Lewis and Clatke gave 918.
