

CARLISLE, PENN. THE LARGEST AND CHEAPEST NEWSPAPER IN CUMBERLAND COUNTY!

We have received a communication on the subject of the proposed amendment to the Constitution providing for an elective Judiciary, but have no space for it this week.

On Tuesday last, on motion of W. M. Biddle, Esq. Mr. T. D. Primrose, was admitted to practice in the several Courts of Cumberland County.

Four locomotives, of the largest class, which are intended for use on the Cumberland Valley Railroad for the completion of the new track, were taken through here to Chambersburg on Thursday last.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—We regret to learn that Mr. Wm. B. Mullen, of Paper-town, met with a painful accident yesterday afternoon, while tending the rag cutter in his Papermill.

The Man who takes no Newspaper.—As a general thing, the Marshals tell us, they are well received and promptly answered in town and country.

The Man who takes no Newspaper.—In nine cases out of ten they find him a cross-grained, stupid ignorant person, with a scull so thick that few flickering rays of knowledge that occasionally beam upon him, are totally unable to penetrate its dark recesses.

One of the heaviest rains we have had for a long time fell on Sunday last. The creeks in the neighborhood were swollen to a great height, and some injury was done in places to the embankment of the Cumberland Valley Railroad, causing a detention of the trains.

The admirable Garrison Band, under the charge of Sergeant Aikin, gave another delightful musical treat in the square on Thursday evening last.

V. B. PALMER'S Business Men's Almanac for 1851, is already published. It will be found replete with information respecting Banks, Canals, Railroad, Routes of Travel, Imports, Exports, Revenue, Trade, Industry, Manufactures, Agriculture, and almost every thing else in which the business portion of the public can be interested.

Two deserters from the Carlisle Barracks were arrested near Middletown on Saturday and brought back.

On Thursday evening, 25th ult., at 6 1/2 o'clock, in Newton township, JOHN CRAIG McCULLOUGH, in the 21st year of his age.

In West Pennsboro, on the 26th of August, Miss Mary CARRISON, in the 34th year of her age.

In Newton township, on the 28th of August, at the residence of his father, LAURENCE HANSEN, aged 10 years and 16 months.

At her late residence in Springfield, on the morning of the 28th inst., of a disease of the heart, Miss Mary Adams, aged 64 years, died.

On the 28th ult., ELIZABETH BARNES, only daughter of John and Margaret M. Ego, aged 10 months and 10 days.
